Upcoming Events

Lupercalia at the River's Head Inn Saturday, February 27th, 2010

It may be cold outside, but the party is hot in here! Come celebrate Lupercalia with the Barony of An Dubhaigeainn!

Lupercalia is a traditional Roman holiday, slightly akin to Valentine's Day but this is no Hallmark Holiday. It's a mid-winter fertility and rebirth festival full of hijinks and delicious food. The holiday celebrates Lupercus, a god roughly equivalent to the Greek Pan, and the goddess Lupa, who suckled the orphan twins Romulus and Remus. Traditionally, a priest would do a ritual at the mouth of the cave where Romulus and Remus were fostered and a goat and wolf would be sacrificed. Two boys would be anointed with the goat's blood and then they would run through the streets with straps of goat hide. It was thought to be good for fertility or an easy labor to get hit with the goat's hide.

While we won't be recreating the traditional ritual, we have planned a hearty dayboard and a period yet palatable to modern tastes Roman feast. The day's activities will include a rousing game of "Whose Battle Line Is It Anyway?" (an improv bardic competition) and other games to be played throughout the day, as well as plenty of socializing and carousing with friends after being shut in for the long winter.

Please note that the event location has an on-site bar. However, no outside alcohol will be permitted. Also, please note that fish will be served during the evening feast for those of the populace that have allergies.

Directions:

Take the Long Island Expressway to the end; Exit 73 to Route 58. Travel through Riverhead, go straight through the traffic circle, leaving the hospital on your left. Pass straight through the intersection with CR43 - Northville Turnpike. At the next major intersection, (look for Edwards Sporting Goods on the right) Route 58 will end and Route 25 is to the east and south. Turn Right on to Route 25 West (East Main Street). After approximately 3/10's of a mile, the Elks lodge will be on the left. Parking is available in the front of the hall. Please check in at Troll upon arrival.

Event Summaries

St. Andrew Visits Iceland by Lady Alissenda la Gailharda

What can we say about this gorgeous event? There isn't ink enough to praise everyone involved. The theme was Icelandic and everything from the decorations, the classes, and the food was steeped in Icelandic history. His Royal Majesty Konrad von Ulm was in attendance along with several members of his court. Baron Don Jean Xavier did a phenomenal job as autocrat, finding us a beautiful new site at the Masury Estate in Center Moriches. Located right on the water, the site had plenty of room for fighting, merchanting and socializing, as well as a regal hall for feasting. Lady Daria's recent travels to Iceland inspired the theme, and she was on hand to teach several classes in Icelandic culture and literature. An interesting tidbit: the Icelandic language remains virtually intact from medieval times, which means that even today's young Icelandic children are able to read the sagas in their native tongue.

A delectable feast was provided by Master Adamantius and his talented kitchen staff who outdid themselves with succulent roasts and period breads soups and side dishes. While there were martial activities, mundane obligations kept our current Baronial Heavy List Champion, Lord Marcus, from attending so their Excellencies did not name their new champion. We look forward to that contest on another date.

There were several presentations and awards during both the Baronial and Kingdom courts. Their Excellencies awarded a Silver feather to Lord Logan deLondres, Lord Wilhelm, and Lady Daria of An Dubhaigeainn. Baron Don Jean Xavier was awarded the Drake's Spur.

Afterwards, a presentation was made to their Excellencies by Baron Don Jean Xavier, Baroness Gianetta Lucia Alegretta, Lady Daria of An Dubhaigeainn, Lord Peter of Hawkwoods, Lord Peter Bog,

Lord Nicodemus the Grey and Lady Elishiva. And what a presentation it was! A hand carved replica of the Valþjófsstaður Door made by Lord Peter and based on research provided by Lady Daria and Lord Marcus who sent over 400 pictures of the original door from Iceland. His Majesty was so impressed with the workmanship that he immediately honored the craftsman by naming him The Honorable Lord Peter of Hawkwoods. Additionally, Miquel d'Avinhon and yours truly received an Award of Arms. Lord Ulrich, previously honored, was presented by His Majesty with his scroll painted by our own Baroness Lassar. As a final highlight to a wonderful event, His Majesty decreed that The Princess Bride is period.

Thank You's From Baron Don Jean Xavier

Greetings to All!

I would like to thank all of you who attended and helped with St. Andrew visits Iceland this past November. I heard a great many positive comments on the new site at the Masury Estate in Center Moriches, and I hope we will be using it again. The Holiday Beach Property Owners Association, which rents out the site, were very happy with our conduct and how we left the premises. Members of the association arrived early the following morning to prepare for a Board members' breakfast to find there was no need to clean up. They were quite pleased, to say the least.

This event would not have happened without the efforts of quite a few people to whom I offer my sincere thanks:

- : To Lady Daria – this event came to life due to the enthusiasm and information she brought back from her recent trip to Iceland. Her research lent to the classes, the decorations, and inspired the feast. Many thanks.
- : I am forever grateful for Master Adamantius for stepping into a difficult situation as feastocrat. With less than six weeks, a tight budget, a challenging site, and a unique Icelandic menu, he and those who helped (Baron Ian, Tabor, Lord Logan & Lord Wilhelm, to mention a few) prepared a memorable feast. Thanks also to our Baronial bakers, Lady Bree and Lord Wilhelm, for working so hard to create the leaf breads and the dark rye bread everyone enjoyed. To Lord Thorolf, Baroness Suzanne, Baron Ian, and Lord Wilhelm for bringing their smoker and turkey fryers to help cook at the site, I thank you.
- : Thank you to THL Peter of Hawkwoods for carving and casting the tokens for the event. And to Lady Sorcha, Lady Alissenda, and Michelle for helping with the finish work to the tokens.
- : Thank you to Baronessa Gianetta for designing the banners and decorating the hall, and to Lady Damianna and Michelle for the painting of the banners.
- : To Baronessa Gianetta for putting together the booklet and providing the art work for the event.
- : To Lord David for providing a clear mind and thought when I needed them most.
- : Thank you to everyone who helped with the loading, the unloading, the setup, troll, the cleanup, and the breakdown: Baron Ateño, Baroness Lassar, Viceroy Alexandre, THL Peter of Hawkwoods, Lady Sorcha, Eli said, Lord Vettorio, Lady Catrina, Lady Magdalena, Lord Friderich, Lady Lillie, Lord Jacob, Lord Logan, Lady Sheri, Lord Alec, Lady Damianna, Baronessa Gianetta, Lady Elishiva, Harold, Andi, Lord John of Gravesend, Lady Miranda Flamekeeper, Lord John the Bear, Lady Jenna Childslayer, Lady Marion of York, Lady Ophelia, Lord Vlad, THL Hassan the Turk, Citizen Titus, Alrek, Sigfried, Valand, Michelle, Kevin, Lord Tristan, Lady Alissenda, Lord Miquel and Lady Branimira. If I failed to mention your name, please forgive me. But know this; I am truly grateful for all your help.
- : I am thankful for the help provided by our friends and neighbors from Ostgardr and Lions End.

Finally and importantly, many thanks to my Lady wife for your support and for putting up with me during the creation of and execution of this event.

LOST & FOUND: Several items were found at clean-up - a noggin (wooden bowl with handle), a pewter goblet, a tankard strap. Please contact me at at jeanxavier2001@yahoo.com with "lost at St Andrews" in the subject line or call 631-874-2748 before 10 pm, please leave a message if no one answers.

Elizabethan Exhibit at Coe Hall

by Lady Alissenda la Gailharda

If you haven't yet visited Planting Fields Arboretum in Oyster Bay, you might not be aware that there is a magnificent Renaissance revival mansion called Coe Hall right in the middle of it. Built in 1921, the Gold Coast mansion incorporates both period elements imported from Europe, and expert reproductions from master craftsmen of the early 20th century.

Over the Holidays, the Hall hosted a special event showcasing both a high renaissance banquet setting and several costumes from the recent film, Elizabeth: The Golden Age. While Hollywood is generally not known for historical accuracy, the exhibit held a wealth of instructive detail. Several gowns from the film were featured, as well as one of the costumes worn by Clive Owen as Sir Walter Raleigh. The attention to detail was meticulous, from the hand stitched bodices to the crisply pleated tiny lace for the ruffs. Of particular interest were the gold ornaments and fountain used to adorn the banqueting table. On closer inspection, one could see that the display was a clever use of spray painted, inexpensive elements like plastic lawn ornaments, balls, plant pots and candlesticks - an easy yet impressive table setting. Unfortunately, the exhibit closed January 3, but I have photos if anyone is interested. For more information and their regularly scheduled hours, please check the Planting Fields web site here: <http://www.plantingfields.org/>

Canton of Hawkes Reache (incipient)

The ball is rolling and we are moving forward towards full status. For several years, Hawkes Reache has been growing. At last count, we were nearly one third of the Barony's population. If you live in zip code 11701, 11702, 11703, 11704, 11706, 11717, 11718, 11721, 11724, 11725, 11726, 11729, 11731, 11740, 11743, 11746, 11747, 11751, 11754, 11757, 11768, 11770, 11787, or 11795, you're a member.

Everything is in place for us to take our place as a full Canton. We have money in the bank, a dedicated core of officers as well as the ability and will to hold events on our own. While we wait for all the paperwork to be approved, we cordially invite you to join us at our monthly meetings at the Harborfields Library in Greenlawn. We meet on the second Tuesday of each month. This month's meeting will be held on January 12th at 7:30 PM.

Hawkes Reache Medieval Movie Night - event recap

We ate. We drank. We partied. We also had a quiz, for all the movie geeks in attendance. Before screening the group choice film, Anne of A Thousand Days, we had a flash card quiz of over eighty screen captures from movies both popular and obscure. Partial credit was given to those correctly naming the actor if they couldn't remember the name of the movie. Congratulations to Lord Alexander MacLachlan (Brett Kessler) for winning the grand prize bottle of Scotch. Runner up accolades go to Lord John of Gravesend (John Francavillo).

Seen on the Web

The Metropolitan Museum of Art - The January calendar of concerts and lectures can be seen here: <http://www.metmuseum.org/tickets/calendar.asp?m=1&y=2010&f=t> Of special note is the 1/22 lecture on the medieval concepts of Heaven, Hell and Judgment.

From the Coronet

Greetings from Ateño & Lassar!

With the coming of cold weather, it reminds us of how lucky we are to have modern technology. Those people and cultures we attempt to emulate and understand had to deal with weather and nature much more than we do. Think of waking in a warm bed, and it's 20 degrees in the house. You're the one who has to get up and start the fire. If you're lucky, you can use yesterday's ashes.

We seem to want to recreate the good things of the past and it's often easy to forget how much time and effort our ancestors used just to deal with the process of living. The art and items that have been retrieved from archaeological finds are amazing, given the amount of free time available to folks from the past. Granted, much of the great art produced may have been because there were numerous peasants supporting the artisan or noble. Still, it's something to think about as you begin your next art or science project.

The cold also brings reminders of the recent event St. Andrew Visits Iceland. It was a great event all around and thanks to everyone in the production staff. While there are many memories chronicled in this newsletter, they are only a small part of our experience of the whole event.

We look forward to our celebration of Lupercalia on February 27th and how the autocrat will translate the original Roman customs. We also hope to have a conversation on how to adjust our Baronial Heavy Weapons championship during the day.

As for our personal travel plans, we will be representing An Dubhaigeainn at East Kingdom 12th Night and also at the East Kingdom Bardic Champions on February 20th. While at 12th Night, we plan to present some of the scroll blanks produced at the recent scribal workshop. If you have any you'd like to include, please contact Mistress Suzanne de Londres, Baron Don Jean Xavier or ourselves to arrange dropping them off before Thursday, January 14. We look forward to seeing any of you who might be able to attend these events.

Have a safe, warm winter and look forward to spring!
