From the Chronicler

This is just a quick thank you to the Barony and to my deputy, Michelle Schumacher, for making this job so much fun. As the Baron mentions in his Letter from the Coronet, it is our great pleasure to let you know that the Viaduct has been nominated for the William Blackfox Award in four categories: Best Overall, Best Layout and Design, Best Regular Feature (Arts & Sciences News and Notes) and Best Article (The Real Macbeth). The Blackfox Awards are given once a year by the Office of the Society Chronicler. It's wonderful to be recognized by the East Kingdom Chronicler and we'll keep our fingers crossed for when the Office of the Society Chronicler announces the awards some time this fall.

Combat Arts: fighting, fencing, archery & thrown weapons

From the Acting Knight Marshal: Official fight practice has resumed on WEDNESDAY evenings, 6:30 PM at Broadway Avenue Park, Sayville. If the lights aren't on at the baseball field, we'll be adjacent to the handball courts on the south side of the same parking lot. In my absence any of the following may step in as Marshal in Charge so that scheduled baronial practice may continue with insurance intact: Kevin Dowd, James Peck, and Eric Rhude. The fencers operate on a similar premise. Moresca (Julie DeVuono) is the deputy KM in charge of Rapier. In her absence, any of the following may MiC a Rapier practice: Pete Boullianne, Erik Soto, and Brett Kessler.

Heavy Weapons: In case you missed it, as of June 1, 2010, all East Kingdom fighters are required to cover any modern plastic equipment with a minimum of a plain tabard. Further details can be found in The Pikestaff, or contact Adam Steinfelder at (631)514-1104 after noon for further information. Up to date information on practices may also be found at the Yahoo web site here:

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/scaducks/>

We have been invited to join the fighters of Ostgardr who continue to meet on Sundays in Brooklyn from noon until about four pm. at Quality Conservation, 140 58th Street, Bldg. A, Unit 8M. The site is indoors - a large warehouse with plenty of room, so even polearms are fine. There is plenty of parking within a fenced and guarded lot. For those taking public transportation, the site is two to three blocks from the R/N train stop at 59th Street. Non-fighters are welcome to attend. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact RobertEsteves@gmail.com

We have also been invited to join a NON SCA event for Saturday & Sunday, June 12&13 at Our Lady of Grace church in West Babylon. MSR is seeking fighters to come out for their medieval fair. Contact Count-Nicolo di Palermo (Tony Giuliani), stikjock@aol.com.

Archery & Thrown Weapons:

NEXT PRACTICE: Saturday, June 19 at 1pm at the home of Mark and Dina Wolyniec. Please bring a chair, sun block, bug spray, and food and drink to share. There will be space available for anyone who wants to work on making tabards for the Barony, or any other project. There will be room for pick up fighting as well, as long as a marshall is available. Additionally, the Barony is seeking loaner gear. If you have any gear you'd like to donate, please contact Baron Don Jean Xavier, 631-874-2748 before 10 p.m. or jeanxavier2001@yahoo.com with "archery gear" in the subject line.

Fencing Practice

Please call Moresca before coming to practice to confirm that practice will be held. We continue to meet at 640 Belle Terre Rd., Building F, in Port Jefferson. As noted, practice for fencers is Friday evenings, 7:30-10 PM.

Some loaner gear may be available if requested beforehand. If you're curious, come see what we're all about!

Contact Moresca at 347-276-8813 or moresca@aol.com

Potted Arms and Fancy Faire - Saturday, June 26, 2009

Hosted by the Canton of Hawkes Reache

We have much to celebrate as the Canton of Hawkes Reache has officially emerged from incipency! There will be a Pas D'Arms tournament to select the new Baronial Fencing Champion, and games and activities for all! Merchants are most welcome to help us get in fine shopping form for Pennsic! So bring your chairs and blankets to take respite upon the lawns and watch the fencing activities and visit with old and new friends.

A hearty day board will be served throughout the day. No feast will be served but fear not, for none shall leave hungry! The table has groaned under the bounty of the day board for the past three years!

There will be an auction to benefit the Canton of Hawkes Reache - come and have fun bidding on the various items. Heavy Weapons pick up fighting will be held. List opens at 11AM. The first Tournament will be decided by our current Fencing Champion, Lord Vettorio Anonello. There will be the 4th Annual "Hat Auction", benefiting the Baronial Rapier Community where the populace can bid for a fencer represented by their hat. If that rapier fighter wins the Tournament, the bidder wins a prize. A Pas D'Arms Tournament to decide the next Baronial Rapier Champion will be based on a period demonstration of skill. The demonstration of skill and Pageantry will help Their Excellencies choose their next champion from the An Dubhaigeainn participants and the overall Champion of the Tourney from all of the participants, everyone is welcome to participate and there is a strong emphasis on pageantry.

You must have your introduction prepared for a herald to read, and you are strongly encouraged to actually bring your own "over the top" herald (like in "Knight's Tale"), there will be a prize and recognition for the best Heraldry. Please contact Vettorio Antonello (Erik Soto) soto.erik@gmail.com phone (516) 443-2352 (before 10PM) with any questions.

Directions:

From the Long Island Expressway, take Exit 49N (Route 110), or
 From the Northern State Parkway, take Exit 40N (Route 110), or

Pennsic Notes

War Approaches!

The online registration deadline for Pennsic is June 15. If you haven't already gotten your registration in, be sure to do so and remember to indicate your intention to camp with An Dubhaigeainn. Contact our land agent, THL Peter of Hawkwoods (Pete Farrell), pfarrell27@yahoo.com for further information on registration and camp fees.

Pre-Pennsic Baronial Commons - Saturday, July 10

Our Pre-Pennsic Commons will be held at the home of Baron Master Sean de Londres, 215 Carlton Drive East, Shirley, NY 11967, beginning at 1 P.M., (631) 775-7083. Garb is requested but not required. And speaking of garb, we've been doing informal garb swaps at our throwing practices and Commons, so if you have something you'd like to swap by all means bring it! We'll be talking about our plans for the Baronial encampment and gearing up for War! If you've been toying with the idea of coming to Pennsic but are not sure what to expect, this is a good place to pick people's brains about what to expect.

We hope to be outside, so please dress accordingly and if you can, bring a camp chair, bug spray and sunblock for your comfort. We also request you bring your own beverages and a dish to share for 4-6 people. Some tables will be provided for ongoing projects, and there will be room for both thrown weapons and pick up fighting, provided marshals are present.

DIRECTIONS:

Canton of Hawkes Reache

It's official! The Board of Directors has officially recognized Hawkes Reache as a full Canton. If you live in zip code 11701, 11702, 11703, 11704, 11706, 11717, 11718, 11721, 11724, 11725, 11726, 11729, 11731, 11740, 11743, 11746, 11747, 11751, 11754, 11757, 11768, 11770, 11787, or 11795, you're a member.

We'll be celebrating at Potted Arms and Fancy Faire in Huntington on June 26th, our first event as a full Canton. (see pg. 5) Hope you can join us there!

Due to a scheduling conflict with the library, our next meeting will be held in Northport at the home of Pam Jacques pjny@yahoo.com and Pete Farrell pfarrell27@yahoo.com on Tuesday, June 8 at 7:30 p.m. Hope you can join us!

Yours in service,
Alexander MacLachlan, Canton Seneschal

Arts & Sciences news and notes

Sewing and Stained Glass

Mark your calendar! The next workshop will be held on Sunday, June 13 at 1 p.m. These workshops are held even if one person shows up, so be sure to contact Baroness Lisl by Friday, June 11th to confirm your attendance. If you're interested in learning more about stained glass, please let her know in advance so she can prepare materials. You can reach Baroness Lisl at 631-243-4734 or email at iliketosew1@verizon.net.

Any fighters needing to upgrade their garb to meet the new East Kingdom requirements are more than welcome. Remember, the new requirements are still being phased in so you have enough time (and help!) to get your kit up to speed. As an additional sweetie to tempt you, Sir Richard Blackmoore has offered to open his extensive library on Arms and Armor for on-site perusal by interested parties while the classes are going on. Again, please call or email on the Friday before to let them know if you plan to attend, thanks. Anyone needing hands on assistance from Sir Richard regarding armor & combat research or advice, should contact him in advance to set up a date & time to work with him in person: Email at theregent1@verizon.net.

More Sewing workshops!

Duchess Isabella wants to inform the populace that Mistress Katherine Gillesfleur and Baroness Jacqueline Helene Loisel have been holding a series of sewing workshops intended to broaden your sewing skills: Sewing - Beyond the Basics. The workshops will resume some time after Pennsic and are intended to advance the tailor beyond basic sewing skills. If you have ever finished a sewing project and thought to yourself that it is "not quite right" or "not quite what you wanted it to look like" then this is the class for you! Each workshop is designed to cover specific areas of sewing skills, with subsequent workshops building on the knowledge from the previous ones. After Pennsic, we plan to schedule additional classes sometime in September/October for Sleeves.

Directions:

Public transportation: # 4 train to the end of the line - Woodlawn station. When you go downstairs, go across the street to the bus shelter and take either the number 34 or 16. It is only a short ride. The bus follows along the Woodlawn Cemetery and turns on the corner of East 233rd Street. As soon as you see the BP Gas Station on the left (the first light is one block up) ring the bell. The next stop is Napier Avenue. Cross the street and walk 3 short blocks. Our house is the one on the corner of E. 236th street entrance on Napier.

Driving: From the south, take your best route to the Major Deegan (87) and use exit 13 (East 233rd Street). At the end of the exit ramp is a light, go straight. At the next light make a left onto Van Cortlandt Park East (The BP Station is on the corner). Go three blocks to Napier Avenue. Our house is on the corner on the right.

All workshops will be at the home of Baroness Jacqueline and Baron Luigi (Luigi and Jackie Kapaj) at 4291 Napier Avenue, Bronx NY 10470. Contact phone numbers: Baroness Jacqueline (Jackie Kapaj) 718-994-2020 -- jhkapaj@hotmail.com. Mistress Katherine Gillesfleur (Debbie Krevor) 718-767-0757. (If no one answers, please leave a message on the machine, thanks!)

Local Museum Exhibits of Interest:

In these tough economic times, remember to check with museums to see if they have any options for free admission. Many local museums have free or reduced admission prices at specified hours, and many Suffolk libraries offer free passes for admission to specific museums on specific days. Check with your local librarian for further details or do a quick search on the Suffolk Web:

<http://suffolk.lib.ny.us/> Enter 'museum passes' in the search field to find out if your library offers passes.

We are lucky enough to live near Manhattan, home to some of the world's most valuable illuminated manuscripts. Both The Cloisters in upper Manhattan and The Morgan in midtown have regular displays, and for the next several months we will have the opportunity to see two of the most beautiful manuscripts ever created: The Hours of Catherine of Cleves, currently at the Morgan (free admission after 7 PM on Fridays), and the Belle Heures of Jean de France, Duc de Berry, currently at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. For more information, check out the web links below.

There are some marvelous activities coming up at The Cloisters in Fort Tryon Park. Those interested in medieval gardening can attend Garden Days at the Cloisters on June 5 and 6th. This year's presentations will include two workshops on medieval trees and forests. The tours and lectures are available for free along with your museum admission. For more information, check out their website:

Seen on the Web - a random sampling of web sites

One of the most important resources we have available to us on the web is the East Kingdom website: <http://www.eastkingdom.org/> We also have a wonderful 'wiki' East Kingdom website stocked with goodies: http://www.eastkingdom.org/mediawiki/index.php/Main_Page

The Metropolitan Museum of Art - The full range of events and programs available at the Met can be found here: <http://www.metmuseum.org/events/>. Special Exhibitions information can be found here: http://www.metmuseum.org/special/index.asp?HomePageLink=special_c4

"The Art of Illumination: The Limbourg Brothers and the Belle Heures of Jean de France, Duc de Berry" is still on exhibit until June 13, 2010. If you can't make the exhibit in person, you can catch an online lecture given by a Met curator here: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6LKYPRZkDF0>

Another wonderful site from the Met is a blog dedicated to the plants and gardens of The Cloisters. Explore the role of plants and gardens in medieval life and art, learn how to find and grow medieval herbs and flowers, discuss the long histories of many familiar garden plants, and discover which roadside weeds were once valued medicinals. Check it out here: <http://blog.metmuseum.org/cloistersgardens/>

Medievalists.net is a website for people interested in the Middle Ages. This includes scholars, writers, historians, readers and anyone who enjoys medieval history or culture. Linked to both Facebook and Twitter, the web site serves as a central online hub for news, resources and videos on medieval topics. Check them out at: www.medievalists.net and <http://medievalnews.blogspot.com/>.

Help Wanted

The Barony is currently seeking Letters of Intent for the following positions. If you have questions about a job, you can speak with either the outgoing officer, the Seneschal Lord David, or His Excellency, Baron Ateno. Letters of Intent must be submitted to either Lord David or Their Excellencies.

Deputy to the Minister of Lists: Many hands make light work, so Lord Logan is seeking additional gentles willing to serve as Deputies.

Web Minister: If you know your way around a web site, the Barony is seeking someone who will be responsible for maintaining and updating our web site.

Youth Minister: We are seeking folks to serve as Youth Ministers. Ideally, we would like to find people willing to serve as Youth Marshal and/or Youth Minister for non marshal activities.

Special Projects

If you have anything you'd like to donate for the auctions to be held at Potted Arms in June (for the fencing fund and for Hawkes Reache) please contact Miquel d'Avinhon (631-385-1950).

We're also seeking folks willing to work on making tabards for our fighters. Even if you can't sew, we need people who can donate fabric, paint stencils, or even cut the pattern pieces. Please contact Lady Damianna, (631)921-6968 before 9 pm. Feel free to bring your skills (and sewing machines if you have them) to Lady Damianna's house during the next archery and thrown weapons practice on June 19th.

Finally, we are seeking people who want to work on building and manning a trebuchet for an exhibit to be held this coming November. If you think you might be interested, contact Sir Richard Blackmore (James Peck) theregent1@verizon.net or Lord Marcus (Marc Redgate) jon.horde@yahoo.com.

Baronial Review

Per East Kingdom Law, the barony is up for its periodic review. You are encouraged to write to Their Majesties, King Edward and Queen Marguerite, with your thoughts about the Barony. While we may often think to pick up a pen regarding complaints, this is also the time to let Their Majesties know what you appreciate about the stewardship of our Baron and Baroness. Letters must be received no later than June 15. Be sure to sign and place a phone number on your letters. Anonymous letters will be disregarded.

From the Coronet

Greetings from Ateño & Lassar!

First off, once again we'd like to offer our congratulations to our new heavy weapons champion, Lord Dankwert Bathory, for winning one of the largest tournaments we've had in An Dubhaigeainn, at least for this purpose. He will hold the title for a year and a half, and he is already planning the tournament to decide his successor.

Our heartfelt and sincere congratulations to the Canton of Hawkes Reache for attaining full Canton status. It was a long bit of bureaucratic paperwork and several meetings but it shows that this Canton is, and will be viable in the future. Thank you to all who made this possible.

We can only reiterate what our Land Officer THL Peter of Hawkswoods says. We hope that all of you planning to come to Pennsic are pre-registered with your fees paid. An Dubhaigeainn has a nice spot that is centrally located and an excellent crew of people working during their vacation to make yours enjoyable. Please pitch in when you can. We do hold a court at Pennsic, so if there is any business that you think should be conducted there, contact us or our Herald.

The nominations for the newsletter awards were received this month, and our own Chronicler and newsletter was nominated four times. Best Overall, Best Layout and Design, Best Regular Feature, Best Article. The list says it all, Lady Alissenda, thank you for all your hard work

Have an excellent summer and we hope to see you at 'Potted Arms and Fancy Faire' where we will soon decide our fencing and rapier champion. Lord Vettorio is in charge of finding his replacement, and from what we have heard, it will be fun. Come out and enjoy the day.

Thanks for your support.

In Service,
Ateno and Lassar
Baron and Baroness An Dubhaigeainn
