From the Mistress of Lists

Congratulations to Lord Alexander MacLachlan as he rejoins the Marshalette of Fence and thank you to everyone who has already submitted their official authorization for inclusion in a baronial data base for all things martial! I continue to record the Authorization Numbers, the particular Forms of Weapon in which One is Qualified and most importantly the Date the Authorization expires.

There are two ways for this information to get into my collection: 1) when you see me at an event, show me your Authorization Card(s), or 2) e-mail the same to me at CreativePamela@yahoo.com I'd also like to know if you are authorized in a New Weapon or Form off our Ducky Soil. Please drop me a line to let me know of your accomplishment. I shall add it to the compendium and also include a congratulatory note in the next Viaduct.

The day will be filled with Tournaments, games, shopping and a hearty day board to tempt one and all! The Canton invites you to bring your chairs, blankets and shade to take respite upon the lawns, participate in the wide variety of activities, and visit with friends new and old. The Tournaments:

Fencing: Our current Baronial fencing Champion, Baron Master Don Jean Xavier Bouiller (Pete Boullianne), is hard at work designing the formats of the fencing tournaments. There shall be two tournaments: the Hat Tournament and the Pas D'Arms Tournament. Inspections and authorizations for the Tournaments will begin at 11 a.m. At noon, just prior to the start of the Hat Tournament, the Canton will once again hold the ever-popular Hat Auction, where members of the populace can bid for the favor of a fencer as symbolized by the fencer's hat. A prize is awarded to the bidder whose fencer wins the Hat Tournament, which shall immediately follow the auction.

At the conclusion of the Hat Tournament, there shall be a short respite, followed by the Pas D'Arms Tournament, which is based on a demonstration of period skill. Everyone is welcome to participate. The Pas D'Arms Tournament places a strong emphasis on pageantry. Each fencer in the Tournament must be introduced by a herald. It is expected that each fencer's herald will be vividly over the top (as in A Knight's Tale). A prize and recognition will be awarded for the best heraldry. The demonstrations of both skill and pageantry will help Their Excellencies to choose the next Baronial Champion from amongst the An Dubhaigeainn participants, and the overall Tournament Champion from amongst all participants. Please contact Jean Xavier by e-mail at jeanxavier@optonline.net or by phone at 631-874-2748 before 10 p.m. with any questions.

Thrown Weapons: The Canton is happy to report that the Baronial Thrown Weapons championship, inaugurated at last year's event, will return! Our current champion, John of Gravesend (John Francavillo), promises tests of skill and accuracy! For more information, please contact him by e-mail at cogneto@yahoo.com with any questions.

Archery Practice: Once again the Canton will hold an extensive Archery practice. If a sufficient number of participants are interested, the Marshal will arrange and record Royal Rounds. Please contact the Marshal-in-Charge, THL Peter of Hawkwoods (Peter Farrell), at 631-942-3441 before 9 p.m. or by e-mail at pfarrell27@yahoo.com with any questions.

Directions: Take your best route to Route 110 North into Huntington Village (approximately 4 miles from Route 25-- Jericho Turnpike). Turn left onto Main Street (Route 25A) then take your first right onto Wall Street. Continue north on Wall Street for 3/4 mile to Southdown Road. Make a left onto Southdown Road and follow the signs to Browns Road. There is a stop sign at the corner of Browns Road and Southdown Road. Turn right onto Browns Road. The site is on your left just past the Flower Hill elementary school.

News, Announcements and Thank-yous

Pennsic News & Baronial Commons

Pennsic War 41 is on the horizon! This year's War will be from July 27 – August 12, 2012. Our camp Coordinator, THL Peter of Hawkwoods (Peter Farrell) has already emailed information packets and required registration forms to those who have camped with the Barony before. If you are planning to camp with An Dubhaigeainn and have not yet received your packet, please contact Peter at pfarrell27@yahoo.com. Also, please remember to submit a completed form for each of the people who plan to attend.

Additionally, there will be a Baronial Commons on Saturday, June 9 from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the home of Scott and Pamela Petritsch, 78 Forest Road, Centereach, New York 11720, (631) 902-1003. Please bring a dish to feed four people and a beverage of your choice. Extra chairs are always welcome! Garb is optional and archery practice will be held, weather permitting. If you're new to either the Barony or the Pennsic experience, now is a perfect time to bring your curiosities and meet everyone in a social setting!

The Barony has been very busy this spring and we have much of which to be proud. First off, a big thank you goes out to the populace for participating in the recent polling process to assist the Crown in selecting our next Coronet. No results have been announced as yet, and we thank you for your patience and in taking the time to respond.

We have a new Baronial Arts & Sciences champion! Congratulations to Lady Maggie Rue, and thank you to everyone who submitted projects for consideration.

While we're on the subject of the recent Schola, a big thank you to Ronan FitzRobert, Lord Logan and our outgoing A&S Champion, lady Onora for all their hard work organizing the event. Thanks, too, to all our instructors who generously offered their time and expertise. Finally, a big hand to everyone who helped in the kitchen or with set up and break down. You know who you are and we thank you!

A big thank you to everyone who participated in the recent demo at Baiting Hollow. Nearly thirty people from both the barony and the Canton of Lion's End demonstrated period skills and martial contests at the weekend event. We made a fine impression and have already been asked to return next year for the 100th Anniversary of Scouting celebration.

We've got another demo coming up on May 11 at the Hauppauge Middle School, with many of the same folks coming out again, this time to teach and entertain 12 year olds there for Medieval Day. There is yet a third demo we've been asked to do at Park Shore Day Camp in Dix Hills. While the date and programs are still being finalized, we can tell you that we'll be needed there during the first week of Pennsic. So, if anyone is not planning to attend Pennsic this year, we can use fighters and crafters for this day long event. The children range in age from 5 -12. Please contact Lord Alexander MacLachlan for further information: captgoldman01@aol.com.

From the Coronet

Greetings from Ateño & Lassar!

We have had a busy month!

We thoroughly enjoyed accompanying our fencing and archery teams to Balfar's Challenge. A good time was had by all and we were also able to chat with the Princess about the balloting process and rekindle many friendships.

The recent Baronial Arts and Science Challenge and presentation was a great success. We were happy to see so many new members of the Barony and to have such wonderful projects entered for the Championship Challenge. Thank you to our former Champion, lady Onora, for organizing the Challenge. We were pleased to chat with each entrant and were long discussing who should take up the mantle. In the end, Lady Maggie Rue won with her embroidery and plant manuscript. We'd also like to compliment Lady Anna Tailor with her costuming and illumination and Lord Eanraig with his hand carved trencher and performance art. This was a VERY difficult decision. Thank you to everyone who helped make this event happen.

Baroness Gianetta recently organized a demo at the Baiting Hollow Camp Grounds. The weekend event brought up many fine memories as it was held at the site where An Dubhaigeiann was invested as a Barony. Approximately thirty gentles, including a few members of Ostgardr, traveled east for the nippy, sunny day. We were busy all day with the several displays that were diverse and allowed everyone to find something interesting. Baroness Lassar was so happy with the demo that she awarded Baroness Gianetta with the 'Baroness Favor'.

By the time you read this, the process for choosing the new East Kingdom Prince and Princess may well have concluded. What this means is that this couple will be the Crown most likely to officiate at our Baronial succession. We have but a few events and a small number of Baronial champion successions to oversee before we step down. As of this time there is no word, either official or unofficial, as to the Crown's selection of our successor Coronet. Assuming no news is good news, this means we had a valid ballot. We thank the populace for its patience in putting up with both us and the Seneschal frequently reminding one and all to cast valid ballots. The Seneschal will let us know when the Crown has decided, and then we will inform the three sets of candidates as to the Crown's decision. At that point, together we will pass the word to the populace.

We are hoping to attend the investiture at Barony Beyond the Mountain on May 19th.

In Service,

Ateno and Lassar

Baron and Baroness An Dubhaigeainn
