May this missive find the Kingdom of the East prosperous and peaceful. Here in our island barony it is time once again to invite one and all to our Arts and Sciences Schola. With the reinvention of our Duck University, we hope to offer an amazing day of classes in many different fields. The event will include demonstrations and lessons in fabric arts, history, scribal arts, as well as a working/teaching kitchen that will provide our day board.

There will also be a competition to determine the next arts and sciences champion for the barony. The rules for the competition can be found on page 6. Although only a member of the barony can claim the title of Champion of An Dubhaigeainn, any are welcome to demonstrate their skill in meeting this challenge.

Events and Happenings

A&S Championship Rules and Requirements

This year, each participant is required to create three different pieces, each representing a different A&S medium (sewing, painting, calligraphy, music, woodworking, etc.)

In addition, the three pieces must have a common theme. For example, one could embroider a rose for one piece, create an illumination including roses, and write a rose-inspired period-style song. Another example would be to carve a wooden bowl with a fish design, then have fish similarly decorate a leather pouch, along with a serving of fish.

This Championship will test participants' skills among the variety of arts as well as the creativity to create a unifying artistic theme. It should be noted that the interpretation of the theme's occurrence in the three separate pieces is up to the artisan. Documentation is required!!!

Pennsic XLIII!!!

Greetings!

I, Ronan Fitzrobert (MKA Scott Petritsch) will be serving as Land Agent for An Dubhaigeainn this year. I plan on trying to continue in my predecessors' footprints and maintaining the sense of family I have seen at our camp in years past. I will be sending out camping forms later this month. I plan on changing very little if anything in the rules and regulations for the camp. I won't start asking you to prereg for a few days yet, but I would ask that those of you who know that you will be camping with us this year to send me an e-mail letting me know your intentions at spp516@yahoo.com.

From the Coronet

Greetings unto the Populace of An Dubhaigeainn

We trust that for all, your holiday season was joyful and fun; and that you were afforded much time with your friends and family. We made it through the Mayan Apocalypse or perhaps the world as we knew it. Welcome to another new year and another new beginning.

As January begins, we start planning our year; from events – to demos – to travels around the kingdom.

We will be attending East Kingdom 12th night and hope that many of the populace of An Dubhaigeainn choose to attend as well.

So far we have the following planned for the coming months: Spring Schola, which will feature the Baronial Art & Science Champion Competition. As we will be in need of additional champions for the “Ostgardr Baronial Champions Challenge”, other champion competitions may be added to this venue.

We have begun negotiations with our cousins the Viceroy and Vicereine of Ostgardr, to find an amiable date in which we can meet their challenges. With hope we can have that by next month so that all of our champions can prepare accordingly.

We have been asked to participate at the Hauppauge Middle School Medieval Day again; this will be our 6th year of participation. All interested in helping with this demo should contact Baroness Suzanne (baroness@scaducks.org). The demo will be on May 3, 2013.

Congratulations to Juan Paco Sanchez for receiving his arms at Hundred Minute War, who is now a Lord of the Court.

In Service,

David and Suzanne
