"Potted" Arms & Fancy "Faire" IX

Saturday, June 27, 2015

Hosted by the Canton of Hawkes Reache - Huntington, New York

Spring flowers into summer. Their Excellencies, Baron David Vázquez de Valençia and Baroness Mistress Suzanne Neüber de Londres, set out across the lands of An Dubhaigeainn to collect tithes on their way to the Pennsic War.

The Canton of Hawkes Reache welcomes them with a Summer Faire, replete with two fencing Tournaments, including a Pas D'Arms Tournament to select the new Baronial fencing champion.

There will be Thrown Weapons practice & Heavy Weapons pickups and many other games and activities for all. Archery is no longer viable due to changes at the site. Merchants are most welcome to help the populace get into fine shopping form for Pennsic. The Canton invites you to bring your chairs, blankets and shade to take respite upon the lawns, participate in the wide variety of activities, and visit with old and new friends.

There will be a hearty day-board served throughout the event. No feast will be served, yet fear not! None shall leave hungry, as the table has groaned under the bounty of our day-board these past seven years!

The Tournaments:

Fencing

Our current Baronial fencing Champion, Lord Eanraig the Bonesetter (Jim Best), will surely design interesting tournaments as always.

Inspections and authorizations for the Tournaments will begin at 11 AM. At noon, just prior to the start of the Hat Tournament, the Canton will once again hold the ever-popular Hat Auction, where members of the populace can bid for the favor of a fencer as symbolized by the fencer's "hat". Each fencer in the Tournament must be introduced by a herald. It is expected that each fencer's herald will be vividly "over the top" (as in "A Knight's Tale"). A prize and recognition will be awarded for the best heraldry. A prize is awarded to the bidder whose fencer wins the Hat Tournament, which shall immediately follow the auction.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

“I know what a herald is, they’re the ones who like to shout ‘Oyez’ really loud.”

Not necessarily! That’s only one type of herald. There’s voice heralds, book heralds, and silent heralds too. The voice heralds are broken down into Court heralds, those are the ones who shout at you, and Field heralds. They’re the ones who announce which fighters are taking the field and instruct them on which order to salute people. The book heralds are the ones who can help you research and figure out a name and device for yourself. Some specialize in names, and others in armory. I’ll bet most people haven’t even heard of a silent herald. Sign language interpreter! And you don’t have to be hard of hearing to be able to appreciate them. Are you a fighter who has attended outdoor court, but there’s so much else going on around you that you can’t hear who’s getting their award before the battle? Or maybe you’ve been at an event where the acoustics of the room are absolutely horrible and you can’t tell what the tin hats up on stage are saying. If you can learn a few signs, you can watch the silent herald and know what’s going on!

If you would like to try your hand, or voice, at any of these, I would be delighted to help you begin.

Thanks,
Purple

From the Coronet

Unto the populace of An Dubhaigeainn, do your Baron and Baroness send greetings!

After hosting a wildly successful Crown Tournament, May was a relatively quiet month for the Barony, but June will be quite active with two events serving to book-end the month. Not to mention preparations for the yearly pilgrimage to Pennsic War.

June brings additional activities; from June 5th-7th, we will Find Hungry Samurai, and on June 27th, Potted Arms will see the selection of our new Baronial Fencing Champion. In between, on June 13th, we will visit Iron Bog for K&Q Rattan Champions, where Their Majesties will choose new Champions as well as invest our new cousins to represent them in their Barony. After we return from the Pennsic War we will host Arrows, Axes, and Ales, to be held August 29th, which will see the selection of our new Archery and Thrown Weapons Champions.

While we would love for all to compete in the Baronial Champions competitions, we ask that if you do compete, you keep in mind that there have and continue to be certain duties that are involved. As you are the champions of the Coronet, your presence is needed at certain times. Attendance at most events during your tenure as Champion is expected, and the planning and running of the competition for your successor is required. If you are able to attend the Pennsic War, we request that you process with the Barony as part of Opening Ceremonies and to East Kingdom Court as part of the Coronet entourage; as well as escort the Coronet to and from the annual House Runnymede Dinner, which is held on Monday evening of War Week.

Anyone with any questions regarding the expectations for our Champions should contact us – we know that there are circumstances that can prevent event attendance, and not everyone can be as active as they would like. We feel that it is important to the Barony to see its Champions present and representing their respective disciplines, but we don't want anyone to feel that they shouldn't try their hand at a competition because of a conflict without discussing it with us first, so please don't hesitate to approach us if you have any concerns.

The Coronet is continuing to look for individuals who want to learn how to be retainers. The job is not hard, and can be entertaining. It's a great way for a new member of the barony to better understand how the Barony and the SCA works. All interested parties should contact the Baroness.

We look forward to see the members of the populace to take advantage of the many opportunities to participate and enjoy the activities in the Barony.

David and Suzanne
