St. Andrews Visits the Patron Saint of Estonia

After celebrating Wallachian Heroes in Transylvania, and slaking his thirst at a Mead Hall, our own St Andrew travels south across the Baltic Sea to help Estonian Patron Saint George prepare for his Festival days in the spring. Join us at the Estonia House in Middle Island as St Andrew Visits St George. We will have our annual Heavy Championship, and activities in the gentler Arts & Sciences as they do in the far off reaches of Estonia. After the Fall Court of Their Excellencies, Baronness Suzanne Nueber de Londres and Baron David Vazquez de Valencia, there will be a marvelous feast Featuring the Flavors of Estonia. The HEAVY LIST CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNEY at this year's St. Andrew event is sure to please fighters and spectators alike! Their Excellencies have charged their Heavy List Champion, Tycho Mikkelsen, with providing martial entertainment for the populace. To that end, there shall be a brisk day of tournaments where the combatants shall be tested in four different weapon forms – mace and shield, two-handed sword, maul, and “sword and other list-legal one-handed implement”. The structure of the day's events shall be formed so as to best accommodate the number of fighters who come to demonstrate their prowess and courtesy. Maces, polearms, great weapons, and gauntlets shall be available on loan for all authorized fighters who wish to participate. Regardless of the event's format, there shall be prizes! Prizes shall be won by the fighters who demonstrate the greatest prowess in each of the four weapon forms. In addition, there shall be four other prizes for winning the following titles of the day– “Gallery's Darling”, “The Sojourner”, “Exemplar of Franchise”, and “Prince of Possums”. Finally, the native of An Dubhaigeainn who best distinguishes themselves by their prowess and comportment during the day's fighting shall be honored as the new Heavy List Champion of the Barony of An Dubhaigeainn.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

What happens to your SCA name and device when you no longer want it, stop participating or shuffle off this mortal coil? There's paperwork for that, easily filled out.

There's permission to conflict and heraldic wills. Suggested templates can be found on sca.heraldry.org. If you have none of these on file with the college of heralds then for the rest of time your name/device will always be yours, nobody can ever conflict.

Permission to conflict, you can determine how much difference is necessary for your permission. Instead of one SC (significant change, or big difference) or two DC (distinct change, or small difference) as is standard to clear conflict, you can allow one DC, or one DC as long as it's a certain color, whatever you please.

A heraldic will, you can leave another person in charge of your name/device. It doesn't even have to be a person who plays in the SCA. Or you can release your name/device upon your death.

If you just don't want your name/device anymore you can fill out a release form and it won't be considered when checking for conflicts in new submissions.

All these forms are very simple. Basically "I, legal name, known in the SCA as this name, give permission to..." and then you put down whatever it is you want to happen.

Do you have to have these? Not at all. But heralds greatly appreciate it. If, twenty years down the road you've retired from the SCA and somebody wants to submit a name or device very similar to yours, but nobody knows how to get in contact with you, then we've already got it right there in writing what we can do.

From the Coronet

Unto the populace of An Dubhaigeainn, do your Baron and Baroness send greetings!

As the days grow shorter and we prepare to hunker down for winter, let us not forget that there is still a bevy of activity before the holiday season. This weekend is Crown Tournament, where Their Majesties, Brennan and Caoilfhionn, will see the selection of the heirs in Bergental. Our next event will be Saint Andrew's on November 14th, when warriors will fight to see which among them will become our new Heavy Weapons Champion. The following weekend will see the 100 Minutes War in Rusted Woodlands, where the traditional fighting season comes to a close.

December 5th & 6th the Barony has been asked to participate in the Port Jefferson's Dickins Festival – Victorian Garb is required. I know that it is out of our time period, but if you would like to participate please contact the Baroness at sdelondres@gmail.com for additional information.

We are currently seeking bids for 2016 events. If you would like to autocrat or assist on an event, please contact the Coronet for information and direction. Likewise, we would like to remind you all that if you have any questions or concerns about anything in the Barony, our door is always open.

We look forward to see the members of the populace to take advantage of the many opportunities to participate and enjoy the activities in the Barony.

David and Suzanne
