Herald's Corner

“I know what a herald is, they're the ones who like to shout 'Oyez' really loud.”

Not necessarily! That's only one type of herald. There is voice heralds, book heralds, and silent heralds too. The voice heralds are broken down into Court herald, those are the ones who shout at you, and Field heralds. They're the ones who announce which fighters are taking the field and instruct them on which order to salute people. The book heralds are the ones who can help you research and figure out a name and device for yourself. Some specialize in names, and others in armory. I'll bet most people haven't even heard of a silent herald. Sign language interpreter! And you don't have to be hard of hearing to be able to appreciate them. Are you a fighter who has attended outdoor court, but there's so much else going on around you that you can't hear who's getting their award before the battle? Or maybe you've been at an event where the acoustics of the room are absolutely horrible and you can't tell what the tin hats up on stage are saying. If you can learn a few signs, you can watch the silent herald and know what's going on!

If you would like to try your hand, or voice, at any of these, I would be delighted to help you begin.

From the Coronet

Unto the populace of An Dubhaigeainn, do your Baron and Baroness send greetings!

Spring has sprung and the mud has thawed; and with that. Lady Violet Hughes was inducted into the Order of the Silver Wheel for the outstanding Heraldry work she has been doing.

Close to home at our Spring Scola a might competition was held for our new Bardic and Arts & Science Champions. With that we welcome Lady Hugeline as our New Bardic Champion and Lord Eanraig as our A&S Champion.

Our next event will be 1066, held May 6th – 8th at the Estonia House – we look forward to seeing you all there for an exciting, activity-filled weekend.

As April gets rolling we welcome in a new reign with the Coronation of Kenric III and Avalina III. Vivant to Their Majesties!

Planning for Pennsic (July 29th – August 14th) has begun. If you wish to camp with the Barony you MUST contact Peter of Hawks Reach (Peter Ferrell). He can be reached at pferrell2748@gmail.com

We are still searching for an autocrat for Arrows, Ales and Axes (to be held on 9/17 at the Estonian Center site). If you are interested in auto-crating please prepare a bid and submit at a business meeting ASAP. If you need help creating a bid, contact Coronet/Seneschal/Exchequer.

We are also seeking a new Minister of Lists, as the position is now vacant. Please submit letters of intent to us and to Lord Ronan (our Seneschal) prior to the next business meeting if you wish to be considered.

As always we look forward to see the members of the populace to take advantage of the many opportunities to participate and enjoy the activities in the Barony.

Yours in Service

David and Suzanne
