The Spring Scola-What Do You Do With A Pirate Ducky?

As a barony we have read with the Russians and studied at the Sourbone. Now we have the opportunity to play with the Pirates! Classes will be selected with an eye towards the skills and crafts needed to run a ship, maritime history, and other assorted “piratical activities.”

Lord Eanraig the Bonesetter created a rousing challenge to inspire our populous to a rousing Bardic Competition.

As your outgoing champion, I look forward to participation by any who would care, and will sponsor 3 neat nautical items, in keeping with the maritime theme.

For those entering: you will be asked to come up with your personal backstory and how it is linked to pirate activity or maritime trade to introduce yourself, and then perform 2 of the following: a poem about the sea or pirate activity (self composed is better), playing a musical instrument to pass the time, a song with a maritime theme, a story or piratical actions, or the inpromptu challenge...

There is an exciting A&S Championship competition designed with fun and flair by our outgoing champion- Genvieve Vellman. She has decided that as pirates we need to go in a new direction. So those entering are being given extra points for attempting new crafts. This is a perfect opportunity to try embroidering your device on a bit of sail, baking some ships biscuits, carving a bit of bone or wood, knitting a thrum cap, or showcasing a hidden skill learned in an exotic port.

If you are interested in teaching a class at the even please contact either Lady Hermina De Pagan or Lady Alysaundre Sherre De Sfford.

The Scola will also mark the Feastocrat debut of Marcy Rogers. She has often assisted the "A" Team of Kitchen Staffs and has kindly consented to showcase her talents.

Hawkes Reache A&S

Night

The business meeting will take place before the dinner & A&S program. Dinner will be served. Come join us for A&S and company.

This month Vettorino Antonello will conduct a scribal workshop.

“Being a scribe:

What do scribes do? How does the signet office work? What are some basic tips and techniques to get started learning about the scribal arts? If you’ve ever wondered these things or wanted to get involved with the signet office Vettorino Antonello, Southern Region Signet Deputy will present an introduction and explanation and then answer any questions you may have.”

From the Coronet

Unto the populace of An Dubhaigeainn, do your Baron and Baroness send greetings!

January was quite an uneventful month – with the exception of Mother Nature slamming us in the face and bringing winter on in full force. We hope that all weathered the storm safely.

We have the Baronial Scola coming up on March 19 at the Estonian Center in Middle Island. At this event we will choose our new champions for Bardic and Arts & Sciences. Please check event announcements for parameters of the competitions. We ask all our artisans both physical and performance to come out and compete. Contact us and our current champions if you have any questions about the competitions – we encourage all who are interested to take part.

In order to procure dates that we desire at the Estonian Center (their calendar fills quickly), we have set the dates for both Arrows, Ales and Axes (9/17-new date) as well as St Andrews. (10/29). However we are seeking autocrats. If you are interested in autocratting either of these events please prepare a bid and submit at a business meeting ASAP. If you need help creating a bid, contact the Coronet, Seneschal and/or Exchequer.

We look forward to see the members of the populace to take advantage of the many opportunities to participate and enjoy the activities in the Barony.

David and Suzanne
