Axes, Arrows and Ales

Populace of the Mighty East Kingdom,

Whether you have been honing your skills for the past year, your bows and spears need a little “dusting-off”, or you have never tried your hand at Archery and Throwing Weapons before, The Barony of An Dubhaigeiann invites you to come test your skills as Baron David Vázquez de Valença and Baroness Suzanne Nüeber de Londres seek their new Baronial Champions.

As our valiant Champion in Archery, Genevieve Velleman, and our fearless Throwing Weapons Champion, Travis Rogers, meet the end of their tenure, they will be designing challenging competitions and organizing exciting tourneys help choose their worthy successors!

Do you brew? Whether you are an expert or a novice, you have a place in the brewing competition! Compete to see who has the finest libations in your skill level! Period accuracy and supporting documentation is highly desired.

An elaborate Bavarian style dayboard will be served throughout the day by Akos Sekel, as makes his feastocrat debut!

Watch the event website(s) for more details.

How submit an award recommendation.

With the submission link on the East Kingdom Web page (“Recommend An Award” in the Quick Links box), writing in someone for an award has never been easier. The most important thing is to know what the criteria is for the award you are recommending a gentle for.

Recently the attached grid was published in the East Kingdom Gazette. So knowing about all the East Kingdom’s awards is only a glance away.

Before you go to the link, gather some information about the proposed gentle. For instance: Persona Name; why you think they deserve the award; a digital picture (is always helpful), the gentles expected royal progress attendance schedule (not always available), persona info of the gentle. While the 1st 2 items are a necessity the 3rd & 4th as well as other items of information are not required at time of submission. However additional information may be requested at a later date.

The biggest suggestion I can offer is review what an award is given out for, so that you are recommending the person for the appropriate award. Having assisted many reigns with their awards recommendations, thus reading hundreds of recommendation letters, I know how critical this can be.

If you are thinking of writing a gentle in for a High Merit or Peerage, you should really try to determine if the gentle is associated with a peer in anyway (apprentice/cadet/protégé/squire or student); and get their feedback first – or in the very least let the peer know you are writing in their ‘dependent’.

Flowery language is not necessary in you reason ‘description’, but know that your words may be the base of the wording on the potential scroll. When writing in for an order of High Merit or Peerage, know that these are polling orders. Your words will be submitted to the orders, so that the members of the orders may advise the crown. This is where detail information is very helpful.

If you have any question or need advice regarding a submission, feel free to contact me.

In Service,

Mistress Suzanne Nueber de Londres

Unto the populace of An Dubhaigeainn, do your Baron and Baroness send greetings!

The month of June had a nice level of activity with practices, A&S nights, workshops and the Canton of Hawks Reach event "Potted Arms and Fancy Faire". With 67 adults and 8 children in attendance; 23 of whom were non-members.

At Potted Arms we heralded in a new Fencing champion, Lord Eanraig the Bonesetter. We would like to thank his Excellency Master Don Jean Xavier Boullier for his service this past year.

This year's fencing hat auction garnered $312 for the fencing fund.

Potted arms offered entertainment in the form of many varieties of talks and activities. One activity being a Drinking song challenge. While the site was dry, that did not deter the performers, as their joviality could be heard all over the site.

We welcomed Lady Genevieve Vellemen as the newest member inducted into the Order of Perseverance, who was also announced as the Barony's new Captain of Archers.

For all those traveling to Pennsic, the coronet wishes you and your families safe travels. We ask that all Baronial champions email the Coronet if they are going to be attending the War, when they will arrive and how they can be contacted on site.

Baronial/Coronet schedule for Pennsic is as follows:

- Opening Ceremonies Sat 8/6 at 6PM- we would ask the champions, officers, and any members of the populace to muster in the Baronial encampment at 5PM to step off at 5:15PM to arrive to EK Royal by 5:30pm
- Baronial Ice Cream Social – Sunday 8/7 - starts at 1:30PM
- Runnymede Dinner Monday 8/8 at 6PM (to be confirmed) the Coronet would like the champions in the Baronial encampment by 5PM to escort the Coronet to this function.
- East Kingdom Court is Wednesday 8/10 – starts at 6PM in the Battle Field pavilion.

As always we look forward to see the members of the populace to take advantage of the many opportunities to participate and enjoy the activities in the Barony

Yours in Service;

David and Suzanne
