St. Andrew Goes Beyond the Veil

October 29th, 2016 - October 30th, 2016

Hosted by Barony of An Dubhaigeainn - Middle Island, NY

St. Andrew's travels have brought him to a time of remembrance of things past but not quite gone - things that should not be forgotten. While he stands at the crossroads, St Andrew ponders the past and the shadows, and the things that live in between. Come celebrate this otherworldly time of year with him as his home Barony of An Dubhaigeainn celebrates the final harvest season of the year in style. There will be entertainments galore as we celebrate this special time. For folks who wish to honor the Unseelie Court or any other creatures that "go bump in the night," come dressed as the Fae/Fairy or other creature that goes bump in the night that you would be if you were not born of these mortal modern times. Masks are encouraged!

For folks wishing to trade a ghost story or some seasonal music, there will be a bardic competition during the feast, with the theme being ghost stories and other seasonal tales, either told or sung. For those staying overnight, there will also be a firepit later in the evening around which to share your ghostly encounters with others of like mind.

For the light of foot, there will be dancing by torchlight (weather permitting) to such old SCA dance staples as Hole-in-the-Wall, Miller in the Middle, and Black Nag, among many others. Master Richard the Poor will be our Dance Master for the day. Dance steps will be taught during the day in preparation.

A contest will be held for the "ghostliest" encampment. There will be seasonally-themed activities for the children. We hope to include turnip-painting, mask-making, and a trick-or-treat scavenger hunt.

For the more martial-minded, a tourney will be held to decide our next Baronial Heavy List Champion. All are welcome to participate but there can be only one, Baronial Champion, that is. (There shall be other prizes awarded, as well.) Tourney theme and rules to follow. Watch this site for updates.

Other martial activities, for fencing, archery, and thrown weapons are planned, with all tourneys and competitions being themed for the event. Watch this space for updates on these martial activities, including tourney themes and rules.

A Dayboard and Feast fitting the seasonal theme shall be presented by our very own Duchess Isabella of York. A hearty "Below-the-Salt" Elizabethan feast shall be served to most attending. For those wishing to experience a richer selection of Elizabethan fare with all the "bells and whistles," there shall be special "Above-the-Salt" seating (limited to 24). Please note, for the more vegetarian among us – as this is an Elizabethan-style feast, the menu is meat-heavy! Please plan accordingly. No meal substitutions will be made. A full menu will be forthcoming, as soon as it is finalized. UPDATE: Seating for the Above-the-Salt feast is now sold out. There is still plenty of seating for our equally hearty Below-the-Salt feast.

You asked for it and it's baa-aack! You spoke and we listened - There will be 2 tables'worth (16 seats) of Offboard seating provided inside the hall for this event. For those of you who don't remember, Offboard seating is seating in the hall where you bring your own food but still get to experience the ambiance (and entertainment) that Onboard folks do during the feast. This is also a wonderful way for those of you with dietary restrictions to still get the “feast experience” while still maintaining the constraints of your diet. Offboard tables will be clearly marked. Please indicate your Offboard request when you send in your reservation.

Merchants are welcome!! Please contact the Reservations Coordinator in advance to let us know 1) that you wish to merchant and 2) whether you will be looking to set up your wares indoors or outdoors. For those merchants wishing indoor space - As we will need space for dancing in the hall during the day, we ask that you limit your set-up to 1 table. For those merchants looking to set up their wares outdoors, you may wish to bring some sort of shelter in case of inclement weather. There is no merchant fee.

This is a camping event!* Please bring your tents out for this last camping event of the year and remember to dress for the cool evenings of this season. A fire pit awaits! Please Note: There will be no "camping" in the hall for this event.

*Regarding Camping: In order to best accommodate your camping needs, please pre-reg with your tent info (no. of tents, size of tent/s, and location of your tent door). If you have a household wishing to camp together, please submit your info as a packet, if at all possible. UPDATE: There is now a limited amount of cabin-space available on a first-com/first-served basis for $5.00 per bunk/person. Please indicate if you wish bunk space and the number of bunks you need. Please also include your best contact info in your reservation so that we may contact you should we be unable to accommodate your request. We will post when bunkspace is full up.

Regarding Fire On-Site: No open flames are permitted in the hall. Please note that ground fires are not permitted. For those wishing to cook on-site, there are a few picnic-style BBQs available for use. Also, a large covered commons area near the hall will be available along with picnic tables for those staying overnight but not feasting in the hall.

A list of local/nearby eateries/grocers will be provided at Troll.

Watch this space for more details as they become available.

Heralds Corner

A very relaxed court for their excellencies, Baron David Vasquez de Valencia and Baroness Suzanne Neuber de Londres opened under the lovely shade of the trees.

The first order of business was the archery champion, and Genvieve Velleman was called into court. She described the theme of the tournament and the challenges. The winner with the most points was a tie between Lord Rufus and Lord Eanraig. The winner of those competing for the baronial champion was Lord Peter of Hawkwood. As the baroness put the mantle of champion onto him it was noted that he was the first ever to wear it.

Their excellencies not done with Lord Peter, informed the populace as to his hard work done for many years, with small breaks, running camp at Pennsic. And the crowd cheered.

Their excellencies then invited up Travis, and asked him to talk about his competition in thrown weapons. He gave a very heartfelt thanks for everybody that competed, and named Michael Leg Bain the winner. As Baron David transferred the spear of champion to Michael, he described how Travis has leapt in with both feet of being involved in the SCA, not only being thrown weapons champion, but also becoming a marshall.

Lady Hugoline the Delicate was then called up, and after singing a delightful little filk she wrote about the barony, she told everybody about the bardic competition she held. The theme was of course Arrows, Axes, or Ales or anything related to those, such as warfare or drinking in general. Bonus points were awarded for audience participation. She announced the winner was Zeus, and runner up was Raud.

The next person their excellencies welcomed before them was Lord Titus, who judged the brewing competition. For the novice category, Pdraig was the winner for his Brigits mead, a spiced herbal mead, and Lady Fiona's spiced mead won for the experienced category. The populace choice winner was a tie between Fiona's ciser and her spiced meads. There was a special unannounced and unintentional competition, the winner of the most yellowjackets drowned in their mead was Michael Leg Bain, with no less than 15 wasp corpses floating in his bottle.

Their excellencies spoke to this last year of their term as Baron and Baroness. They encouraged anybody who is considering running for the position to talk to them about the work that goes on behind the scenes, and they will be accepting names for the vote up to and in the morning of the St. Andrews event on October 29th. The candidates will be announced at court that day, and polling to begin in the spring.

Lady Jenna Childslayer asked to address the populace so she was invited into court. She talked about upcoming events in our neighboring province of Ostgardr, and invited and encouraged everybody to come attend.

The newcomers were welcomed into court and given the traditional guest soaps, with the words that their next event they wouldn't get the soap. Because they would not be guests, they're family.

A number of Bronze Ducks were handed out, to Lord Ronan, Lady Jenna, Baron Dankwert, Lord Ozurr, Kaalos, Lord Peter, and Lady Slaine.

In closing, their excellencies called up Monkey and Lord Akos to thank them for their hard work in putting the event together. They then thanked everybody for coming and thus ended court.

Yours in Service:
Lady Violet Hughes

Greeting Populace,

It's that time of year again, where we welcome the reign of Their Royal Majesties Brion Anthony Uriel Tarragon and Anna Ophelia Holloway Tarragon. There are a couple of A&S requests – first will be for Favors for our new queen. The design for said favors can be found here: <http://ba.eastkingdom.org/.../uplo.../2016/10/Anna-III-favor.pdf>

The second is for period toys for the Royal Toy Box.

Keep a lookout as I will put up at least one, if not two A&S days that will be focused on these two goals.

Anyone interested in participating in the production of either, or if you have a great idea for a toy, please get in touch with me. Note that I still have some fabric leftover from the last favors we made that will be repurposed for these favors and I also have some other random supplies that can be borrowed for the task.

My goal is to have everything collected and delivered to the Kingdom by the end of November.

If you have any questions or ideas, please do not hesitate to contact me!

Unto the populace of An Dubhaigeainn, do your Baron and Baroness send greetings!

As the nights grow longer and the days grow colder,

A few weeks ago, we held Arrows, Axes and Ales – much enjoyment was had through many activities. As part of the day's events, we saw our Archery Champion Genevieve Velleman and our Thrown Weapons Champion Travis hold competitions to select their replacements. Lord Peter of Hawkwood and Michael Legbane have been chosen as our new Archery and Thrown Weapons Champions (respectively). We thank our outgoing Champions for their service, and congratulate the incoming ones on their victories.

In but a few short weeks, "St. Andrew Goes Beyond the Veil" (on 10/29 and 10/30), we will see the selection of yet another new champion – this time for Heavy Weapons. A sumptuous feast is planned, as well as many other activities to celebrate the occasions of the day. Check the rest of the Viaduct as well as the event postings on the East Kingdom and Baronial websites for more information than we could possibly fit here.

As always we look forward to see the members of the populace to take advantage of the many opportunities to participate and enjoy the activities in the Barony. Various practices, A&S nights and workshops continue in the Barony – check the Viaduct, website, and Facebook page for schedules and updates.

David and Suzanne*
