Greetings unto the populace of the Barony of An Dubhaigeainn,

You should be receiving the Baronial coronet polling ballots by the March 3rd.

Please follow the directions, fill out the ballot correctly, and mail it back in the self- addressed, stamped envelope that was enclosed with the ballot. If you are in a dwelling that has more than one SCA member, do not place more than one ballot per self-addressed stamped envelope. The East Kingdom Branch Polling deputy must have your ballot by March 31st for it to count.

If you have any questions, please contact me at seneschal@andub.eastkingdom.org with "polling" in the subject line.

Yours in service,
Master Jean Xavier

Suspended for the season.
See you in the spring!

Need Tutoring? Spring Scola at the College!

Spring is here and the time has come to learn and grow! Come to the eastern reaches of the Barony of An Dubhaigeainn for our Spring Schola. Classes will be held throughout the day with a display table showcasing the skills of our populace for our Baronial Arts and Sciences championship, leading to a performance by those who wish to compete for Baronial Bardic champion. See below for rules and themes for the competitions and an updated class list.

Site rules:

The event will be held on the East campus of Suffolk County Community College.

No feast or dayboard will be provided but there are restaurants nearby

Site is dry.

No live steel

No smoking or vaping the campus grounds

Class list:

Tablet weaving

Basic heraldry

Chainmaille for beginners and time saving tricks for advanced students

Kumihimo braiding

Middle Eastern drumming

Bardic songs

Newcomers class

(more to come)

Baronial Arts and Sciences championship:

The theme is Seeking Balance. Many of us are skilled in certain venues, and I wish to see a broadening of our educational repertoire. Therefore, each person entering the Scola A+S championship will be requested to enter 2 items, and the following requirements must be met: Old and New- one item has to be from more than a year ago, and shown at least once in a prior A+S event, and the other must be never seen before. Known and unknown- one item is something you are good at, the other must be a medium you are just starting to learn about. Art and Science- one item must display a artistic quality, the other must have some aspect of the sciences involved (biology, chemistry, physics, math - would include cooking, brewing, etc). Extra bonuses for edible items and making the tools to create your art. Do your best at documenting everything, focus on where you got your inspiration, and cite sources, techniques used, and recipes. Populace will judge and vote that day for their favorite entrants' items.

Baronial Bardic championship:

The theme for this year's competition is inspiration. All entrants to this competition should prepare any of TWO of the following: a poem, story, vocal song, or instrumental piece (self-composed is better, but not required). These pieces should reflect the theme--inspiration and can include a work based on a person or activity associated with the Society that inspires you, or a piece that serves to inspire others. The populace will vote for top three performers. The vote tally will determine the first, second, and third places. The top three ranked performers will be recognized and awarded in court. The top seeded baronial member will become the new Bardic Champion.

Site Opens: 10:00 am

Site Closes: 6:00 pm

The event will be held on the East campus of Suffolk County Community College

Are You Down with the OP!

OP stands for order of precedence. Each kingdom has their own to keep track of who has what accolades from when. It lists the gentle, what award they received, what date and event it was given at, and what Royal awarded it.

The East Kingdom one is at op.eastkingdom.org and like any record keeping system, it's not 100% perfect. But the good thing is that the Shepherd's crook herald in charge of it is a really pleasant guy, and I can help get your entry straightened out if it's not accurate.

We also have our own baronial OP that I've been maintaining. It's at <https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/17wGHKH49VPAbmqvm7FvMA7K1p4oV3q1bchUzZRyQO50/edit?usp=drivesdk>

It's not as pretty as the kingdom's website, but it should have all the information there. If anything is missing or incorrect let me know and I will fix it.

Lady Violet Hughes

=====

Greetings,

To honor Her Highness, Princess Honig, there is a Kingdom-wide effort to fabricate favors.

To kick-off this effort, We will be holding an A&S at the residence of Lady Sláine Baen Ronáin. As the design is intricate, we will be experimenting with several different mediums. Please bring a dish to share with 4 people.

A&S Gathering

Goal: Favors for Princess Honig

Please respect the legal rights of us

Unto the populace of An Dubhaigeainn, do your Baron and Baroness send greetings!

February was a calm and quite month, but March brings the beginning of spring and lots of activities. But first off, a word about the polling for our successors.

By now, all members of the Society living within the Barony should have received a poll regarding their opinion for our successors as Baron and Baroness. We implore you to return our ballot as soon as possible. All ballots must be received by the end of March. If you have not received a ballot, or if you have any issues, questions, or concerns, please contact our Seneschal immediately to ensure that you have time to address these before the polling window is closed.

On March 18-19 we will be participating at I-CON. Please contact Milo (Baronial Chatelaine – see officer list for contact info) if you have questions. On March 25, many members of the Barony will be trekking out to Settmour Swamp for Mudthaw.

April will also be a busy one so start your planning now with the Coronation of TRH Ionnes and Honig on the 1st. Our Spring Schola on April 8th at Suffolk Community College at the Riverhead location, at which we will be seeking new Bardic and Arts & Science Champions. There is no site fee for the Schola, so we encourage all to come and join us and learn something new.

The Barony will host The Silver Horde's 20th Anniversary event on May 12th-14th, and then the Canton of Hawks Reach will be holding the annual "Potted Arms Event" June 17th.

We ask the populace to keep their eyes open for the details to the Baronial polling that will taking place soon.

As always we look forward to see the members of the populace to take advantage of the many opportunities to participate and enjoy the activities in the Barony.

*Yours in Service;
David and Suzanne*
