Volunteers Needed

From the St. Andrews Autocrat:

St. Andrews is rapidly approaching and we're getting close to having all our ducks in a row. But we're going to need volunteers for setup and breakdown. So if you can be there either to help setup in the morning, or stay after to make sure our kitchens are cleaned it would be greatly appreciated. Hope to see everyone there!

Let's Cook Scappi Workshop

Pasta Pasta Pasta!

September 22, 2018
12:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Our next project is to research a feast for our 2018 St. Andrews. This event will be based in Siena, during the Palio di Siena. Lady Vetra will be feastocrating this event and we have been running workshops since earlier this year. We are researching from The Opera of Bartolomeo Scappi as well as some other resources from the Italian Renaissance. Please make sure to RSVP to ensure enough ingredients are obtained.

Event Location is in a home is in a gated community and there is limited parking on the street. There is additional parking at the pool which is about a half a block away. Instead of turning left on to Huntingdale way, proceed to the next stop sign and turn right into the lot. If the weather is poor or for any other reason hoofing it feels out of the question: give me a buzz, we will come get you from the parked location: 631-672-1995.

Bardic Champions

Calling all past Bardic Champions!

Our current champion would like to make a record of entries that were placed in the Bardic Book or your wing entry from years past.

Please send a recording (MP3) of either your entry or an original piece to Lady Hermina De Pagan at Bxtorr19@aol.com.

Tournaments Illuminated Quest Request

From officers' letters, event reports and award congratulations, to feature articles on history and how-to, recipe redactions, persona stories and poetry; newsletters offer much to enrich the SCA experience. They also serve communities beyond geographic borders -- many guilds boast exemplary newsletters.

Chroniclers, what tips can you offer fellow officers on the never-ending search for content and relevance? What are your favorite sources and sites? How do you set yourself and your authors up for success? What are your popular features? Readers, in your SCA newsletters, what's the first thing you turn to? What's valuable to you? What's fun? What would you like to see? Send your ideas and input (200-300 words) to tieditor@sca.org and they may appear in the 3rd Quarter 2018 issue of Tournaments Illuminated.

Pennsic Baronial Court

Unofficial Report

Having handed out cue sheets to follow along with the Silent Herald, The Prefect and Baroness of An Dubhaigainn opened their court on a warm Pennsic evening. They greeted the populace and inquired as to how everyone's war was going. Satisfied that everyone was enjoying their week they invited Lady Hermina de Pagan into court, to the accompaniment of Eanraig's guitar.

For three and a half years Hermina fulfilled the duties of Chronicler and they thanked her for that service and awarded her a silver feather.

Their excellencies requested the presence of Lily Analath Faa. She swore fealty to the coronet to step into the role of chronicler.

Their excellencies invited into court their baronial champions and anyone who had fought as champions in the Pennsic battles. Of all the names called, Lord Eanraig and Tommaso were in attendance, the rest still at their dinners. Tommaso reported that the fencing was extremely fun and went well and all Their Excellencies had a hard time finding anyone that was not fighting honorably. Baroness Sorcha commented that she specifically enjoyed his theatrical losing his arm and miming sewing it back on. Prefect Titus said "You hammed it up. So I feel you represented at least Me. Good job." Lord Eanraig reported that we swept the archery championships, and he placed 13th after a 6 hour shoot. Baroness Sorcha bestowed them both duck tokens.

Next up their excellencies welcomed anyone who was attending their first Pennsic or first baronial court. Baroness Sorcha gifted them sachets of lavender to make them feel welcome.

Lord Peter of Hawkwood was called into court, and he was thanked for being in charge of camp, and gifted a duck token. Their Excellencies asked that he name people who helped with camp set up or running of the camp and were deserving of Bronze Duck awards. Jerilyn, the Cohen family, the Best family, Ronan Fitz Robert, and Hermina de Pagan.

Having finished all business in a short time that was on their list, Prefect Titus thanked Lady Oda Laly for signing during East Kingdom Court the previous day, and both Their Excellencies wished everyone good shopping for Midnight Madness later in the evening. They also thanked everyone who has volunteered for any facet of Pennsic, and with that court was closed.

How long have you been in the SCA? Since 2014

What activities do you participate in? I participate in a lot of fencing, and also do target archery. I try to attend local events as much as possible. I am also a member of Surtr's Brood and attend household events and practices regularly.

What has been your favorite event? Pennsic is pretty awesome, so far that has been my favorite.

What would say are your greatest accomplishments in the SCA thus far? I qualified and won the An Dub Baronial Championship in the same day.

What future goals do you have in the SCA? To become adept in many fencing styles and weapon formats and to enjoy the many facets of medievalism.

The History of An Dubhaigeainn

Installment 1

The History of the Shire of An Dubhaigeainn 1982 - 1990 was compiled by Fionnghuala Gliobach Mael Ailbe it was then scanned, edited (A.S. dates corrected) and format cleaned up by Suzanne Neüber de Londres

A brief chronology of the SCA and its Long Island branches: (excerpted from A Geographic History of the East Kingdom by Lord Richard the Poor of Ely)

- AS I: The Society for Creative Anachronism was born in what has now become the Kingdom of the West (5/1/66)
- AS II: The Kingdom of the East began its development in the area first called Two Rivers in AS VI and then named the Crown Province of Ostgardr in ASX (4/68)
- AS X: The Shire of the Brook was founded at SUNY Stony Brook (8/76-12/78)
- AS XII: The Shire of Dorno Aral was created in Suffolk County (7/78)
- AS XIV: Ostgardr gained the Canton of Walking Dunes at Southampton College (3/80-5/81)
- AS XVI: Dorno Aran was supplanted by An Dubhaigeainn (8/82)
- AS XXII: Ostgardr's incipient Canton of Lions End was formed in Nassau County; Official status granted ASXXIII: (2/88)
- AS XXVI: An Dubhaigeainn petitions for Baronial status, granted by TRM Balfar and Luna; Muirdeach and Mairgret of Carrigart created Baron and Baroness (11/9/91) on the 10th anniversary of the Shire.

In AS XVI, during the reign of Their Royal Majesties Siegfried and Wanda, King and Queen of the East, the Shire of An Dubhaigeainn was brought into being in the month of August beside the dark waters for which it is named. The An Dubhaigeainn device blazon: Azure, a duck naiant to sinister Argent, billed within a laurel wreath Or.

Greetings from the Coronet!

The summer season is drawing to a close. AnDubhaigeainn was well represented at Pennsic, Eanraig the Bonesetter shot for the East Kingdom on the Archery Champions Team, Magnus Sverre Haakonson de Londres and Michael Legbain were on the East Kingdom Thrown Weapons Team, Ozur the Bootgiver fought for our Queen in the Rose Tourney and Tomasso Parlapiano fought in the Rapier Baronial Champions Tournament, Vivat to them all!!

We want to thank Peter of Hawkwoods for running the Baronial Encampment once again, besides planning all the details, set up & breakdown of Baronial camp amenities he also assisted many people with their personal set-up. Thank you to all who assisted with our Pennsic Camp, many hands made light work.

We thank all who marched in Opening Ceremonies with us, we were a colorful group who Quacked everyone up! We also thank all who volunteered at Pennsic, marshaling, water bearing, children's activities, teaching, heraldry, and more, your service did not go unnoticed!

We have a busy September, many will be attending Barleycorn. On 9//15 we have Arrows, Axes and Ales and we are looking forward to seeing many of you there, please come out and try your hand at something new as we select our Archery & Thrown Weapons Champions for the coming year!

Following AAA we have the Bergental Investiture and Coronation. We would love to have members of the populace at these events with us. Please let us know if you will be attending.

We are as ever, Yours in Service to the Dream!
Sorcha and Titus
Baroness and Prefect of An Dubhaigeainn
