A Message from the Seneschal

Greetings unto the populace,

The November business meeting has a date change due to the William Floyd demonstration. The new date is Thursday, November 8th. We will be at the Sachem Library, but not in the Adult meeting room as usually. Please ask at the information desk where the meeting will be taking place.

There is still time to submit a letter of intent for the officer positions of seneschal and knight marshal for the Barony before the December 6th meeting. Letters can be submitted in person or by email to the coronet and myself. Our email addresses are coronet@andub.eastkingdom.org and seneschal@andub.eastkingdom.org.

Yours in Service,
Jean Xavier

A&S Competition

The theme for this year's A&S competition is: Introduce us to your persona! Create an A&S entry that your persona would use, wear, create, etc. and as part of your documentation put it in the context of your persona. If you do not yet have a persona or are thinking about changing your current one, feel free to use this opportunity to explore a potential persona. Only projects that have not yet been submitted in a previous A&S competitions, please. Entries will be judged on the completeness of the documentation and the creativity of the presentation.

Date and location of competition to be determined.

Artist in Residence Award

The Greater Port Jefferson-Northern Brookhaven Arts Council will be honoring an Artist in Residence again this year at The 23rd Annual Port Jefferson Charles Dicken's Festival held Saturday and Sunday December 1 & 2, 2018. This year's Artist in Residence recipient is Laurie Boullianne who portrays the character Ms. Theodosia Pickering.

"Ms. Theodosia Pickering is a gently-bred woman, possessed of both practical sensibilities and an adventurous spirit, living in the bustling heart of New York's Victorian-era fashion district, a mere hop and a skip from the finest and most exclusive shopping district in The City - The Ladies' Mile.

As the proprietress of her latest venture, the Raven's Wing Hattery, she is both the designer and the creator of delightful Victorian-styled millinery confections for the fashion-conscious lady of means. Her hobby as a naturalist, traveling the world in search of distinctive, one-of-kind examples of nature's beauty, has imbued her with a love of color and texture that she brings to all her creations, whether practical or whimsical. As such, she takes great pleasure in providing her patrons with the latest in Paris hat fashions, all bearing her distinctive creative touch. "Fine Hats for the Well-dressed Woman" is, after all, her shop motto!"

Sunday December 2nd, she is being honored by The Greater Port Jefferson Arts Council after the closing parade(approximately 5 pm) at Village Hall.

SCCC's Living Medieval Club

The new school year is underway at Suffolk County Community College, and that means there's a new group of students that have joined the Living Medieval Club, An Dubhaigeainn's local college branch. They meet every Thursday at 4pm and each meeting is centered around three basic things: learning a new basic skill such as sewing their own tunics, sharing general information about the SCA, and encouraging them to get involved outside campus grounds. We are looking for volunteers to help teach this new generation of Scadians. If you have a skill you would like to share with them, please contact His Excellency Titus Aurelius Magnus at (516) 810-3108 or prefect@andub.eastkingdom.org.

St Andrews Travels North First Stop Sienna

When last seen, our great patron, St. Andrew, was visiting the forums of Rome. Though his visit was a prosperous and joyous one, he has decided it was time to make the long journey home. His travels will have him stopping at many interesting and exotic places along the way. His first stop will be in the shining and noble republic of Sienna, where he will witness, if just a touch out of season, the famed races of the Palio and its numerous delights. During the day's festivities the Prefect and Baroness, Titus Aurelius Magnus and Sorcha of Stonegrave, will watch as their Champions Lord Ozurr the Bootgiver, baronial champion of heavy list, and Tommaso Parlapiano, baronial champion of rapier, orchestrate grand tournaments to find their respective and worthy successors. The teeming crowds will be fed both day and night by the renowned cooks of An Dubhaigeainn, lead by Lady Vetra Trys Kaukoles and Lady Monkey Makgee.

For any general inquiries, please contact the Autocrat. For food specific inquiries (dietary, allergy concerns, etc...) please contact the feastocrat.

William Floyd Demo

November 1, 2018
6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

We will be participating in William Floyd High School's annual Renaissance Faire on November 1, from 6-8. The Renaissance Faire is an interdisciplinary showcase of student learning and work. Heavy and Light list fighters, artisans of all kinds, and people who enjoy talking about their hobby are invited to participate. Last year, our barony was enthusiastically received by the William Floyd High School students, who were fascinated by our A&S projects, garb and fighting.

For more information contact Lady Fiona the Volatile at seneschal@hawkesreache.eastkingdom.org.

Arrow, Axes and Ales Court

Unofficial Report

15 September 2018 AS 53

After a fun filled day, Prefect Titus Aurelius Magnus, and Baroness Sorcha of Stonegrave convened Court at the Estonia House in Middle Island, New York.

M'lord Angel of An Dubhaigeaninn was called in to tell the populace of the Archery Tournament he ran. A single elimination tourney, where the target was the image of a Weeping Angel. Contestants needed to hit in the legs, torso, and head (best 2 of 3) before the opponent could do the same. An ingenious design by Lord Ronan FitzRobert made it fun. The winner was m'lord Tommaso Parlapiano. He stepped from behind their Excellencies, as he is the current Fencing Champion, was invested with the Regalia of the Archery Champion and awarded a Scroll by Lady Sláine báen Ronan (calligraphy & illumination) & Lady Miriam Giantslayer (drawings). Tommaso returned to his place behind the Seats, and M'lord Angel was awarded a Glass Duck in honor of his Year of Service as Archery Champion.

Next Lord Magnus Sverre Haakonson DeLondres was requested to let the populace know of the Thrown Weapons Tourney. It was 2 rounds with each weapon, knife, axe, and spear, of 2 throws per round...the targeting was unusually not centered on the target, but rather in a different place on each round. The scoring was based on how close you came to that Marked Spot, in inches, with lowest score winning. There were many participants, but in the end it was m'lord Michael Leg Bane who reclaimed the Ducky Spear, and a Scroll by Lady Violet Hughes (calligraphy), Lady Miriam (drawings), & Lady Sláine (illumination.) Lord Magnus too, was presented a Glass Duck for his tenure as Thrown Weapons Champion.

The Youth of the Society were not to be outdone. M'lord Michael & Lady Fiona begged leave to inform the populace that we held our first Youth Throwing Competition, Save the Duckies. The children each got 2 axes per round and threw for 2 rounds. They had to break the string holding the Duckies, which released them into the Duck Pond. Most Duckies saved won. M'lord Tiberius Trebellius Severus won with 1 Duckie saved. Lady Caoilfhionn inghean Ceallachain got a separate award for having the first axe to stick in the target.

The Brewing Championship was lightly entered, and actually hotly contested. Lady Fiona the Volatile was the only entrant, but there was long and involved discussion as to which of her two entries was the better. At last, the judges decided that the Bochet from "Le Menagier de Paris" was preferred, and Lady Fiona received a scroll by Lady Sláine (calligraphy & illumination) & Lady Miriam (drawings).

The two newest officers of our Beloved Barony each in turn took their Fealty Oaths, M'lord Oswyn Northwode is our new Exchequer, and Lady Sláine our new Herald.

Then their Excellencies did recall that they have been stewarding a Scroll and Regalia for the newest member of the Order of the Silver Wheel residing in our Fine Feathered Domain. The Order was called before their excellencies, and Lord Ronan FitzRobert was called into Their presence to Receive a Scroll by Eadaoin Chiuitire and a Silver Wheel Pendant. The Ducks already among the Wheels rolled on to the back of the assemblage to Welcome him.

The Newcomers were requested to come forward to be recognized, and each received a Lavender Sachet from our Herbalist Baroness Sorcha, and bid to remember this event, and come join us for others.

Finally, Our Ever Sprightly Coronet raced thither and yon to present Bronze Ducks to those who had been recognized for being Helpful. In no particular order: Lord Ronan (3), Lady Sláine (2), Lady Herminia de Pagan (3), m'lord Michael, Baroness Gianetta called Syd, Lady Ealusaid Inghean Ui Phaidin, Lady Fiona (2), Lord Saravit, Lady Caoilfhionn, m'lord Logan of House Three Skulls, Lady Hugoline the Delicate (2), Lord Conrad Jarnhand, THL Peter of Hawkwoods, Baron Jean Xavier Boullier (2), Baroness Suzanne Neuber DeLondres, Eanraig MacEanraig (2) & Clan MacEanraig, Lady Violet, Lord Stefan Kurth, m'lord Tiberius, Lady Jenna Childslayer (2), Lady Ellen Hughes, m'lord Hrothegar of an Dubhaigeainn, Lady Arnbjorg Called Helga, m'lord Angel, Baron Stephanus DeLondres, and Lady Monkey Makgee.

Their Excellencies, Baroness Gianetta called Syd and Baron Jean Xavier, along with THL Peter of Hawkwoods, requested leave to approach the Coronet for the purpose of bestowing some Largess upon them. Each was presented with a Persona Appropriate drinking glass, and a handmade wooden box in which to store and transport them. Each box was inscribed with their personal badges. These were warmly received by the Coronet, and garnered appropriate ooo's and ahhh's from the crowd.

Thus closed the Court of Prefect Titus and Baroness Sorcha for Arrows, Axes, and Ales.

Respectfully submitted - Lady Sláine báen Ronan, Drake Herald, an Dubhaigeainn.

Yours in Service to the Dream,
Sláine báen Ronán
Drake Herald
Barony of An Dubhaigeainn

Thank You from AAA

Greetings,

Now that everything has settled down and I have finally had time to gather my breath, I was astonished at how well Axes, Arrows & Ales went and how much assistance I received with the event. My first and heartiest thanks goes to Lord Akos. He took my hair brained idea of trying to recreate the Festival of Michaelmas and ran with it. He was able to provide the tastes of the feast on a budget. From the chicken skewers to the blackberry pies he strived to bring the flavors of the holiday to our little Barony. I must also thank Raud, Lady Monkey, Aislinn, and Oda Lally for all their kitchen assistance.

The next people I need to thank are Hugoline the Delicate and Conrad. They were able to provide a site map which was invaluable in assisting the marshals in planning the ranges before we got onsite. I also need to first thank Michael Legsbain for taking point and acting as my Marshal 1 at the ranges. Then I must thank Ronan FitzRobert, Hrothgar, and Magnus De Londres for both setting up and breaking down the ranges. I also need to thank Wulfsige i Jorvik, Genevieve, and Arnbjorg for running the ranges and making sure everyone got breaks.

I must also thank Fiona the Volatile, Michael Legsbain, Wulfsige i Jorvik, Hrothgar and Michele the Ubiquitous for halfling wrangling and between them coming up with some of the most amazing youth activities that we have ever had. I know for a fact that a family came to this event to give their children a chance to throw axes.

My next thanks goes out to Suzanne De Londres and Thorolf for bringing the trailer and assisting with set up and breakdown. Oswyn Northwode and Sláine báen ronán meic Robert for efficiently running troll all day. I must also thank Peter of Hawkwoods, Tomas, Prefect Titus, Maestro Vettorino, Oswyn Northwode, Lord Eanraig the Bonesetter and many others whose names escape me for all their hard work cleaning up the site so we could leave on time.

Finally, I must thank the person who became my right hand, left hand and time keeper as well, Lady Vetra. Without her calming presence, I know that I would have burst into tears at least 3 times on site. She helped keep the event on track and everything running smoothly.

The History of An Dubhaigeainn

Installment 2

JANUARY 1986 - 44 members listed, Cooks and Brewers active. On the 6th, Cynyr's birthday, Gunther held a Twelfth Night celebration. Thus was Cynyr chosen as King of Misrule; Diana was then chosen Queen of Misrule, and demanded much foolish entertainment be rendered for Their Majesties' pleasure. Bryghainn was the highlight, for he not only won the Gargoyle contest, but also obeyed the Queen's call to "Bring on the dancing boys!" by improvising a seductive veiled dance with a paper napkin. Having lost at being a gargoyle, Gunther gave his now famous life-like impression of a fountain decoration. Also, we soft-hearted folk allowed a wee small cat to be secreted in the house on that frosty night ... and the rest of them are history.

ASSISTANT SENESCHAL: Gunther Schwarzwaldsohn

EXCHEQUER: Cordelia nach Cymric

HERALD: Skyron

CHRONICLER Gliolach

MARCH 1986 - Archery practices. Some of what folk enjoyed at Celtic Silliness in Ostgardr on the 22nd: "Seeing the wild Picts attacking the Romans and booting them back to Italy" <that was Cynyr), Lorenzo winning 2nd prize in the Silly Sciences competition with a boffer Duck Pie--"the finest in (silly) assassins' weapons" (Ashruf entered a 3x5 foot card as her "documentation") and watching the Silly Fashion Show--kudos in particular were due the Mayan in Winter ensemble, the Norman Fling gown, the sleeve design of which was gushingly described as centuries ahead of its time," and Gwenlynn's Celtic Kimono.

APRIL 1986 - Armorers workshops added. Apr. 20, First Annual Ren Faire at C.W. Post put on by House von Morgenwind, sponsored by the Crown Province of Ostgardr. The demonstration of falconry was especially interesting; and of singular amusement was the sight of the May Pole--Kieran and Norman--making a mad dash in search of Chinese food, tea, and more precisely, escape from the enthused dancers!

AS XX--in the reign of TRM Ronald and Bronwyn:

MAY 1986 - After eight years of dedicated service, Heldur Jaa Karu, the founding Seneschal of An Dubhaigeainn stepped down, leaving the administrative duties of the Shire in the hands of his former assistant Gunther. Belly dancing workshops were taught by Diana, in preparation for the June Event. Beltine at Sweet Hallow Hill, had a good turnout on the 10th--the day of the infamous short ribs! Cordelia was a good sport (autocrats have to be) and confessed during the "confession contest" to having made them (inadvertent ingredient substitution).

EXCHEQUER: Cordelia nach Cymric

ASSISTANT KNIGHT MARSHALL: Ousa Stefan

MINISTER OF ARTS & SCIENCES: Bryghaya mac Lledwyn

GOLD KEY: Richard the Poor

ARCHERY CAPTAIN: Skyron

JUNE 1986 - Middle Eastern Dance event held on the 20th, run by Philip and Diana, with Richard the Poor and Bryghainn working the kitchen.

AUGUST 1986 - PENNSIC WAR XV (Debatable Lands)

SEPTEMBER 1986 - Muirdeach authorized at Carillion's Lakewood Ren Faire on the 20th.

OCTOBER 1986 - First issue of ANTI-DUCK by Gunther/Haus von Rhysfaedrin;

Additional officers listed as follows:

ARMORERS GUILDMASTER: Ousa Stefan

BREWERS GUILDMASTER: Heldur Jaa Karu

COOKS GUILD: Chief - Richard

Bottle Washer--"Bryghainn the Unfa-thomable"

ENTERTAINERS GUILD: Jongleur General--Michal

We sponsored the Nassau incipient shire, with Reyna van Morgenwind, seneschal.

AS XXI - In the reign of TRM Sebastian and Sirillian:

NOVEMBER 1986 - Feast of St. Andrew cancelled. Calendar lists Cooks, Garb, Fight Practices, Brewers, Sewing, NYC trip, and Archery.

EXCHEQUER: Mairgret of Carrigart

HERALD: Skyron

DECEMBER 1986 - (*possibly no Dec. issue of VIADUCT) 2nd annual Twelfth Night at Gunther's on the 27th.

MARCH 1987 - (VIADUCT Vol. 3 No. 1) Archery and Cooks Guild active.

HERALD: Lorenzo

ARCHERY CAPTAIN: Cynyr Longtoes

CHIRURGEON: Gunther Schwarzwaldsohn

CHRONICLER: Leif Tuborgsson

APRIL 1987 - Archery note in the newsletter from Cynyr credits Barbara, Ousa Stepharn, Gunther, Leif, and Lorenzo with a good showing at the range, Cooking, Fighting, and Armoring active. On the 4th, Celtic Silliness was held, and on the 26th, C.W. Post Ren Faire, both in Ostgardr.

Gliobach no-longer Assistant Chronicler; Gunther no longer listed as Chirurgeon.

AS XXI - in the reign of TRM Randal and Marieke:

MAY 1987 - Garbing workshops, presided over by Gwenlynn, added to activities.

KNIGHT MARSHALL: Muirdeach of Carrigart

MISTRESS OF LISTS: Mairgret of Carrigart

JUNE 1987 - On the 13th, the first Islip Americana Fair demo was given. Gunther and Muirdeach opened the fighting demos with short lessons on SCA fighting and armor inspection. Vanemonde, Loralynn, and Cynyr also fought, while Ashruf offered her ceramics, Richard chatted about garb and such, and Sine made little round hats. They even encountered an interested fencing master! On the 20th, the Challenge of the Black Abyss, co-autocrated by Gunther and Richard the Poor, was held. Along with the standard double elimination tourney, there was a "four man, one duck" melee tourney, and a fencing tournament. His Royal Highness Earl Morguhn Sheridan won the tourney, and was presented with a fine pair of metal studded fencing gloves. Jan Janowicz Bodanski was the winner of the novice tourney, and received a chain belt. There was also a Functional Arts & Sciences Competition: in the miscellaneous category, Oswald van der Grunewald won for bookmaking; in Trade Crafts, Ashruf won for ceramics with a plate; and in Brewing, Diana Brythowyn won with an apple mead. (Diana's winning mead recipe can be found in VIADUCT Vol. 4 No. 1, May AS XXIII.) During Royal Court, presided over by His Majesty, Master Randal of the Dark, Theodore of Budapest was inducted into the Order of the Silver Crescent, and our own Barbara de la Carriere, Ousa Stefan pin Lear, and Richard the Poor received Awards of Arms. A "Guest Baronial Court" was held by Court Baron Earl Sir Gavin Kilkenny of Kilcarren and Grafyn Sedalia MacNare. Sine tells an anecdote thus: A gentle arrived at the Troll table and asked her so politely "Is this where I check in?" that she replied "Yes--who are you?" to His Majesty, who was wearing His crown at the time! Cynyr qualified in sword and shield this clay. (Alain and Richard also authorized in this month.) And let it be told that our mascot "Snack the Duck," who has been seen no more, is in fact living happily on a farm upstate, Cynyr reported in VIADUCT that archery practices were well attended, and that folks' skills were improving, too.

Greetings from the Coronet!

First we would like to thank everyone who came out to Arrows Axes & Ales, especially those that helped in the kitchen, helped run tournaments, worked troll and, stayed to help clean up the site afterward. We would also like to thank Hermina De Pagan for autocrating a fun event and Akos Zekel for keeping us all well fed and happy.

Magnus Sverre Haakonson de Londres ran a fun and exciting thrown weapons tournament which saw us welcome back Michael Leg Bain as our Baronial Thrown Weapons Champion. Also, we saw our Baronial Archery Champion, Angel, with the help of Ronan FitzRobert conduct a very interesting tournament to select our new champion Tommaso Parlapiano who will now hold both the title of Archery Champion and Fencing Champion. We also had a brewing contest run by last years winner Padraig, which saw Lady Fiona the Volatile, sweep the competition.

Thank you to all our outgoing and incoming champions and winners, and to all of those who helped setup, marshal and judge the competitions.

We would also like to thank Master Jean Xavier, Baroness Gianetta and Lord Peter of Hawkwoods for their beautiful gift to us of period drinking vessels, in custom made wooden cases, crafted by Lord Peter himself and emblazoned with our own heraldry.

Winter is coming but we still have lots to look forward to. November 10th we will hold our Baronial birthday event St Andrews Travels North - First Stop Sienna. We hope to see all of you there to enjoy great food, great competition for our Heavy Weapons & Fencing Champions and great company.

We are as ever, Yours in Service to the Dream!
Sorcha and Titus
Baroness and Prefect of An Dubhaigeainn
