SCCC's Living Medieval Club

The new school year is underway at Suffolk County Community College, and that means there's a new group of students that have joined the Living Medieval Club, An Dubhaigeainn's local college branch. They meet every Thursday at 4pm and each meeting is centered around three basic things: learning a new basic skill such as sewing their own tunics, sharing general information about the SCA, and encouraging them to get involved outside campus grounds. We are looking for volunteers to help teach this new generation of Scadians.

If you have a skill you would like to share with them, please contact His Excellency Titus Aurelius Magnus at (516) 810-3108 or prefect@andub.eastkingdom.org.

If you do not yet have a persona or are thinking about changing your current one, feel free to use this opportunity to explore a potential persona. Only projects that have not yet been submitted in a previous A&S competitions, please. Entries will be judged on the completeness of the documentation and the creativity of the presentation.

St. Andrew Travels Home Court Report

St Andrew Travels Home, First Stop: Sienna

November 10, AS LIII 2018

On a Crisp Fall Morning, The Court of Baroness Sorcha of Stonegrave and Prefect Titus Aurelius Magnus was opened to announce the day's activities:

Heavy List Tournament

Prize: Champion of An Dubhaigeainn

Run by: Current Champion - His Royal Highness of the East, Ozurr the Bootgiver

Fencing Tournament

Prize: Champion of An Dubhaigeainn

Run by: Current Champion- M'lord Tomaso Parlapiano

Children's Activities

Creation of, and then Racing on, Hobby Horses

Run by: Lady Fionnghuala the Volatile

Also pointed out was the wonderful décor of the hall; recreating the Baronial History Display from East Kingdom's 50th Birthday Celebration this summer. Baroness Mistress Suzanne Neuber DeLondres was thanked for her work and designing eye. This good gentle took this opportunity to announce the Palio aspects of the day, which included a scavenger hunt and the aforementioned Hobby Horse Race.

Shenanigans then abounded when their Excellencies An Dubhaigeainn requested Their Excellencies OstGardr to join them in a Presentation to His Highness.

It seems that HRH was a very busy man leading up to this past Crown Tourney. He became An Dubhaigeainn's Champion, and then also won OstGardr's Championship, and then became HRM Caoilfhionn inghean Fhaoláin (who has now been Succeeded by HRM Vienna de la Mer) Champion as well... His Highness would be divesting himself of ONE set of Regalia this afternoon. But in the course of all this Championing he also Committed Crimes Against Alcohol by creating (and being seen DRINKING) an abomination of a combination for which he was sent on a quest by Their Aforementioned Excellencies.

Thus did Prefect Titus, in Honor of Completing this Quest, (and also, y'know, becoming Prince) present his Highness with a specially commissioned leather drinking boot which has a flat bottom (to allow it to be placed on tables without being Attended), looks just like the Boot on His Highness' Arms, and can hold approximately 64 ounces of a Tasty Beverage of Choice. The assembled populace, as one might imagine, found this to be quite amusing.

After this bit of Silliness, Court was Suspended until the Tourneys and Games were Completed.

*Make Way, Make Way!!
Coming before you now...Their Excellencies An Dubhaigeainn -
Baroness Sorcha of Stonegrave; the Wise and Gentle, and Prefect Titus Aurelius Magnus; the Strong and Silly...
And Favored are we today with the Heir to the East Kingdom
Protector of Tir Mara
Prince Ozurr the Bootgiver*

Thus Re-Opened the Court of their Excellencies An Dubhaigeainn.

St. Andrew Travels Home Court Report

The Prince told the tale of the Heavy Tourney and the Victory therein by m'lord Antonio Giancarlo Nicastrì, who presented himself to the Coronet and averred his willingness and ability to serve as Champion. Antonio took his place behind their Excellencies after being bestowed the Champion's Baldrìc by His Highness and Receiving a commemorative scroll by Lady Fionnghuala and Lady Violet Hughes. The Prince also received the Traditional Outgoing Champion's Token of a small Glass Duck Pendant.

Next the Barony's Humble Herald begged a Boon of the Coronet... her predecessor had stepped down some months prior but had not been properly Released from her Duties. Therefore, Lady Violet Hughes was called in to the Presence and Presented with an appropriately colored, striped Glove. Said Lady immediately Donned said Clothing, Proclaimed herself a "Free Herald" and ran, Squeeing Gleefully, to her seat in the back of the Hall.

Next the current Fencing Champion was Compelled from his stance behind their Excellencies to tell his tale of the Fencing Tourney and the Victory therein by Laird Eanraig the Bonester (as per his Authorization Card) Called the Bonesetter. Said Laird Eanraig, upon arrival to their Presence, advised the gathered Populace that, as An Dubhaigeainn's Only Pensioner, he was hereby Returning this Year's Pension (as an Active Champion is not Entitled to it) and Expressed his hope to earn it again when he steps down next year. M'lord Tomasso was Divested of his Fencing Regalia by the Prefect, while still managing to keep his Archery Regalia on his person, which machinations were accompanied by the Musical Kazoo Stylings of the Prince and Populace (it was fun to watch.) Tomasso received his Glass Duck Pendant and resumed his stance behind the Prefect's chair, a position he will maintain until next year's Archery Championship. Laird Eanraig, acknowledging that the Fencing Regalia still fits, then showed off his commemorative scroll, also by Lady Fionnghuala and Lady Violet Hughes to the response of many ooo's and ahhhh's.

The Newcomers among the assembled folks were summoned before their Excellencies and presented with a gift of Sachets from our Herbalist Baroness - their being many extra Sachets, some were gifted to more Veteran Members of our Populace to use in their Armor Bags!!

Baroness Mistress Suzanne Neuber DeLondres was then called upon to tell her tale of the Scavenger hut and Palio (or Hobby Horse Race) of the day: and the Victories therein. In the Scavenger Hunt, Team Eagle (which included the Vice-reigne of OstGardr) came in Honorably Second, and Team Unicorn Prevailed winning their Flag for Team Captain Caterin Lombardi, and a Goodie Bag of Italian Chocolates and a Vintage Coin for each team member.

The last piece of business of the Baronial Court was the Traditional Running of the Ducks, wherein our Coronet literally Run thither and yon to bestow a Bronze Duck Token upon those of the Populace who have gone above and beyond their obligations to make things work within the Barony.

This day's recipients (in mostly Alphabetical order) were noted especially for their help during our most recent Event; Arrows, Axes & Ales, and our most recent Demo at William Floyd High School and have had their Titles omitted to save space.

Aislinn, Arnbjorg called Helga, Conrad Jarnhand, Eanraig the Bonester, Fionnghuala the Volatile (2), Genevieve Vellman, Hrothgar of An Dubh, Hugoline the Delicate, Lily of the East, Magnus DeLondres, Michael Legbane, Michele the Ubiquitous (2), Monkey Magee, Ooda Lally, Owin Northwoode, Peter of Hawkwood, Raud the Meadstealer, Ronan FitzRobert, Sláine báen Ronán, Tomasso Parlapiano, Vetra trys Kaukoles, Vettorìo Antonello, Wolfsìge I Jorvik, Dankwert Bathory, Christofer Bruno, Meredith Storm, Padraig Donne, Caoilfhionn inghean Cellachain, Logan Chupresert, Caterin Lombardi, Alexander McLachlan, Suzanne Neuber DeLondres, Robert D'Whitmont, Onóra inghean U'Rairc, Jean Xavier Boullier, Saravit of H3S and Erig Ragst.

Name: Lisa Soto

SCA name: Vetra trys Kaukoles (which translates to Tempest of Three Skulls). I also have a former name Catrina ab Aqua from when I started in the Society and my official registered name is Lisa of An Dubhaigheainn

How did you learn about the SCA? My good friend Fiona the Volatile invited me to go to Pennsic in 1999 at a picnic for the Stony Brook Science Fiction Forum. The rest is history!

What about it attracted you? Wearing garb, socializing and the general “atmosphere” drew me in instantly. I was utterly enchanted with all the clothes and the personalities! Especially being called, “m’lady” and the pagantry of it all.

How long have you been part of the SCA? 19 years - Pennsic 1999 was my very FIRST event!

What is your SCA persona? I strongly relate to my Lithuanian heritage, so that’s where my persona comes from. Lithuania is a small country now, but it was once a Grand Duchy in Europe. I’m most interested in pre-Christian Lithuanian history (before the Crusades) because they were essentially Baltic Vikings. (Viking is a job title, in case you didn’t know!) There’s very little research on it to date, but it’s incredibly interesting to me.

What activities do you participate in? Well, I just stepped up to serve as the Seneschal of the Barony, so I’d say that doing service is where I do most of my participation right now! I’ve also cooked quite a bit of period accurate food over the past 5 years, both for events and for experimental workshops. Before I was a cook, I fought Heavy List for 8 years and served a year as Knight Marshal. When I first started out, I did a LOT of sewing. I basically reinvent my participation every 5-7 years to keep things fresh and interesting.

What has been your favorite event? I don’t really have a favorite of all-time, but I do really LOVE when we have a local Royal Progress event. It gives us such a great opportunity to show off all the talents and accomplishments of our Ducky Populace!

What would you say are your greatest accomplishments in the SCA thus far? Most recently, having the food at Feast of St. Andrew’s so well received back in November of 2018. We prepared for that dayboard and feast for about a year and did 9+ months of research and workshops to get everything as perfect as we could. I am super proud of the team that came together that made that happen and I’m incredibly honored that I got to lead them.

What future goals do you have in the SCA? I want to be the best Seneschal I can be for the Barony!

The History of An Dubhaigeainn

Installment 5

DECEMBER 1989 – Shire folk participated in a Tree Lighting & Caroling on the 2nd, at the invitation of Islip Town. At Lions in Winter, on the 9th in Lions End, Diana sold Middle Eastern wares, while Nova offered an array of soft furs. A few of us introduced ourselves to Court Baroness Trogrim, an exceedingly pleasant personage whom we had first seen at our Day of Dance; those who enjoy needlework were soon marveling at her beautiful pieces. Nova, Phelan and Michal entered their products in the Brewing competition, and all “won” for lack of other entries in their categories. The feast was delicious and too plentiful for most of us who think we can pace ourselves... Pandemonium played and Cantillation sang – and the whole of An Dubhaigeainn sang, Lions End Seneschal, Lady Reyna a Happy Anniversary (to the William Tell Overture--this plan hatched by Phelan and Teresa), as this was the anniversary of the Canton's first event. Duke Oengus, in a surprise appearance before Baron Ian's Court, praised Lord William Keith Fitz Garanhir, the son of his old friend Baron Sir Garanhir, stating that this young man's example had moved him to exchange old ways for new--thus, he swore fealty to Ian and Ostgardr. Later in the evening, Dance Master Phelan agreed to be loaned to the Lions, and Pandemonium played for the dancers. At the business meeting on the 18th, John of Graves End was elected Sheriff < proposed responsibilities and restrictions for this new office are to be found in the March A. S. XIV V IADUCT, Vol. 5 #8).

SHERIFF: John of Graves End

JANUARY 1990 - Some of our folk went down to Marwick on the 13th for East Kingdom Twelfth Night; thus, they had the pleasure of witnessing Their Royal Majesties award Arms to Geoffrey Chamberlain, and induct Muirdeach of Carrigart into the Order of the Tygers Combattant.

FEBRUARY 1990 - On the 24th, at our Tavern Event, period games abounded, to be played for--and bet on with--chocolate "coin", and there were contests of physical prowess. Muirdeach won at push-ups, and Eanraig bested all at arm wrestling. During the feast, which was prepared by Duchess Sedelia, the bardic baton was passed for individual and group singing and tales, and Cantillation also sang its latest pieces.

MARCH 1990 - A Middle Eastern Commons was held on the 24th at Leif's. The experiment by Rosamonde and Timmus of passing out recipes (with consideration of folks' time, cooking ability, and purses) proved very successful, with 26 gentles attending. Rosamonde taught Ukrainian Egg decorating in the afternoon, and the musicians got together and played after dinner. The Seneschal was pleased to announce the upcoming wedding of his sister, Freydis of Lillihjem to Eanraig Leigheasbeagan, whose SCA wedding was planned for Beltane on May 5th.

APRIL 1990 - On the 7th, Lorenzo was called into Court to receive his AOA scroll made by Timmus; it was hinged tablets of wood, with Arabic- style carvings on the back, and Arabic script work on the front. Mary (aka Katie) of Carrigart was made a Companion of the Tyger's Cub; and her mother, Mairgret, reports that the Crowns were given and received with honor and grace at the Last Court of Their Royal Majesties Horic and Lea in Their Barony of Settmour Swamp. On the 14th, Commons was held. C. W. Post Ren Fair was held on the 22nd in Lions End; only a handful of shire folk went, due to mundane considerations, which disappointed Richard the Poor and his Northpass friends who had expected to see us, and the Lions Enders Lorenzo and Timmus went and fought in the demo, and Henri and Phelan were there, too. Some folks got up to Bizarre Bazarre III in Drag- onship Haven on the 28th, and enjoyed themselves.

Greetings from the Coronet!

We hope everyone had a wonderful Holiday Season! Winter is here but the light is returning, while the nights are still long we hope you are working on your arts & science projects, repairing your weapons and getting ready for Spring, which will bring our Schola on March 9th - details for the competition are in the Viaduct.

In January & February we will be attending Birka and Dragonship Haven Investiture - K&Q Bardic Competition, we look forward to seeing you at these events.

We are as ever, Yours in Service to the Dream!

Sorcha and Titus

Baroness and Prefect of An Dubhainne
