Baronial Curia Committee

Members of our wonderful Barony,

I would like to make an official announcement. I have discussed with the other officers the needs for us to revise our official baronial policies. Our current policies will need to be revised to remove some outdated material, clean up some of the verbiage, and put some new policies in place to help our barony run more smoothly and efficiently. As such, I will be forming a committee to address these issues. The committee is open to all members of the populace who are interested, and of those I will choose a 5-7 person group (which includes a chairperson) that I feel best represents the diversity of our barony. This committee will be responsible for enumerating and proposing changes, which we would like presented to the populace at a baronial curia late next year (most likely at St. Andrews 2020).

If this is something you are at all interested in, please contact me via email at seneschal@andub.eastkingdom.org stating that you are interested in being a part of this committee. This would be a great way to get involved in the barony and be a part of its growth, while also learning about how things are run behind the scenes. Please include your mundane name, SCA name (if you have one), years in the barony, and areas of participation (such as illumination, rapier, heavy, brewing, etc...). Thank you all for your time, I look forward to hearing from you all!

Yours in Service,
Lord Fearghus Mac Cailin
Seneschal

Deputies Needed

We are looking for deputies for both Chronicler and Herald!

The deputy position for Chronicler would include assisting with the creation of the monthly newsletter. This would consist of communicating with the other officers as well as the populace for the gathering of information and then helping to format it. If you are interested in learning more about the deputy chronicler position please contact Lily Morgaine at chronicler@andub.eastkingdom.org

The deputy position would be assisting the Herald with all aspects of heraldry including court, names and devices as well as announcing at tourneys. Also generally documenting what goes on in the in our little corner of the known world. If you are interested in learning more about the deputy herald position please contact Slaine at herald@andub.eastkingdom.org.

Letters of Intent

We are accepting Letters of Intent for the positions of Master/Mistress of Arts & Science as well as Exchequer!

Please send your letters to seneschal@andub.eastkingdom.org if interested.
Positions will be voted on at the October Business Meeting

From Lady Vetra

Beloved Barony,

Due to ongoing issues in my personal life that many of you are aware of, I have made the incredibly difficult decision to leave the office of the Seneschal. I will not be returning as previously planned.

Thank you all for your support over my short tenure. I look forward to finding a way to contribute meaningfully in the future when life is calmer and I am healthier.

Yours in Service,
Vetra

JANUARY 1998

There was Inn-Sanity at the Sons of Norway Hall on 1/24 in St James. Magnus Sverre Haakonson auto-crated a delightfully fun event. Food was prepared by David de Londres and Xavier the Eccentric (with many aliases). There were many games of chance, spontaneous tavern brawls and Chocolate coins for bribery. A good time was had by all.

Member Highlight

Name: Baroness Sorcha of Stonegrave mka Pamela Jacques

How did you learn about the SCA?

I heard about it from a friend, she had gone to Pennsic.

What about it attracted you?

I have always been a history buff and you could go to a local event for about $20 and have 2 meals and all sorts of things to do.

How long have you been a part of the SCA?

20 years as of 2019, time flies.

What is your SCA persona ?

Sorcha of Stonegrave, I am a 15th Century woman from York, England, living through the War of the Roses. I am a staunch Yorkist not a Lancastarian. When I am not working on my Manor House, I study Herbs and make salves and potions in order to take care of those around me. I also study Astrology to better understand the world and its rhythms. I can sometimes be found reliving my Viking life in Jorvik around 1000 AD.

What activities do you participate in?

Service and Herbal studies, I was the Exchequer for 12 years and sat Gate for most events which is a great way to get to know people – connect names with faces. I am a member of the East Kingdom Herbalist's & Apothecaries Guild and that is an interest I try and make time for.

What has been your favorite event?

I guess I would have to say our Investiture on 9/16/17, I had family and friends there, Titus and I got to give out awards and that was a wonderful feeling, Suzanne made me a beautiful side-less surcoat and I didn't trip and fall into their majesties lap!

What has been your favorite moment?

It is hard to pick a favorite moment, seeing a friend receive an award always makes me happy – like at Pennsic 48 when Peter of Hawkwoods received his Silver Crescent and Magnus, David and Gianetta were given writs for the Order of the Pelican, surprising them and seeing the joy on their faces is priceless.

What would say are your greatest accomplishments in the SCA thus far?

Being Baroness of AnDubhaigeainn would have to be the greatest accomplishment, it is a honor that I take very seriously; we are here to help shepherd the Barony into the future and we hope to do so with a sense of fun and whimsy as well as the pomp and circumstance that people want.

I am a member of the Order of the Silver Crescent and the Order of the Maunche, I received a Queens Order of Courtesy from Brenwen and was totally surprised, I am proud that I am a member of the Barony's Order of the Silvanus Duke.

What future goals do you have in the SCA?

To continue to help lead the Barony and make it a welcoming place for all. Hopefully to spend more time pursuing Herbal studies and to share that knowledge.

Greetings from the Coronet!

This September marks the two year anniversary of our Investiture and we would like to thank everyone in the Barony for all the kindness and fun you have shared with us. We appreciate all the hard work you put into keeping the Barony a warm and welcoming place.

We are hoping to see many of you at upcoming events this month including Coronation on October 5th. We hope you will come to help out at the Middle Country Public Library demo on October 12th, demos are great opportunities to attract new members.

We have enjoyed our time so far and look forward to continuing our service over the next three years.

We always welcome new ideas on ways to improve everyone's experience in our Barony. Please feel free to reach out to us.

We are as ever, Yours in Service to the Dream!

Sorcha and Titus
