Faience Workshop

Attention!!! I've been in contact with an out of kingdom instructor who would be willing to come and do a workshop on Faience, which is a glazed pottery similar to ceramic. This was used in various ancient cultures such as Mesopotamia, Egypt, Minoan Crete, and some of the greatest makers were among the Phoenicians. In period, it was used for items such as cups, to small statues, to beads, jewelry, game pieces, etc.

We are tentatively looking at a date of March 1st, which is the Sunday following Queen & Crown's A&S champs. We are gauging interest at this point to see if it will be economically feasible for the instructor, HL Li Xia of the Kingdom of Avacal, as she is from Western Canada and the travel is quite pricey. Cost for the workshop would depend on the number of attendees. If you're seriously interested, please comment below. Come learn about the precursor to modern glass, Faience! This class will cover a brief history of Faience followed by hands-on playing with the material.

This class requires no prior experience.

Note: This class is not in garb. Please wear comfortable clothing that you do not mind getting dirty.

For additional information please contact our Seneschal at senschal@andub.eastkingdom.org.

Bardic Championships

The theme of the bardic competition will be departure or saying goodbye, the winner will be decided by populace vote by casting lots in to Raud's dreaded tankard of terror.

Date and location to be announced

A&S Championships

To participate in the A&S competition prepare an item that will surprise us. Show us something that we have not seen before.

Date and location to be announced

Member Highlight

Name: Baroness Mistress Suzanne Neüber de Londres mka Susan Maebert-Frank

How did you learn about the SCA? A friend of my brothers took me to an MSR event in February 1989.

What about it attracted you? I've always loved the ideals of Camelot and the fashions of the renaissance. What keeps me around are the friends I have gained and the opportunities to always learn new things.

How long have you been a part of the SCA? 31 years, member since 1990

What is your SCA persona? I am a child of a 16century lesser Florentine noble woman and Norman crusader, married to a 9century Dane. I was apprenticed to a 16century Spanish Woman, whom resided in England. Yes I know the time lines don't work - but it is the SCA.

What activities do you participate in? Oh so many... Archery, brewing, calligraphy & illumination, cooking, costume (research, design, sewing, accessories, various textile arts including card weaving & embroidery), dance, heraldry, jewelry and metal work and service (auto-crating). I'm adding new interest all the time.

What has been your favorite event? This is so hard to answer, there are so many events that I love. Pennsic is great because it encompasses so many activities and it last so long. And Coronations are almost always beautiful and full of pageantry.

What has been your favorite moment? I would say it would be when I was elevated to the Laurel. I'm not one who easily takes a compliment. I get embarrassed by them. Don't get me wrong, I appreciate a good complement. I was elevated in 1999 at Pennsic, so it was a multi-day experience. To start I was given the chore to correct a typo on a party invitation; I was a bit drunk from sake, so I didn't realize that the invitation was to my Laureling dinner. Yes, Isabella of York has a wicked sense of humor. Then the next day, hungover or still drunk, I attended the Queen to deliver garb I had made for her. The whole time Isabella was weeping. At first I couldn't figure it out, then it hit me - I was being sent on vigil. And then two days later I was elevated. Sitting in front of the crown and listening to the different peers of the East and Aethelmerc talk of my virtues was very emotional. Naturally Isabella of York spoke for the Laurel, Ts'vee'a bas Tseepora Levi spoke for the Pelican, Duchess Gabrielle van Nijenrode spoke for the Rose, Duke Timothy of Arindale and Sir Jehan Le Batard spoke for the Chivalry.

What would say are your greatest accomplishments in the SCA thus far? I have received many awards and accolades in the past thirty years. It started in Ostgardr where I received the Seahorse; In the Barony I have received many silver feathers and the Sylvanus Doke. On a Kingdom level I received a Court Barony before I was a seated Baroness; I am a Member of the Orders of the Silver Crescent and Munche and have received a Queens Order of Courtesy. On a Society level I am a Companion of the Laurel and the Pelican. I have received numerous Kings Cyphers (I was one of the first to have received the this award at the de-coronation of Balfar and Luna in 1996) and Queens Cyphers, numerous seamstress to the crown and brewer to the Crown. I am a Grand Master in the East Kingdom Brewers Guild, a guild to which I held the office of Guild Master for almost a decade.

What future goals do you have in the SCA? To continue to learn new things and teach each what I learn. As well as to wisely guide and promote my dependents. To support the East and the Society as best as I can.

AS XXXVII: During the Reign of TRM Andreas II and Isabella II

OCTOBER 2002

Greetings from the Coronet!

First we would like to thank everyone who came and helped out at East Kingdom 12th night in Ostgardr, from Lady Monkey Makgee and her kitchen staff, to members of our populace who performed for the crowd or just made themselves useful around the event.

Also, a number of people from our fine feathered Barony were called into court to be recognized for their contributions and accomplishments. Lady Marion of York was welcomed into the Order of the Silver Crescent,

Lady Monkey Makgee was made a Companion of the Order of the Maunch and Lady Hugoline the Delicate was given a writ to contemplate joining the Order of the Pelican at Mudthaw!

In other exciting local news Caterina Lombardi is now joined by Ellesbeth, Oda Lally, Stephano and myself (Titus) as full members of the East Kingdom Forresters Guild and we look forward to sharing our love of the greenwood with the Barony.

We are incredibly proud of all of our Baronial members who continue to go out and make our Society greater for having them in it!

We are as ever, Yours in Service to the Dream!

Sorcha and Titus

Baroness and Prefect of An Dubhaigeainn
