A Note from our Seneschal

Fellow ducks!

I previously posted about a youtube video that would showcase the various disciplines of the SCA, one that would hopefully draw the interest of newcomers. Another barony is doing something similar. They are doing a virtual demo for a local library, where different people can showcase various aspects of the SCA that can be done with limited personal contact. Basically just about everything except heavy list and rapier.

Is this something our populace would participate in? Would you be interested in doing a presentation of each art/aspect? This can range from things like illumination, calligraphy, woodworking, pottery, cooking, fire-starting, medieval encampments, dancing, brewing, archery, thrown weapons, etc.

If you'd be interested, PLEASE let us know. I'd love to have introduction videos for all these various arts and disciplines for the youtube channel!

Member Highlight

Name: Oda Lally mka Courtney Bennett

How did you learn about the SCA?

A friend of mine convinced me to join the local college branch, then named The Living Medieval club, at Suffolk Community College.

What about it attracted you?

Honestly, all of it! I've always been a history nerd, I had already collected a few hobbies such as sewing and other A&S activities, I had always wanted to learn archery, etc. The people I met were also so similar to me in so many ways that I couldn't resist wanting to befriend everyone.

How long have you been a part of the SCA?

It'll be four years exactly this September.

What is your SCA persona?

I am the daughter of an Irish merchant and seamstress. My father often traded with the Norsemen and would bring back gifts and stories. I was able to join him on one of his voyages there and ended up staying there and becoming apprentice to a well known scribe.

What activities do you participate in?

Mostly A&S, but I've also dabbled in archery and cooking as well.

What has been your favorite event?

Well, Barleycorn is my SCAnniversary, so that will always hold a special place in my heart. My all time favorite event however has to be St. Andrews Crosses the Alps in 2019.

What has been your favorite moment?

There are so, so many, but when I arrived at my first event, made that final turn towards the site, and saw everyone milling about in garb, I was instantly transported to another place and time. I was so overwhelmed with happiness and the feeling that I finally found the place where I belonged I started crying.

What would say are your greatest accomplishments in the SCA thus far?

I am honestly very proud of the fact that I've been able to be a Baronial officer for almost my entire SCA life. I've also gotten my AOA and am apprenticed to the magnificent Maestro Vettorio.

What future goals do you have in the SCA?

I want to do all the things! I'm focusing on my crafts at the moment, but I definitely also want to run at least one event and maybe become Herald some day.
