Pennsic Pennsic Pennsic!

So long... Have fun storming the castle! It's August and Pennsic XXXIII time is here! Many gentles of the Barony are headed west, some to battle for the honor of the East, some to display their period works in the A&S competition, some to shop (!!!) and all for fun! Good luck one and all, and bring back stories and pictures!

--Cynyr

The sumptuous and tasty So long... Have fun storming the castle! Subtlety was made by Lady Miranda Flamekeeper and presented at the last (?) Pennsic Planning meeting. Vivat Miranda!

Coronet's Gazette

Greetings All!

Our great Kingdom once again readies itself for War. Armor, supplies, camping gear - all stowed, ready for the long journey westward. But, before we leave to aid our Crown....

We would like to thank those who made the long journey up to Great Northeastern War to aid our sister Barony in her time of need. Lord Peter Bog and Lord Thorolf, your aid on the battlefield that weekend was greatly appreciated by Baroness Elspeth, as were Baroness Mistress Suzanne's Queen's favors, given towards additional war point in their war with Malagentia. Our thanks for your efforts!

This past Southern Region War Camp was a busy one for our Barony. Our congratulations and vivats go out to Alec and Ori on their Silver Crescents and to Uther on his OTC - a wonderful day for our Barony, all-in-all! Vivats go out, as well, to all the valiant warriors, both seasoned and new, who fought their hearts out on the fields under the Blue and White that weekend.

Our thanks also go out to those of our seamstresses (Lady Annetta, Lady Daria, Lady Gisele, and Baroness Mistress Suzanne) who gave of their time and skills to provide Her Majesty with a gift of much-needed favors and veils (Lady Annetta), presented to Her Majesty in a beautiful wooden chest generously donated by THL Ysabeau. We pass on Her thanks and appreciation to you all! As an added note, we will be delivering any remaining favors to Her Majesty at Pennsic. Please see myself or Lady Gisele, who has coordinated this effort, with any favors you may yet still have.

As of this writing, we ourselves are in the midst of Pennsic preparations, as are many in the Barony and, indeed, in the Kingdom. We look forward to seeing many of you at Pennsic. May it be a victorious War but, above all, may it be safe and enjoyable for all! Safe journeys!

Jean Xavier and Gianetta

Chronicler's notes

Greetings all! May your journeys be safe and your battles victorious as you head off to Pennsic! All your humble narrator wishes is that you bring back good stories (No s---, there we were!) and excellent pictures. With enough photos (with captions) I'll do a special Pennsic Viaduct, highlighting our Barony's adventures. Good luck!

And news from Hawk's Reach, congratulations to Arabella Rose (Nancy) for being voted in as Chatelaine! Vivat!

L. Cynyr

Finster, his Broadside (not his backside!!)

Finster, Earl of Chevro sends you Salutations.

First off...Lord Longtoes....they (Lord David of Wexington and Lady Sara Fasskin) are my companions not me theirs... actually they are more like uhmmm well lets see...revered retainers...yeah that's it. Now on to business.

An introduction would be good.

My fellow gentles I am Finster I. Bjornssen, Earl of Chevro Hall and adventurer nonpareil. Because of my adventures I have discovered many useful things and in my capacity as Earl of Chevro it is my duty, nay, my pleasure to help out fellow gentles by answering any queries on things that may puzzle them.

Since most of you have been too busy readying yourselves for Pennsic; I have decided that some of my traveling experiences and packing might be useful. Here is a list:

- 1). Make sure to have sufficient supplies of chocolate and do not pack it in your good garb (it gets really hot in a trunk...take it from me I know).
- 2). Make sure you are not packed next to books...they tend to bruise...better to be on top of the pack...but mind the zipper.
- 3). In emergencies MacDonald's supplies fine rafts and oars...strange but they come with pancakes or eggs and stuff. Go figure.

Well tah tah for now! Have fun at the War...

Yours in Service.
Finster Earl of Chevro.

Duck University (Scribal)

Hail and Fair Greetings!

Due to the prospect of relocation fast approaching, classes for Duck U (scribal workshops) are currently on hiatus. Until such time as I am able to run another class again and am settled, students are encouraged to keep up the good work, keep researching and supporting the scribal arts. If you are interested in doing future projects for the Signet Office, including gift scrolls, I strongly encourage you to please pay attention to the changes happening in the East Kingdom Signet Policies, which include that all those who wish to do scrolls for the East - even blank ones - must first register with the Signet Office.

These changes are still being discussed as I write this, so please stand by. In the meantime, if you wish to view the ongoing discussion, you can find it under "Policies of the Signet" on the chat board at: <http://scribe.cocoh.net>

Thank you, each of you who has contributed or supported in the scribal arts - I hope this summer continues to encourage many to join some of the finest artisans in the Known World in this ancient art, and I would invite those of you who wish to see what the rest of the Known World Scribes have been up to, to drop in at the Known World Scribal Gathering in the Midrealm Royal Encampment at Pennsic, on Tuesday of War Week, from 3pm - 5pm. There will be a number of scribal works on display from folks all across the world, and artists a-plenty to discuss their creations. It's a celebration of all manners of artistic styles, creativity, and experience levels. You need not be a scribe to attend, and from previous gatherings, I can attest that everything about the gathering is truly inspiring.

Until next, May the Muses Treat You Well,

Lady Kayleigh McWhyte
Founder, Drake University for Courtly Kingdom Scribes (aka "Duck U")
