Coronet's Gazette

Greetings unto the Populace,

We will start out this missive by thanking Lady Kayleigh McWhyte for all her efforts and hard work as Company Captain of the Archers for the Barony. We are grateful for her dedication both towards her position as a Baronial officer and the teachings in the arts and science of archery.

October ushers in the Autumn season and the crowning of Thorvald Halvorsen called Thorson and Svava Thorgeirsdottir as the King and Queen of our great East Kingdom.

Many thanks to Lady Gisele for coordinating the creation of the gifts given to Their Majesties at Their coronation. And our thanks go out to all those who had contributed their time and talent to the gifts.

King Thorvald and Queen Svava have put out the call to arms, for Kingdom Crusades is upon us, October 8-10, in the Kingdom of Atlantia (Darlington, MD). Those of you that will be adding your strength to the Southern Army of the East Kingdom, we look forward to fighting by your side. We ask that you notify us of your intentions to lend your weapon(s) to the cause.

November shall see Rusted Woodlands' 100 Minutes War where we shall once again field a Baronial force. As with Kingdom Crusades, we ask that all Baronial combatants contact us prior to the event. November shall also usher in the arrival of our annual St. Andrew's event and the advent of a new Baronial heavy weapons Champion. This year, St. Andrew has chosen to bring to us the robust tastes of a German Oktoberfest.

On another note, we have been listening to ideas from the populace, creating an ever-growing list of items to enrich the Barony's display at both events and demonstrations. Suggestions ranged from a coronet box (to replace that which was lost to fire) to a kneeling pillow to a Baronial battlefield hymn. Crafts-folk and artisans may utilize their skills in a variety of mediums to complete these projects. We shall put forth the list in its entirety shortly. Should you wish to take on a project, please contact us to avoid possible duplications.

In Service,

Jean Xavier and Gianetta

Chronicler's notes

Greetings folks. The fall season is upon us, the leaves are changing, the weather is cooling down and the sound of rapiers and armor being cleaned and readied for the upcoming Tea House of Xanadu, Agincourt and 100 Minutes War. And let's please not forget our own St. Andrew's German Vacation November 20th. ALSO—Note that BUSINESS MEETINGS ARE MOVING TO 1 MEETING PER MONTH.

YIS

Cynyr

Oh, Finster will be back next time, and please send me your photos from events you've been to! Ta!

MOAS and Chancellor Minor

Scribbles from the MOAS:

The Sept Fibre arts workshop was devoted to card weavings for the demo-that-never-was. A separate workshop was held with the Soothsayers Guild to prepare runes as tokens for TRH coronation. The Oct Fibre Arts workshop will be devoted to making portable game boards – Tuesday Oct5th, chez moi.

Prepare your exhibits now for display at St Andrew's goes to Octoberfest – Germanic themes are requested.

Field Trips – LITMA is holding an English Country Dance at the Brush Barn, Oct 17. Pre-dance classes will be Oct 10

The Frick Museum (1 East 70th St, NY) is exhibiting a collection of European bronzes from 16th to 18th century – now through end of year – I would like to organize a trip – suggestions for dates??

From the Chancellor Minor

Our first youth Fighter Practice in several months was held on Sept 26 at the Islip Grange. Weather permitting, we have use of the site until the end of November – so I will be scheduling practices on Sundays from 2-5 - please contact me if you are interested and to confirm dates

The Oct Fibre Arts workshop will be devoted to making portable game boards – Tuesday Oct5th, chez moi. – These are a great children's activity – again suggestions are welcome.

St. Andrew's German Vacation

Saturday, November 20th, 2004

Hosted by Barony of An Dubhaigeainn - East Northport, NY

St. Andrew apologizes for being late this year. He was wandering south of Scandinavia and found a regional party that he had to attend, it ended up lasting a month. St. Andrew wishes to introduce us to this concept by hosting what the locals in Germania call an Octoberfest. A day of sausage and all things German on the annual day celebrating the birthday of the Barony of an Dubhaigeainn run and hosted by their most excellent Canton of Sandmork.

St. Andrew will sponsor a polearm and two-handed sword tourney to open the fighting, minimum length of the Polearm is 6 feet or as tall as the gentle wielding it, there are no restrictions on the two-handed swords. After the completion of the tourney there will be the Annual Baronial Champions heavy list, sponsored and run by the current Champion Baron Richard of Richard of Lough Ree. The details of the champion requirements are simple, be a member of the barony and a win the competition set forth by Baron Richard, format to be announced on site. After the Champion tourney there will be a heavy list for everyone following the champions list featuring the "Wheel of Arms". This random weapons list has proven itself both fun and challenging in the past and we look forward to an entertaining and diverse fighting afternoon. If there is interest in Saber or Rapier competition, an area indoors will be set aside.

The dayboard will be a hearty fare of German dishes. Upon clearing the Reeve, you will receive coins that you use to buy your food for the day. Those that stay for the evening feast will receive free access to the dayboard and after court will sit to a treat of handmade period German sausages made by local accomplished cooks and something called a strudel.

St. Andrew would love to see a German themed Arts and Science display, and those wishing to teach German themed classes are encouraged to talk to St. Andrews contact for the event, Master Ateno of Annun Ridge. German themed games are hoped to be played in the hall, if you have ideas for these please contact Ateno. Also if you plan on merchanting, contact Ateno.

Your cook for the event is Lord Nicodemus Grey. He would like to remind all gentles that the focus for the feast and dayboard will be simple German Octoberfest food. So those with aversion to or dietary restrictions of sausage and sauerkraut and similar items, should perhaps plan to bring their own meal. The site is discreetly damp, only beer, mead and wine in separate and period drinking containers.

Directions:

By Train: Take the Long Island Railroad to the Northport train station (The Port Jefferson Line). Taxis are available to get you to the site.

By Car: From the East: Take the Long Island Expressway (I-495) to Exit 53 and go to Commack Road (CR 4). At Commack Road, go right, heading north on Commack Road.  Go to Jericho Turnpike (Rt. 25) and go left, heading west (there is a White Castle on the north-east corner). Take Jericho Turnpike to Larkfield Road and make a right, heading north (There is a Barnes and Noble on the right corner). Take Larkfield Road to Burr Road and turn right. The site is on the corner of Larkfield and Burr Roads.

From the West: Take the Long Island Expressway (I-495) to Exit 52, Commack Road CR 4). At Commack Road, go left, heading north on Commack Road. Continue from  above.
