Baronial Policy Change Proposal 1/6/05 For curia resolution 02/04/06

- 1) Change the definition of commons to read; an activity similar to an event except that it is organized entirely at the local level with out the publishing and reporting requirements of an event.
- 2) Change the definition of event to read; an activity organized, sponsored or hosted by the barony for the purpose of providing a social venue for recreating the Middle Ages. Events by definition are open to all members of the society and as such must meet requirements as set out by the SCA's corporate and kingdom officers.
- 3) Strike the word commons from III.B.2.b

Come Join Us For Commons! Commons with a Twelfth Night Flair.

Broadside & Boarding Parties

a festive nautical event!

Hoist the main sail and set a course to the festive ports of the Barony of An Dubhaigeainn this February 4, 2006 at the Christ Lutheran Church in East Northport, NY. Join your ol' shipmates over a tankard of rum and tell tall tales of the sea to the "volunteers" that have gathered 'round.

This event sets sail at 10 a.m. and will drop anchor at 9:30 p.m. One must keep up one's strength to face what the sea can throw at you, so keep yer belly full with the joyous delights created by Baroness Mistress Suzanne Neüber de Londres (Susan M-Frank, dlondres@optonline.net).

For those skilled in the rapier, prepare yourself for a ship-to-ship melee tourney. We will also be hosting the Baronial fencing championship. The tournaments will begin when the bell strikes 11 a.m. Be sure not to miss the boat!

We look forward to having all the laddies and lasses there to try out their sea legs at becoming the new cabin boy or girl for the HMS Sea Drake.

Once the fencing tourney is over, we'll clear the decks and make room to dance the rest of the afternoon.

Merchants and their wares are most welcome. Please contact the Autocrat for more information.

BARONY OF AN DUBHAIGEAINN

The St. Andrews Feast was a rousing success. Fighting, fencing, feasting and fun ruled the day. Our 12th Night Commons is coming up in January and the Broadside & Boarding parties event in February. Check out the calendar of events for details.

Fear not, gentlefolk. Thanks to the brave efforts of our mighty fighters and fencers the fortress walls have not been breached and the lovely Baroness remains safe!

reetings All!

The Yule Season is almost upon us, with many of us looking forward to gathering together with family & friends to celebrate the season with much festivities. Our thanks go out to all who made this year's St. Andrews a most enjoyable time, most especially our dear Saint's Bubbie, Lady Laurelhelena, who worked her poor fingers to the bone so that we could enjoy a good, home-cooked meal. Our many thanks go out to Baroness Mistress Suzanne and her staff for organizing this festive occasion. We are grateful to those who had worked in the kitchen and as servers to ease the burden of our Feastocrat, such as THL Patrick, Weasel, Heather, and those of Surtr's Brood. Thanks also go out to all who reached out and shared their generosity with our brethren in Meridies. The donation box was a tribute to the heart of this Barony. Know that your kindness lightened the burden for at least some during this time of recovery from the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. Also, a raffle of various items donated by members of the Barony, including fabric, trim, notions, and several goodie baskets, netted $179.00 for the annual Runnymede Dinner being hosted by the Barony at Pennsic XXXV.

A hearty Vivat goes out to the newest recipients of Awards of Arms. Several members of our Barony were recognized for their efforts within the Barony – Gerta, Caiomhm (known to most as DB), Magdalena, and Saravit. Know that your work has not gone unnoticed or unappreciated.

Congratulations go out to the new Baronial Champion, Baron Sir Muirdoch. Our thanks go out to our outgoing Champion, Lord Vladimir of Bathory, as well as his Lady Elizabeth, for their dedicated service. We welcome two new officers into our fold - Erin of Skye takes up the position of Mistress of Arts & Sciences from Lady Gisele, while Rylan the Lost takes up the post of Mistress of the Lists from Lady Chiara. Thanks to both Lady Gisele and Lady Chiara for their service in their respective offices.

FROM THE CORONET

Several presentations were made at our Baronial Court for which we would voice our thanks. The ever-gracious Baron Stefan gave a bottle of his wondrous vintage Viking Meade. He also generously donated the fruits of his skills in the form of several delicious beverages. Lady Nova followed up by presenting us with a token of her new homeland – a dangerous coca bean, a true man-killer as presented by another sort of man-killer, er, grief-stricken(?) widow. Our predecessors, Baron Sir Muirdoch and Baroness Mistress Mairgret presented us with a beautiful wooden Coronet box made by their own hands. For all these generous gifts – Vivat!

We would also take this time to announce that we are entering into our last year as your Baron and Baronessa. We would ask that any interested in what the position of Coronet entails, please feel free to speak with us. Those that would seriously consider taking up the banner of Coronet for the Barony, please send your Letters of Intent to both ourselves and our Seneschal, Lord Thorolf. A calendar of the agenda for the Baronial elections will be posted soon.

Wishing all of you a safe and joyous holiday season,

Jean Xavier and Gianetta
