From the Coronet

- > Greetings Unto the Populace!
- > Despite cooperation from Mother Nature, the Spring season in full gear.
- A
- > host of activities abound, some local, some faraway, some as peaceful
- > themed events, while others revolve around preparation for the coming
- War.
- > All in all, we look to a busy and productive spring and summer. Already,
- > we have a new Baronial Gate for our Pennsic encampment. Special thanks
- go
- > to chief architect and builder, Lord Peter of Hawkwoods, and to all who
- > helped paint the stone facade. Thanks also go out to Lord Peter Bog for
- > his donation of the 2 stained glass windows. We look forward to viewing
- > the new gate aglow by lantern-light in the Pennsic evenings. Vivats to
- > all
- > who helped!
- > On the topic of Pennsic, the next Baronial Commons will provide a chance
- > to
- > do your part for the beautification of the Barony and the encampment.
- > With
- > the gate completed, volunteers are needed to "thatch" (ie. paint) the
- roof
- > of the Baronial showerhouse. Wear your painting clothes and bring your
- > enthusiasm!
- > The nimble fingers of our seamstresses and embroiderers are needed for two

- > other projects. With our Baronial forces growing, we have some Baronial
- > tabards that need completing (in the form of assembly or stencilwork).
- > Our
- > Queen also has need of more favors for Pennsic. Tabards and favor blanks
- > will be available at the Commons. Or, if you wish to start before then,
- > you may contact Lady Gisele or ourselves for more information.

- > well-served as King's Arts and Sciences Champion. We cannot be more
- proud
- > of her. A long-time member of the Barony, Kayleigh recently moved to
- more

- > Mountain.
- > After spending the past weeks as a part-time resident of both our Barony
- > and BBM, while she sought work closer to her new home, Kayleigh has found combined

- > that we say goodbye to our dear scribe. May she inspire her new Barony
- in
- > the scribal arts as she has inspired her old.

- > Until July, be well and enjoy the month. See you all at the Commons!
