Pennsic War Information

There have been some changes regarding the dates for pre-registration for the Pennsic War this year. Mailed in registration started on January 1st, 2006 and will run until May 15th. On-line registration started on January 1st, 2006 and will run until June 15th.

The Barony will be registered as a camping group on January 15th, 2006 when registration opens for the groups.

I-CON Demonstration

Friday, March 24th thru Sunday, March 26th, 2006

Volunteers are needed for the annual I-CON Demonstration at Stony Brook University. We will need people to work the information table during Saturday, March 25th and Sunday, March 26th. Also, teachers are needed to give classes on the arts, sciences, and history that the SCA covers.

Armored combatants and fencers are needed as well for the two-hour combat demonstrations on Saturday and Sunday.

If you would like to help out, please contact me as soon as possible, so I can get your name on the badge list and a class description if you plan on teaching.

Pennsic Commons

Saturday, April 8, 2006

There will be a commons held at the home of their Excellencies, Jean Xavier and Gianetta, in Center Moriches on Saturday, April 8th starting at 1 p.m. If you plan on camping with the Barony at Pennsic this year, you are encouraged to attend, as the Baronial encampment and the Runny Mede dinner for the Landed Barons and Baronesses of the East Kingdom will be among the topics of discussion.

Everyone attending is asked to bring a dish to feed four to six people. Please RSVP the Baron and Baronessa so they may know what dish you are bringing. The bar-b-que will be available for cooking. Also, there will be room for armored combat and fencing.

Location:

Jean Xavier and Gianetta's Home:
Peter and Laurie Boullianne
59 Old Neck Road
Center Moriches, NY 11934
631-874-2748

(Parking is limited.
Please try to car pool.)

From the West: Take your best route to the Sunrise Highway (Route 27) and head east bound to Exit 59 (Wading River Road, Manorville, Center Moriches). Stay on the Service Road until you reach your first traffic light. At the traffic light, turn right onto Wading River Road. Then take your first right off of Wading River Road onto Brookfield Road. Follow Brookfield Road south until you reach a "T" intersection. At this intersection turn right onto Montauk Highway/ Main Street. Proceed west on Montauk Highway/ Main Street under the train trestle to the first light past the trestle. Make a left at this light onto Old Neck Road. About 2 tenths of a mile on your left will be #59.

Vivat to our Knight Marshall!

January 28, 2006.: An Dubhaigeainn Knight Marshall, Lord Peter Bog, receives the Order of the Valient Tyger from His Majesty Darius Orientalis at Market Day at Birka.

FROM THE CORONET

reetings unto the Populace,

March brings the coming Spring and, with it, thoughts of new beginnings, spring cleanings, and, yes, planning for Pennsic. With this in mind, we look forward to a Pennsic Planning Commons in April followed by a Newcomers' Commons in May. All those planning to camp with the Barony are asked to attend the Pennsic Commons at our home on April 8. Encampment plans, as well as plans for the Runny Mede Dinner to be hosted by the Barony are among the topics that will be discussed. Please see the accompanying announcement later in the newsletter.

We are very proud to say the Barony was well represented at King's and Queen's Rapier Champions this month by our Baronial Fencing Champion, Moresca the Fox, and Lord Alec. Vivat to both of you!

The Newcomers' Commons, to be held on May 6th & 7th in Eastport will cover a variety of topics of special interest to Newcomers. Long-time members are encouraged to attend, as well, to teach impromptu/informal classes, give demonstrations, and pass on their words of wisdom. This will be a chance for our Newcomers to learn more about the Society, on both the local and upper levels.

It will also be an opportunity for them to meet the various Baronial Officers and learn what they do. Among the topics to be covered – Who we are and what we do; what to expect at your first event; How to choose a name and persona; How to put together your first set of garb. If there is a particular topic you wish to see covered, please contact our Chatelaine, Lord Alec to let him know in advance so that we may work to accommodate your request. We would ask that folks open their stores to bring with them books or items of interest to Newcomers - books on costuming and other textile arts, martial arts, scribal arts, etc., as well as in-progress projects for the Newcomers to see, and loaner gear for them to use to try their hands at the martial arts. As with the Pennsic Commons mentioned above, please see the accompanying announcement later in the newsletter.

We would like to thank all those that have volunteered their time and resources to the demonstration at I-CON this March 24th through the 26th.

Next month in April, also brings a flurry of events as the season kicks into high gear. Chief among those is Balfar's Challenge, where the Barony will be fronting its teams in the competitions of the day. Even if you are not on one of the teams, we encourage members of the Barony to attend in support of our fighters, fencers, archers, thrown weapons folks, and youth combatants. We look forward to seeing many of you there.

In Service,

Jean Xavier and Gianetta
