FROM THE CORONET

Breetings Unto The Populace!

It has been nearly six years since we took on the duties and responsibilities as your Coronets of the Barony. Since then, the Barony has accomplished a great deal that our hearts swell with pride. It is because of the participation of the populace that the Barony was able to succeed. We ask that the populace take a step further in their participation and lend their support while under the guidance of Master Ateño and Lady Lassar as they serve as your new Baron and Baroness of An Dubhaigeainn.

We wish to thank all the officers who have served or are serving the Barony while we were the Coronets. Without your dedication and willingness to volunteer your time, the Barony would not exist.

To the past and present Baronial champions for serving us as part of the Baronial entourage and representing the Barony to the best of your abilities with honor and chivalry, we thank you.

And for those that have served us, especially, Lady Christine McDevitt, Lord Peter Bog, Lady Sorcha, Lord Peter Hawkwood, Baroness Mistress Suzanne, and Lord Thorolf. You allowed us to strive forward while keeping our feet firmly on terra firma.

We need to thank House Three Skulls for always making sure there was no lack of fun in Society and stepping forward and accepting a task when called upon.

We are grateful to have had this opportunity to have served the Barony and Kingdom in this role of Coronet. We do look forward in supporting our heirs and the Barony in their future endeavors.

In Service,

Jean Xavier and Gianetta

Breetings From Ateño and Lassar:

As we write this, we are preparing for the festivities at St. Andrews.

This event, this year, gives An Dubhaigeainn a chance to show the royals a sample of what we are all about.

Bring your arts, skills and above all your enthusiasm. On our part we will do our best to serve the Barony, but you are the Barony and only your participation can make it great.

We are just the liaison's, we can not do anything without you. We look forward to working with you in the upcoming years.

Ateño and Lassar
