FROM THE CHRONICLER

If all goes according to plan, this will be my final issue as Chronicler for the Barony.

It is a bittersweet departure... I asked to be replaced because of other commitments and responsibilities which no longer allow me to devote the necessary time to publishing this newsletter. At the same time, I can honestly say that I will miss the job.

I joined the SCA and went to my first An Dubhaigeainn meeting in late 2005. As is my way, I jumped in with both feet and started as your Chronicler with the October 2005 issue of Viaduct.

Not more than a few months went by when “mundane” matters put such a large demand on my time that attending SCA functions regularly became next to impossible.

Even in the short time that I was able to attend functions, I had the pleasure of meeting many wonderful people. As my involvement became more “virtual” than physical, I have still had the privilege to work and correspond with so many terrific people in the Barony.

I originally thought to try and list names, but I would invariably miss someone. The fact is that I would like to thank everyone I have met along the way. You are the folks that make this Barony such a delightful place.

I would also like to thank those of you I have not met, but take the time to read through Viaduct. I hope you have all enjoyed what I have done as much as I have enjoyed producing it.

Starting with the July issue, you will have a new Chronicler. I look forward to working with the new staff for a smooth changeover.

At some point, I look forward to finding time to attend some events. It would be nice to see old friends, put a face those I have been corresponding with and meet some new friends.

Until then, thank you for the opportunity to be your Chronicler. I bid you all the best.

In Service,

-Joe

“Potted” Arms & Fancy “Faire” II

Hosted by Canton of Hawk's Reache (incipient) -
Huntington, NY

Spring has flowered into summer and Baron Ateño of Annun Ridge and Baroness Lassar Ingen Aeda travel the lands of An Dubhaigeainn to collect their tithes on the way to the Pennsic War.

The Canton of Hawkes Reache (Incipient) welcomes them with a Summer Faire complete with a Pas D'Arms tournament to select the new Baronial Fencing Champion. There will be games and activities for all! Merchants are most welcome to help us get in fine shopping form for Pennsic! So bring your chairs and blankets to take respite upon the lawns and watch the fencing activities and visit with old and new friends.

There will be a hearty day board served throughout the day, no feast will be served but fear not, for none shall leave hungry! Last year the table groaned under the bounty of the day board!

An A&S Display and Competition with Heraldry as the theme will be held. Heavy Weapons pick up fighting will be held. There will also be an auction to benefit the Baronial Travel Fund – come and have fun bidding on the various items.

The Long Island Meadery and Lord Magnus of the East will be hosting tastings of his wonderful meads & cysers.

List opens at 11AM. The first Tournament will be decided by our current Fencing Champion, Vittorio. There will be the 3rd Annual “Hat Auction”, benefiting the Baronial Rapier Community where the populace can bid for a fencer represented by their hat. If that rapier fighter wins the Tournament, the bidder wins a prize. A Pas D'Arms Tournament to decide the next Baronial Rapier Champion will be based on a period demonstration of skill. The demonstration of skill and Pageantry will help Their Excellencies choose their next champion from the An Dubhaigeainn participants and the overall Champion of the Tourney from all of the participants, everyone is welcome to participate and there is a strong emphasis on pageantry. You must have your introduction prepared for a herald to read, and you are strongly encouraged to actually bring your own “over the top” herald (like in “Knight's Tale”), there will be a prize and recognition for the best Heraldry. Please contact Lord Vettorio Antonello (Erik Soto) Soto.rik@gmail.com phone 516-443-2352 (before 10PM) with any questions.

Greetings from Ateño & Lassar!

We are sore and a bit tired from attending Baronial Games yesterday. Baron Jean Xavier, Baroness Gianetta, Lord Titus and we day tripped the event in southern Iron Bog. One of chefs of the event was our own LaurelHelenaof An Dubhaigeainn.

Others may differ but the high point of the day was the 'German Chocolate Bread Pudding'.

With just the few of us participating in all the events, An Dubhaigeainn came within 20 points of 2nd place of the 5 Baronies attending.

The first official Wetlands Alliance court was held that afternoon, history was made. Thank you to all those who attended.

Our next court we we at "Potted" Arms & Fancy "Faire" II where we will decide the Baronial Fencing Champion. Please plan to attend. Last years was great and there is not reason why this wont be better.

We continue Pennsic plans, would there be interest in a armor workshop over a free weekend at out place in July?

Again, please keep in contact with us.

Ateño & Lassar
