St. Andrews in a Foreign Port

by Sir Richard Blackmore and Alissenda la Gailharde

On the first day of November, Anno Societatis XLIII in the Barony of An Dubhaigeainn, a tournament was held. Lord Titus' year of dedicated service as Baronial Champion for their Excellencies Baron Ateno of Annun Ridge & Baroness Lassar Ingen Aeda, having come to an end, a successor was needed.

Lord Titus devised a tournament to test the mettle of any hale warrior. Many hard blows were struck and endured, yet no one would yield the field. The sun sank low in the sky as the combatants fought on. And on. And on...

I must tell you that all three combatants participating who were eligible for the position, Hilarivs, Marcus and Saravit fought with honor, heart and determination. It was a pleasure to watch and to play some small part in this, myself, by crossing swords at times with each of the three worthies.

At the end of several hours of exhausting but glorious combat, there were broken weapons and battered bodies and finally the tournament came to a close. Both Hilarivs of House Three Skulls and Marcus Redgate of Surtr's Brood had survived the arduous experience largely intact, but remained essentially tied.

Titus declared that the two worthies would settle the contest in a best two out of three format. The first was hard fought by both men and Marcus emerged victorious. In the second bout, Marcus disabled Hilarivs' sword arm. Marcus discarded his shield in recognition of Hilarivs' knightly and valiant efforts during the day, so the contest could be decided without an advantage held by either.

Both men fought hard and admirably. Eventually Hilarivs was defeated by Marcus, who was declared the day's victor.

In court Their Excellencies accepted Marcus as their champion and Lord Titus passed on the regalia of the office, having served the Barony well during his tenure. In addition Marcus was presented with a Silver Feather in recognition for his many good works on behalf of the Barony since joining less than a year ago.

In addition to the heavy weapons tourney, there was ample space for our fencers.

For those of a non-martial bent, there was dancing, feasting and shopping. The event was crowned with a feast prepared by Suzanne Neuber de Londres and her generous staff of helpers, Isabeau, Gianetta and Miranda Flamekeeper.

Thanks also go to a number of folks including but not limited to Marcus of Redgate who provided the unique site tokens, Jean Xavier and Sorcha who handled troll and everyone else who helped make this a wonderful event.

Thank you!

Hello everyone,
I would like to express my deep felt thanks to everyone who helped with the recent event "Schlagers & Lagers, Arrows & Ales". The event exceeded my expectations and it couldn't have gone so well without so much help from so many people. Thank you to everyone who helped, and to all who attended, so that I'll always look back on my first time autocrating an event with happy thoughts.

Sewing & Stained Glass Workshops

Thanks to everyone who made the recent guest lecture by Monica Spence (Dame Catriona). As anyone who attended is aware, we spent over four glorious hours with Monica covering everything from the Middle Ages to Tudor fashions. No question went unanswered, and we very much appreciate Monica sharing her valuable time and knowledge. Thanks, too, to Paul Kowalinski (Lord Uther Sheildbreaker) who joined us for the history of fashion meeting.

Several folks have asked when we are having another lecture such as this. We can't make any promises at present, but we are hopeful that another session with Monica can be arranged as early as the new year. Keep posted to the Viaduct and the Yahoo sca ducks list for developments.

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/scaducks/>

Our next two meetings will be held on November 16th and December 7th, both Sundays, when we will resume our regular sewing & stained glass activities. (For more info on the stained glass workshops, please call Baroness Liesel at 631-243-4734 .) Remember, Sir Richard Blackmore has offered to open his extensive library on Arms and Armor for on-site perusal by interested parties while the classes are going on. Hope you can join us!

Archery and Thrown Weapons practice

Archery and Thrown Weapons practice will be held on Sunday, November 9th at 1pm .
A thrown weapons marshal will be present.

The practice is to be held at the home of Lady Damianna de Londres and Lord Logan de Londres (Dina and Mark Wolnyiec.) While no garb is required, we would appreciate if people would bring whatever they might require in the way of refreshments and chairs. Thank you!

FROM THE CORONET

Greetings from Ateño & Lassar!

Greetings Members of An Dubhaigeainn and other friends:

The holiday season approaches, as always heralded by our Baronial anniversary event, St. Andrews. The new site and having a great staff helped ease us into this year's event. Thanks to everyone involved.

There seems to have been a surge of Arts and Science happenings recently. We approve and hope this continues! We are going to be continuing our forge work at our house on random weekends (will be announced in advance) through the winter. These types of things are going to keep our interest until the spring hits again.

With 100 Minutes War looming soon (<http://www.eastkingdom.org/event-detail.html?eid=1679>) we would like to hear from those of you going to the event and planning to fight with us in the 'Wetlands Alliance' block of fighters. We plan on pledging our oath of fealty to their Majesties on the field before the fighting starts.

There is much talk of finding new sites for events.

There are several sites that have been mentioned, but we need more information. Many may have been ignored due to old prejudice. We ask each of you to look at a site close to you and get information on it. Don't dismiss it just because "5 years ago....", or whatever excuse it is. Check it out. It would be quite a resource for us if we could find one new site to add to our options.

Again we are here to serve you. If there is anything you require, do not hesitate to contact us.

*In Service,
Ateno and Lassar*
