East Kingdom Re-Opening Guidelines Announced

June 7, 2020 by East Kingdom Gazette

Good afternoon, East Kingdom,

We are in a phase of transition as various states/provinces within the Kingdom re-open for public activity in several stages. All who wish to return to in-person activities in the East must follow their state/province and local government requirements, and these Kingdom guidelines. We also honor the choices of those who will continue to refrain from public gatherings for quite some time.

Today, June 7, 2020, official in-person activities can resume according to the guidelines listed here.

All events are still cancelled through the end of June. We will be monitoring closely as states and provinces move through their re-opening phases, and We will update the Kingdom when local events can resume, if that date is moved from July 1, 2020. Royal Progress events will not take place until state/province guidelines allow gatherings of more than 200.

Per Corpora, an “event” must be sponsored by official branches of the Society, registered with the Seneschal of the sponsoring branch, publicized at least to the members of that branch, and conducted according to Society rules.

Permitted in-person gatherings at this time are explicitly very small – martial practices, local A&S activities, meetings to discuss specific topics, etc. The Kingdom Earl Marshal will provide specific guidance about martial practices.

If in-person business meetings resume, the meeting must also include a virtual component so that as many members of the group who wish to attend may do so.

Guidelines for East Kingdom in-person activities (June 3, 2020):

1. Do not attend an in-person activity if you are experiencing any of the symptoms of COVID-19 (<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/symptoms-testing/symptoms.html>). If you develop symptoms after attending an in-person activity, you must notify the person in charge of the activity as soon as possible.

If you have an underlying condition which increases your risk, strongly consider your own health and safety before attending an in-person activity (<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/need-extra-precautions/index.html>).

2. Each local group must follow state/province and local requirements for public activity in the place where the activity is to be held, including keeping up with changes to government policy based on updated information. Be aware that some local jurisdictions have stricter requirements than their state/province.

Continued

3. In addition to state/province and local requirements, in-person gatherings in the East Kingdom at this time must:

A. Submit a plan to their local seneschal

(i) Showing that the type and size of the gathering is allowed under current state/province/local guidelines (copy of the relevant part of government re-opening language is sufficient)

(ii) Showing the organizer's plan for complying with government and these Kingdom guidelines

(iii) If the organizer is the group's local seneschal, plan must be submitted to the group's regional deputy

(iv) The local seneschal or regional deputy must approve the plan in writing via their official East Kingdom email address before the activity can take place

B. Take place outdoors

C. Have enough space for all participants to remain six feet apart from each other at all times, or all participants must wear face coverings correctly (covering the mouth and nose at all times) if 6' spacing cannot be consistently maintained.

D. Prohibit shared food or drink

E. Have sign-in sheets for contact tracing

(i) Full legal name

(ii) Society name

(iii) Current phone number or email address

(iv) Minors will be signed in under their parent's contact information

(v) Contact tracing sheets will be retained by the activity organizer and will not be added to a database or other Kingdom records

F. Be reported to regional seneschals (except martial practices, which report as directed by the Kingdom Earl Marshal) so we can get an overall view of the Kingdom's activities

G. Specific requirements for martial practices will be provided by the Kingdom Earl Marshal

These are the first steps towards returning to in-person gatherings. We will be watching to see how this limited re-opening goes, and We welcome your feedback.

In service to the East Kingdom,

Medhbh, Kingdom Seneschal

Margarita, Queen

Tindal and Alberic, Princes

Member Highlight

Name: Saravit of House Three Skulls

How did you learn about the SCA?

I used to game with several members of the then Shire of An Dubhaigeainn. They talked about the SCA all the time, which made me interested in participating.

What about it attracted you?

Heavy list fighting. I have always loved all types of martial arts.

How long have you been a part of the SCA?

I have been casually attending events for 34 years, but have been active in the barony for about 20.

What is your SCA persona?

My persona was born in medieval Siam (Thailand) He traveled to Europe with a Portuguese merchant.

What activities do you participate in?

I am currently the web minister for the Barony of An Dubhaigheann, the Canton of Hawkes Reache, and the Kingdom Chancellor Minor. I participate in heavy list where I fight sword and shield, spear, and polearm.

What has been your favorite event?

My favorite event is Pennsic. I love the huge field battles, and getting to spend time with friends I don't see often.

What has been your favorite moment?

Listening to King Kelson's speech at the end of a Pennsic battle in which the East was greatly outnumbered. House Three Skulls was guarding the king, and did not yield to the Midrealm army. They had to go through the other side of the castle to get to the king.

What would say are your greatest accomplishments in the SCA thus far?

I received a silver crescent for my work with the web ministry.

What future goals do you have in the SCA?

Keep the websites in my care running and otherwise help where I can.

The History of An Dubhaigeainn

Installment 20

JUNE 2004

Due to unforeseen circumstances the Smithtown Historical Society's Brush Barn Faire on June 12 was rescheduled, so an impromptu Baronial commons was held instead, replete with fighting, fencing, archery and the company of good friends.

Vineland Raids III was attended by the coronet, generous gifts were provided for the new Coronet of Smoking Rocks by Lord Magnus Sverre Haakenson. Prince Thorson took a moment to compliment An Dubhaigeainn for its newsletter, nice going Cynyr!

At the June populous forum, A proposal was put forth to strike the "list of officers and draft a list of eligible offices and set a minimum officers. The reason for this proposal being, as a matter of policy we have offices not required by kingdom or society. Some of these positions are vacant or being held by persons with no interest in the day to day affairs of the barony.

JULY 2004

The Baronial commons hosted in Hawks Reach was held at the home of Sorcha and Peter on July 5th included a woodshop workshop to create cooler covers for the Baronial encampment.

Members of the Barony traveled to Great Northeastern War to aid our sister Barony in her time of need. Lord Peter Bog and Lord Thorolf, were a great aid on the battlefield and were greatly appreciated by Baroness Elspeth, as were Baroness Mistress Suzanne's Queen's favors, given towards additional war point in their war with Malagentia.

Southern Region War Camp was a busy and wonderful day one for our Barony. Alec and Ori received their Silver Crescents and Uther Shield Breaker on his OTC - Thanks also go out to those of our seamstresses (Lady Annetta, Lady Daria, Lady Gisele, and Baroness Mistress Suzanne) who gave of their time and skills to provide Her Majesty with a gift of much-needed favors and veils (Lady Annetta), which were presented to Her Majesty in a beautiful wooden chest generously donated by THL Ysabeau

AUGUST 2004

Wonderful news from the war front - the East has once again proved itself a mighty foe. Our armies have succeeded in winning the day (or, rather, week). Our own Baronial troops, led by Lady Lassar, joined by the mighty House Three Skulls, were pitted against the Mid Realm's Royal House in several engagements, surviving the fires of war with prowess and valor to spare. Our fencers, led by Lord Alec, held their own against the skill of the Mid Realm and its allies. Baronial Champion, Marcus, Lady Gisele, Erin, Lord Hassan the Turk, Lady Fiona, and many others of the notable House Three Skulls' archers added their skill to that of the East Kingdom. Thus, bringing the East to overall victory.

SEPTEMBER 2004

At The Smithtown Heritage Day on 9/18 the Baron held its Fencing Champions Tournament

Autumn Revel: A Day of Dance held on 9/25 at the Smithtown Brush Barn was a great success. We imported three dance masters (Lord Gunther, Lord Sheldon and Lady Shauna) from the north to lead our fine company in dance all day. There was no need for interruption of festivities for meals, as the famished and foot sore were served substantial sideboard of items that require little or no feast gear.

Our first youth Fighter Practice in several months was held on Sept 26 at the Islip Grange.

The September Fiber arts workshop was devoted to card weavings for the demo-that-never-was. A separate workshop was held with the Soothsayers Guild to prepare runes as tokens for TRH coronation.

Greetings from the Coronet!

We would like to start off by thanking everyone who is stepping up and continuing to work hard to keep our Barony and Kingdom going this year. We would also like to recognize our Chronicler, Lady Lily Morgaine, who was recognized in Ethereal Court with the William Blackfox Awards for best overall newsletter and best recurring feature in a newsletter.

On Monday, July 13th all are invited to join us online for Cocktails with the Coronets for an informal get together (in garb if you want) and to see each other's faces again. (<http://meet.google.com/ydx-zowe-wuu>).

Lastly while we have no events or practices currently planned for the remainder of the year we hope everyone can still enjoy the Summer safely.

We are as ever, Yours in Service to the Dream from Quarantine!

Sorcha and Titus

Baroness and Prefect of An Dubhaigeainn
