Huapahua: A Virtual New World Symposium

Saturday, May 15, 2021 at 9 AM EDT

The Barony of Marinus invites you to a day of learning and research, celebrating the indigenous and native cultures of the Americas and their place within the Society. We seek to provide classes that cover the full range of the American pre-colonial experience, including food and drink, clothing, fiber arts, history, music, language and literature, Society cultural concerns and more.

The Baron and Baroness of Marinus will hold court at noon. A social room will be open for those that wish to meet others interested in New World topics in a less formal setting.

Instructors and students from any part of the Knowne World may attend with no prior registration needed. All classes will be hosted by the Barony of Marinus through Zoom.

If you are interested in teaching about a New World culture, please visit our website starting February 1st. Class proposals will be accepted through March 31st.

For the most up-to-date information, including updates on class schedules, please visit www.baronyofmarinus.com/new-world.php

If you have concerns or questions about the event, please reach out to the autocrat, Ilhuicacihuatl called Yzma, at sca.yzma@gmail.com

Sparkly And Shiny III: A New Spring

Jun 5 at 10 AM EDT - Jun 6 at 6 PM EDT

As the effects and isolation of the Pandemic draw closer to an end, we all look forward to sharing our love of all aspects of our Society with others at events and other gatherings...some things will undoubtedly change and others will stay the same.

We at the East Kingdom Metal and Glass Collective are pleased as punch to bring you the next installment of our series, Sparkly and Shiny III: A New Spring, June 5-6, 2021! New Classes, exciting Live Feeds from locations around the Kingdom and beyond, and so much more! We will bring you the atmosphere of a live A&S event to your virtual encampment at home!

If you are interested in teaching a beginner or intermediate Metal or Glasswork class focusing on projects that can be made from the comfort of home, or classes covering Metal and Glassworking historical subjects, contact Lady Kira (Erica Schlain), our Class administrator, at SparklyandShinyEK@gmail.com.

We look forward to seeing all of you at SnS3!!!

Name: Dankwert “Danx” Bathory (Pronounced “DONK-vort”)
mka Adam

How did you learn about the SCA? I learned about the SCA through James Gallagher (Baron Vladimir Bathory)

What about it attracted you? The fighting caught my attention instantly but the energy and passion is what sold me.

How long have I been part of the SCA? My first event was in April 20, 1996 in Stirling NJ; Jimmy and his lady drove me out there and I was hooked instantly.

What is your SCA persona? 15th Century Wallachian

What activities do you participate in? Fighting, fencing, archery, brewing and bardic although as I’m getting older and finally starting to calm down a little, I’ve been contemplating adding to my repertoire ... we will keep that under wraps until I can produce something worth showing!

What has been your favorite event? Pennsic is my favorite event, Hundred minutes war is second.

What has been your favorite moment? I have so many incredible memories. It’s so hard to pick a favorite moment. I have several. Watching Juan Paco and Radames win their novice tournaments, watching Andromedas’ second novice tournament where he was unanimously picked as most honorable, Dutchess Caoilfhionn’s famous “Dragons aren’t real” speech, all compete - But I think my favorite moment in all of my years took place at our last hundred minutes war together - Ashley , Sir Richard Blackmoore’s daughter said that she sees her father everywhere in what we do and in who we are - I couldn’t have felt more honored.

What would say are your greatest accomplishments in the SCA thus far? Most of my accomplishments in the SCA lie in sharing the gift of this game with others. I found this organization at a crossroads in my life. I was on a very bad road. This society taught me honor. People in this organization like Duchess Isabella and Duke Andreas give me direction, love, understanding, and grace to grow. I have a Court Barony and Award of the Sapphire and a couple of other awards... all of which I’m incredibly proud of... but because of people like that, people like Vlad, my greatest accomplishment is surviving and becoming a man with honor.

What future goals do you have in the SCA? My biggest goal has been the same for more than two decades- I would like to be the first unbelted warlord In the East.

Cocktails with the Coronets!

The History of An Dubhaigeainn

Installment 29

JUNE 2008

Potted Arms II was held on 6/28 in Huntington. The event was recreated by last year's staff - Sorcha (Autocrat) Suzanne Neüber de Londres (Cook).

Once again the incipient Canton of Hawks Reach has served our Baron and Baroness not only a fine day board, but much more. Let's start with our Baronial Fencing Champion, Baron Jean Xavier Bouiller, who is not only priceless in skill as a fencer but who fetched the best price in the 3rd Annual Hat Auction. Vivat to Moresca and her auctioneer skills throughout the day! The award adorning our Baronial Fencing Champion is a magnificent set consisting of a grand sword whose hilt carries our Barony's symbol, a leather baldric dyed and hand-painted by Firebow, and a presentation box hand crafted by Peter of Hawkwoods. Peter's work was also featured in the merchant section where he is known as the man who makes those addictive lucets for the ladies. Speaking of the merchant section, wares displayed included chain mail accessories, fabric, trim and jewelry, among other offerings. And while it was a day for the fencers, our fine heavy weapons fighters made the most of their time with pick up matches. We've also added to our numbers as Marcus (Marc Redgate) has passed for heavy weapons. Vivat Marcus!! The arts and Sciences display was inspiring. Not only did it include the baldric and box made for the Champion's sword, but several other impressive weapons were displayed including handmade knives and a holder by Marcus and his Docomo style arbalest which was later authorized in a separate event. Those who visited us from Ostgardr's Broken Bridge brought with them a preview of an article on champion birds they will be sending in hopes of getting it printed in Tournaments Illuminated. This kind visitor, also quick of hand, made a bird toy on the spot to add to her report. As the day grew hot and tiring many of us grew thirsty. Luckily, we had three fine brewers that day: Magnus with his wonderful tastings from the Meadery, Baron Stefan de Londres who provided alcoholic as well as non-alcoholic brews and conducted a honey tasting, and - not to be outdone - John the Bear of Ostgardr with his cordials. This event just gets better over time! If you didn't make it this year, please be sure to mark you calendar for next year's Potted Arms and Fancy Faire

Stained Glass and Sewing Workshops at Baroness Liesl 1st and 3rd Sunday

Greetings from the Coronet!

Spring seems to have finally sprung here in the Barony and we are looking forward to brighter days ahead. We are excited to announce that armored combat practices have resumed on Tuesdays at 6:30pm at Percy Raynor Park, 220 Belle Meade Road Centereach, NY 11720.

We would also like to invite everyone to come to our next Cocktails with the Coronets, Saturday May 15th at 7pm on Zoom, we hope to see all your faces there.

As we move into the warmer months we hope to see more of you in person as we slowly begin coming back to normal. In the meantime stay safe until we meet again.

Hope to see you all soon ,
Yours in Service to the Dream,
Sorcha and Titus
Baroness and Prefect of An Dubhaigeainn
