From Vetra Trys Kaukoles, Event Steward for Arrows, Axes, and Ales: There and Back Again

I am very tired, and my heart is very full. Yesterday, the Barony of An Dubhaigheainn held our first in-person event in nearly 2 years. I want to thank everyone who participated in making this event the huge success it is.

First, thank you to Prefect Titus Aurelius Magnus and Baroness Sorcha of Stonegrave (Baronial Coronet), Fearghus Mac Cailin (Baronial Seneschal), and Oswyn Northwode (Baronial Exchequer), collectively our Baronial finance committee, for putting your faith and confidence in me as Event Steward. We knew that this event was going to be very challenging, as rules and regulations were changing daily when we first started planning it and I sincerely appreciate your support and ongoing encouragement.

Next, I want to thank my deputy Event Stewards, Sláine Baen Ronáin and Hugoline the Delicate. These ladies stepped up to ask how they could help before the ink was even dry on the event bid approval. Each of them changed “hats” several times over the course of planning the event, as we rolled with the beats as they came. While theirs were the first friendly faces that everyone saw as they drove onto site, as the CovidSafe “checkers”, they both did far more than that, helping with logistics, recruitment, organization, moral support and creativity.

When we first proposed the event, the East Kingdom was not allowing food to be served at events. When that restriction was lifted, we allocated for a day board budget, without affecting the event fee. I mentioned at the Baronial meeting that I'd be looking for a Head Cook and Ronan Fitz Robert's was the first hand to go up. I appreciate his enthusiasm, and clever play on the event theme to create a fun, filling menu that sustained us all day. Thank you especially for putting faith in my teenager, Anastasia Antonello, and their friend, Coragan, both high school culinary students, to prepare the Tea Time dessert course for the event! I must also mention - on the very eve of the event, I made a comment in passing to Oda Lally that I had a slight concern about having enough cookies for the event. She showed up on the morning of the event with dozens of Norwegian Snipp cookies, to my enormous surprise! Thank you!!

I thank my husband, Vettorio Antonello, for coordinating the plating for the dayboard courses that Ronan pre-prepared, keeping a watchful eye all day as pots simmered and brewed, and organizing our dayboard servers. Thank you to all our friendly, helpful, and amazing kitchen and dayboard volunteers:

Saravit of House Three Skulls, Oda Lally, Gilbert Christian Blackmoore, Rosalie Jane Blackmoore, Perez Ben Meir Gershon, Anastasia Antonello, Coragan (attending his first event), Fiona the Volatile, Isabel the Vulgar, Violet Hughes, Lily Morgaine, Adelina Collette (attending her first local event), Stacey (attending her first event)

Our all-day cleaning crew kept up sanitation all day. My thanks to:

Medbh ingean Donnchadha, Laurie Parr, Adelina Collette, Brick James Beech, Aiofe, Lily Morgaine

The event would be nothing without the archery, thrown weapon, youth thrown weapon, and brewing competitions.

My eternal gratitude and sincere thanks to everyone who stepped up to make the tournaments and competitions happen safely, on time, and full of FUN:

Eanraig the Bonesetter, outgoing Archery champion

Fearghus Mac Cailin, outgoing Thrown Weapons champion

Akos Zekel, outgoing Brewing champion

Wulfsige i Jorvik - Captain of Throwers, TW marshal

Ronan Fitz Robert - Captain of Archers, TW and archery marshal

Hrothgar of An Dubhaigheainn, TW marshal

Jean Xavier Boullier, archery marshal

Helga/Arnsbjorn, TW and archery marshal

Fiona the Volatile, brewing competition judge

Ateno of Anun Ridge, brewing competition judge

Suzanne Neuber De Londres, brewing competition judge

Richard the Poor of Ely, brewing competition judge

How did you learn about the SCA? Many years ago, driving through PA my family saw Pennsic. It peaked our interest since as a family we often went to the Connecticut renaissance faire. It wasn't until years later that I was introduced to what the SCA actually is. Since I have several friends who participate in the SCA I wanted to try it out.

What about it attracted you? I always enjoyed dressing in garb, spending time with friends, and being able to have an outlet for all my hobbies. All the hobbies!!

How long have I been part of the SCA? I started playing September 2019

What is your SCA persona? 12th Century Viking

What activities do you participate in? Thrown Weapons, Bardic, sewing garb, and miscellaneous A&S

What has been your favorite event? St. Andrews, as that was my first ever event and got to see friends elevated as well as win awards.

What has been your favorite moment? At 100 Minutes War, I participated in the Thrown Weapons bear pit and did way better than I expected to. I also love seeing friends get recognition and awards.

What would say are your greatest accomplishments in the SCA thus far? I haven't done much yet... but I really enjoy supporting my friends and helping them be the best they can be. When I participated in a bardic competition I received some recognition. (Singing in front of people was hard for me, but I did it!)

What future goals do you have in the SCA? Primarily I want to focus on thrown weapons by becoming a marshal, earning awards, winning competitions, and supporting the community. I also would like to learn and develop more skills as well as teach others what I've learned.

AUGUST 2009

For any of you who haven't yet had the pleasure of attending Pennsic, I can tell you that it is a not to be missed two weeklong event filled with color, pageantry, music, food and battle. I haven't even referred to all the parties and classes one can attend. Not to mention shopping. Ok, we won't mention that. My wallet is still bruised. For that brief fourteen day window, over ten thousand hardy souls get together to enjoy everything the S.C.A. has to offer. Our land agent, Peter of Hawkwoods, did a phenomenal job. Not only does he represent us in land negotiations with our neighbors, he also coordinates the set up and infrastructure of our camp. An impressive gate and hand painted sheet wall mark the entrance to our home away from home. Once inside, we all enjoy the baronial common area, complete with a brand new fly, a kitchen area, a fully operational sink and hot water shower big enough to have its own changing room. Of course, many hands make light work in an effort this big. Construction and breakdown are a huge endeavor, and we very much appreciate everyone who helped make the various elements of the common area, set up and/or stayed to the bitter end to lend a hand with breakdown. While camp fees serve to defray the cost of all our camp 'luxuries', we can always use more assistance with the physical side of things. A huge thank you to all those who were able to lend us a hand. Names are too numerous to mention individually, but you know who you are and we love you! Vivat! It's called a War because there are...battles! The River Battle, The Gate Battle, The Woods Battle and all the individual rapier, archery, thrown and heavy weapons tournaments are a large reason Pennsic attracts so many people year after year. Once again the brave warriors representing our Barony of An Dubhaigeainn fought with honor. Our beloved Barony joined the grand forces of the Wetlands Alliance, accompanied by the fighters of Three Skulls who had vowed themselves to the Coronet for the war. Also hailing from within our borders, Surtr's Brood made good measure of themselves and won much honor. The War was fought in two parts. First, the traditional East (and allies) fought Midrealm (and allies), and then the East & Midrealm joined forces to take on the Known World Alliance. When the dust had settled, the East had vanquished Midrealm and in turn, the Known World Alliance beat the Mid-East Alliance. On the more convivial end of things, the merchant areas were not only a constant source of temptation, but also a wonderful backdrop for artisans to demonstrate their skills. On the day I was there, there were demonstrations of pewter casting, period embroidery and historical carpentry, among others.

No Pennsic report would be complete without mentioning the all night celebration called Midnight Madness. On Wednesday of War Week, the entire merchant area becomes a torch lit festival of street performers, musicians and dancers while eager shoppers snap up the bargains offered. The last few years have been graced with a full moon during War Week, and this year was no exception. It was a magical night filled with laughter and song as we all stepped into the giant medieval block party. The classes and A&S exhibits were exceptional this year, which is only fitting as Pennsic 38 was billed as 'Torchlight on the Arts'. Classes were held on myriad subjects, from applying modern science to determine the cause of The Great Plague of 1348 to discussions of Skaldic poetry. History, weaponry, literature, herbalism, dance and all manner of handcrafts were taught. Many of the classes are led by members who are teachers and professors in mundane life. It's like getting college level courses included at no extra charge! Back at camp, Baronial Court was filled with happenings. Several honors were awarded including scrolls to House Three Skulls from both our own Coronet and the Crown. We wish House Three Skulls continued success in their never ending battle with the great sea monster, Nostromo. Additionally, both Lady Sorcha and Peter of Hawkwoods were honored for their tireless service while at camp. If I missed anything, I apologize. Things got a bit muddled when Baronial Court was interrupted by a visit from the Crown's emissary summoning Mistress Suzanne Neüber de Londres to Kingdom Court to be awarded the Pelican! In case you're new to S.C.A. peerage awards, the Order of the Pelican is given to members who have shown outstanding devotion to service in the S.C.A. Mistress Suzanne certainly fits the bill. Officer, autocrat, feastocrat, brewer, teacher and expert needlewoman are only a few of the hats she wears. She's always one of the first to arrive and last to leave at events, and one of the most welcoming people to newcomers, helping them learn the ropes. After being attired in her magnificent presentation garb, Mistress Suzanne made her way to East Kingdom Court where she was elevated once again to the Peerage, with much pomp and ceremony. (Mistress Suzanne is already a Laurel.) Our own Baron Ateno spoke in support of her honor to great effect.

Unto the populace on An Dubhaigeainn, greetings and heartfelt gratitude. Thank you to all those who participated and added to the making of a memorable induction into the Order of the Pelican. A special thank you to Baroness Gianetta for the wonderful dress she created for me with the assistance of Gerta, Lady Sorsha, Alissenda, Daria and the Honorable Lady Ysabeau. Thanks to Baron Daniel de Cavallo of Coppertree for his design of "pelican in piety surrounded by a laurel wreath", Duquessa Isabella's embroidery and her apprentice Baron Christos' execution of the cloak, and Lady Daria for the beautiful cap of maintenance. Thanks, too, to my Mistress Gwenhwyfar and Lord Tiberius for the painted silk war banner. To all the speakers whose words made me cry, though luckily not too much. My husband, Lord Thoroff, who brought the chicken wings so that we could nourish ourselves while waiting to be called before Their Majesties. And my brother, Baron Sean, who hosted a lovely reception after court.

Greetings from the Coronet!

Fall is here and we have hosted a very successful first in person event in nearly two years. We would like to start by thanking all of the event staff and volunteers who helped make sure the event ran smoothly and safely and to the marshals that came out to ensure that we could all enjoy the tournaments.

We would also like to thank our outgoing Champions of Archery, Laird Eanraig the Bonesetter, of Thrown Weapons Lord Fearghus Mac Cailin, and of Brewing Lord Akos Zekel, and Griffon of House Three Skulls for Youth Thrown Weapons, you all did an exemplary job of representing the Barony during your time as our champions.

We also were happy to welcome our new champions, Elsebeth von Annedors for Archery, Gilchrist Blackmoore for Thrown Weapons, Corrigan for Youth Thrown Weapons and Skellig for Brewing. We look forward to a year of events with you all.

We hope to see you all at St Andrews on November 13th for our 30th Baronial birthday celebration and Royal Progress. We know it takes a lot of hard work to put these things together and we truly do appreciate all that you do to make our Barony a wonderful and welcoming place.

Yours in Service to the Dream,
Sorcha and Titus
Baroness and Prefect of An Dubhaigeainn
