Name: Andromidus mka Andrew Longobardi

How did you learn about the SCA? I was at a weapons-only LARP and the SCA group known as Surtr's Brood came to our event. At the time I was one of the top fighters of the LARP. The leader of the SCA group, Danx, challenged me to a one-on-one best of 10. I got schooled and was then very interested in learning the fighting techniques of the SCA.

What about it attracted you? At first it was all about the fighting then I got to learn and understand what the SCA was really about. All the wonderful things that happen. So many great people. It left me wanting to learn and do more.

How long have I been part of the SCA? 5 years or so

What is your SCA persona? Greek, specifically for the name I chose.

What activities do you participate in? Right now heavy list fighting. With more to come

What has been your favorite event? Pennsic for all its greatness. 100 Minutes War has a very special place in my heart as well.

What has been your favorite moment? This is a hard one because there are so many. Hanging out with the household around the campfire. Fighting in and getting Most Honorable in the Novice Tournament at Pennsic. Getting a knight to call me out for a one-on-one during a melee.

After fighting one battle at Pennsic I met an elderly woman wheeling a large container. I offered her my assistance and we talked and talked and talked until we reached her destination. She told me so many stories about her time in the SCA. Having that conversation was such a great experience.

What would say are your greatest accomplishments in the SCA thus far? Receiving Most honorable at Pennsic Novice Tournament. Getting my Silver Tyger at 100 Minutes War in the snow. Being the former Heavy Champion of An Dubhaigeainn.

What future goals do you have in the SCA? I hope I will be worthy of becoming a knight one day and plan to win crown.

SEPTEMBER 2009

Arrows & Ales (formerly Schlagers and Lagers) was held on 9/19 in Huntington the event was splendidly auto-crated by Catrina ab Aqua and the feast was prepared by Suzanne Neuber de Londres.

Congratulation to Ulrich for winning a hotly contested archery tournament. Not only is he our pole-arm man, but now our archer as well. A hearty congratulations also to Stephen de Londres and Fiona for the winning brewing entries. Thank you to Sean de Londres for stepping in and running the contest. Ateno missed all of you. At least he was able to share in the feast, thanks to the 'Goodie bag' that Lassar brought home. Arrows and Ales was a terrific example of how we and the SCA work together to make a shared experience happen.

Brewing 101 Article by Baron Ateno in November VIADUCT

This year St Andrew's Visited Iceland on 11/7. The event was held Center Moriches, magnificently stewarded by Baron Jean Xavier Boullier with a sumptuous feast by Master Adamantius.

The Baronial anniversary event was well teamed this year, with a new location and a crack staff taking care of the essentials. Congratulations to Lord Xavier, Lady Daria and Master Adamantius for setting up what we are sure will be a great event. We look forward to seeing everyone there. We would also like to thank Lady Ding Li Ying for making the trek out last Tuesday to teach a beginning illumination class to Lord Vettorio, Lord Logan, Lady Damiana as well as ourselves. You missed a great resource, but don't fear, we are doing it again on December 14th. As most of you know we cannot attend 100 Minutes War due to a mundane conflict, but please let us know if you are planning on attending. We are hoping to attend 12th Night, but as yet, we have no firm plans. We promise to keep you posted and ask that you do the same for us. After attending St. Andrews, did you think to yourself that someone was not recognized for a baronial award? Despite our best efforts in keeping track of deserving members of the populace, we depend on you to give us your thoughts and recommendations. Please don't be shy. We can only recognize what we know, and we can't be everywhere. We believe that there is no such thing as a bad recommendation. So if you think you know someone worthy of consideration, please tell us!

Greetings from the Coronet!

Fall is leaving and winter is on its way and our Barony has survived 30 years and counting! We would like to start by thanking everyone who came together to make our 30th anniversary at St. Andrews possible. First we would like to thank our autocrats Lord Ronan FitzRobert & Lady Fiona the Volatile and our feastocraft Lady Hermina DePagan and all the volunteers that were able to bring a great event to life.

We would also like to thank our outgoing fencing and rattan champions Atraka Asen and Lord Andromedas of Surtr's

Brood who finally had a chance to pass their duties on to their worthy successors Demetrio Antelini da Lucca and Baron Brick James Beech. We look forward to a new year with you representing the Barony proudly.

We have a few fun activities planned for the coming year and hope to see everyone soon. Wishing you all Happy Holidays and a Happy New Year!

Yours in Service to the Dream,
Sorcha and Titus
Baroness and Prefect of An Dubhaigeainn
