Member Highlight

SCA name: Laurie Anne Parr
Mundane Name: Laurie Prichard

How did you learn about the SCA? Through my Household; House Three Skulls
What about it attracted you? Well, it was something different at the time and I really liked the good cheer of the people that I met.
How long have you been part of the SCA? All together? 22 years.
What is your SCA persona (if you have one)? Tudor England

What activities do you participate in (i.e. fencing, A&S, etc.)? A&S especially Silk Painting. I would like to try my hand at glass blowing too.
What has been your favorite event? Pennsic, first and foremost. But locally, St. Andrews events.
What has been your favorite moment? Back in 2018, I taught a Silk Painting class at Pennsic. I had taught a few classes locally, so when I was introduced to the idea of teaching at Pennsic, I felt like I was an off Broadway show moving to the big times of appearing on Broadway proper! It was an incredible moment and I cannot wait to get back!

What would say are your greatest accomplishments in the SCA thus far (a bit of bragging here please, and please list any honors/awards)? I received my AoA and became a Lady. That was magical. I honestly never thought that I would ever receive any award. So, to be recognized for teaching painting and helping out where I could, was very humbling.

What future goals do you have in the SCA?
I'd like to expand more of my knowledge on particular aspects of Tudor history and learn a little more on the Silk Roads.

Greetings from the Coronet!

We hope everyone is well and awaiting the coming of Spring! We are looking forward to “seeing” you at our Very Silly Schola that will be held virtually on March 12th starting at 10AM.

We are looking forward to your amusing and silly A&S and Bardic entries. The rules for the competition are found on the event listing on the EK website.

We thank our current Champions Lady Lily Morgaine of The East A&S and Mistress Hugoline the Delicate Bardic for their service and for putting together this competition to lighten our mood!

As the East Kingdom reopens we look forward to seeing you all soon but in the meantime stay safe and healthy!

Yours in Service to the Dream,
Sorcha and Titus
Baroness and Prefectus of An Dubhaigeainn
