Baronial History

Installment 37

JANUARY 2010—12th night commons - Huntington - Allisande & Migeal's

About thirty people braved the cold weather to come out to the January commons, hosted by Lady Alisenda and Lord Miquel. The holiday celebrations were a wonderful mix of great food and great company. Baron Ateno brought along the Blueberry ale that was made at the last commons. What a treat! It was a wonderful balance of bitter grain with sweet fruit that made music in the mouth for beer lovers. Plus, it was a point of pride for anyone who assisted in its making. Hopefully, it has inspired a few of us to continue brewing.

The table was groaning with fresh homemade goodies, such as Lord Thorolf's famous fresh-fried-that-morning tortillas paired with Mistress Suzanne's famous guacamole and salsa; THL Peter of Hawkwood provided roasted turkey breast and stuffing. Beef stew, New England clam chowder and an assortment of cheeses, meats, pasta, pies and cakes rounded out the holiday table. As a special treat, Lord Marcus prepared individual chocolate souffles for anyone who asked! Yum Yum.

New members mingled with old hands as we shared projects. Losing track of everything that was going on was easy as there was so much to learn and do. Some of which included a demonstration on adding gold leaf to painted scrolls, period embroidery, making cording on a kumihimo frame, laying out a surcoat pattern and working on small leather projects. We even got a chance to look at some new fencing garb and talk about some camp embellishments for Pennsic. All of this was accompanied with music as Henry Best gave us a few tunes. It was busy, crowded and fun.

Several members of An Dubhaigainn traveled to Twelfth Night to attend the day's festivities and present the scrolls that were the result of the Barony's last scribal workshop. During the court, Baron Jean Xavier was awarded the 'Burdened Tyger' for his organizational talents shown at the recent "St. Andrews visits Iceland".

Highness Marguerite had a meeting with members of the East Kingdom at Birka. It is her hope to make our Society more accessible to newcomers and encourage their greater participation. Towards that end, she reminded us that we have a wonderful resource readily available that introduces the SCA and the specific customs of the East Kingdom in wiki format.

Along with other members of the Barony, the coronet attended Kingdom Bardic Champions event, enjoying the vast variety of the competition. After the new Champions were chosen in court, the cook for our recent St. Andrews event, Master Adamantius, was recognized with a 'Burdened Tyger' for his gastronomic efforts that benefited the recent Baronial birthday event.

Historians Note: I have gathered the history of the Barony from several sources. One mainly is the Viaduct, Coronet letters, event announcements and my memory. If you see that something has been left out, please let me know, so that I can include it in the master file. I encourage you to go back and review past installments. If you have pictures

Greetings from the Coronet!

The days are getting longer and spring is just beginning and we have so much to look forward to this year. First we would like to thank everyone who was involved in helping make our second virtual Schola a huge success. Mistress Hugoline the Delicate and Lady Fiona the Volatile organized and ran a wonderful day filled with classes and entertainment. We would also like to thank everyone who came out to teach and perform on the day, we could not have done it without you.

We would especially like to thank Mistress Hugoline the Delicate and Lady Lily Morgaine of the East, our outgoing Bardic and Arts & Sciences Champions who made us proud to have them represent the Barony and ran excellent competitions to find their successors. Next we would like to welcome our new Bardic Champion Lady Aoife inghean Uí Briai and our new Arts & Sciences Champion Lady Fiona the Volatile. It should be a fun and exciting year together. We would also like to call out our newest recipient of the Baronesses/Prefects favor Lady Caterina Lombardi who impressed us both with entries in both Bardic and Arts & Sciences.

With the weather and other things improving we have lots of events and practices to look forward to so keep an eye out for announcements and updates, including the Barony's return to Pennsic.

Yours in Service to the Dream,
Sorcha and Titus
Baroness and Prefectus of An Dubhaigeainn
