Installment 39

AS XLIV: During the Reign of TRM Edward and Marguerite

APRIL 2010

Balfar's Challenge was attended by Jean Xavier, Rufus, Ulric, Onora, Ateno and Lassar. Due to the rain, the event was less well attended than usual, but the day was still filled with many wonderful activities. The Coronet, Lassar and Ateno, were able to swear fealty to their Royal Majesties, Edward and Marguerite on the field. Thanks to all our archers who made the time to represent the Barony - Master Jean Xavier, lady Michelle, lord Rufus and of course our archery champion, Lord Ulric Bryars who led this year's team

MAY 2010

Heavy Weapons Champions Tourney - 5/8 - Sayville Picnic BYO

We have a new Baronial Heavy List Champion! Congratulations to Lord Dankwert Bathory who emerged from a field of eight, one of the largest pool of competitors in some time. The day dawned gray and rainy, but the competitors and their fans were undaunted. About fifty members of the barony were in attendance as the fighters took the field. The outgoing Champion, Lord Marcus, had designed a challenging tournament with three separate lists. If the last tournament tested a fighter's skill, this one tested a fighter's depth with the first round using weapon and shield, and the second using spears with daggers as the backup weapon. The surprise third round featured flails supplied by the outgoing Champion. As the weather cleared, the tournament was hard fought with Lord Dankwert followed closely by Baron Don Jean Xavier and Lord Peter Bog. After the formal tourney there was a mass melee with unlimited resurrections. The fighters put a pile of daggers, flails and one mace in the middle of the list on the ground. The combatants stood at the perimeter. At the lay on, each fighter had to run and grab a weapon and fight for three minutes. If you died, you fell down for 2 seconds and had to let go of the weapon currently in your possession before resurrecting. Since the flail will be outlawed in September per the SEM's directive, this was a great opportunity to really get down and dirty with some fun equipment. Thank you to His Excellency and Sir Richard Blackmoore for his fine reporting of the event.

Hauppauge Middle School Demo

A big thank you to those members who participated in this year's Medieval Day at Hauppauge Middle School. Not only is this a great way to bring the Middle Ages alive for eleven- and twelve-year-old's, but it is a wonderful opportunity for our Barony to give back to the community and showcase our skills. This year's volunteers included Lady Sorcha who taught about the medieval kitchen garden, even going so far as to demonstrate for the kids how salves and infusions were prepared during the Middle Ages. Baroness Mistress Suzanne Neüber de Londres taught medieval dances to mixed classes of boys and girls. (If you think getting an eleven-year-old boy to dance with an eleven-year-old girl is easy, think again!) Baron Ateno and Baroness Gianetta volunteered to demonstrate how to make chain mail, with the kids having a hands-on opportunity to make their own mail while Lady Alissenda helped children learn about medieval heraldry and create their own coat of arms. Lord Miquel tackled Medieval Myth Busting, teaching the kids the importance of critical research, and Lord Marcus had what was arguably the most fun job - demonstrating medieval siege engines for the kids. A couple of the kids were real dead eyes and knocked down the plastic cones we were using for target practice with the ballista and trebuchet! All in all, it was a fun and exhausting day for both the kids and the volunteers.

Historians Note: I have gathered the history of the Barony from several sources. One mainly is the Viaduct, Coronet letters, event announcements and my memory. If you see that something has been left out, please let me know, so that I can include it in the master file. I encourage you to go back and review past installments. If you have pictures that you would like to accompany any part of the History, please send me a digital copy.

Greetings from the Coronet!

Summer is well and truly here and event season is in full force. First we would like to congratulate our new Prince Sir Mohammad Al Wajdi Al Abderrafi Al Manil Ibn Horrah Ibn Gowan and Princess THL Corotica Merkka Senebelenae, our new heirs to the Kingdom of the East.

Next we want to say how much we are looking forward to seeing everyone at Potted Arms on June 18th where we will have our Baronial Fencing Championship. It's shaping up to be a great event and we hope to see lots of you there.

House Runnymede (the household of the Landed Baronies) is having a Largesse exchange at our Runnymede Dinner to be held at Pennsic this year. We discussed this 2 years ago when it was first suggested. We are paired with the Barony of Dragonship Haven and are tasked with providing a basket of largesse items for the Barony. We hope to have a workshop or two to work on this. Please let us know if you would like to participate or have any questions.

Also Pennsic is rapidly approaching and the deadlines for registration are coming fast. If you plan to camp in the Baronial encampment please contact the land agent Lord Peter of Hawkwood to reserve your place.

With the warm weather comes practices, there are fencing, armored, archery and thrown weapons practices again, check the website and Viaduct for dates.

It's good to be back

YIS

Baroness Sorcha of Stonegrave

Prefectus Titus Aurelius Magnus
