Baronial History

Installment 41

MAY 2011

5/3 - Middle School Demo -

Suzanne Neüber de Londres once again coordinated this foray into teaching medieval arts to 5th and 6th graders. Teaching sixth graders is always a bit of an adventure and some of us even had double classes to handle. This demo always gives the presenters a renewed appreciation for teachers. How do they do it? Thanks to everyone who took personal time off and participated in the demo. It was an early and busy day, with classes beginning around 8 a.m. and set up even earlier. All in all, it was a fun and exhausting day for both the kids and the volunteers.

5/4 - Spring Scola - Shirley - Suzanne Neüber de Londres (Auto & cook);

A day of learning and revelry at 'Villa Vincog'. We have a full day's schedule of activities, including schola classes on a variety of topics. Classes included: Pewter Casting (both lecture and hands on instruction), Pouch Beading, Herbs and Salves, Prepping and Packing of Food for Pennsic, Leatherworking, Skinning and Tanning, and an all-day Silk Banner Making (imported the teacher from upstate Vermont - Thank you Tiberius) project where a Baronial war banner for Pennsic was created.

Southern Region War Camp.

From all accounts, camp was busy and well attended, and we have another reason to celebrate as our fighting ranks have increased. One of our own - Douglas, son of Marcus (sounds a bit Biblical, doesn't it?)- qualified as our latest rattan fighter just in time for Pennsic. Congratulations, Douglas!

May 12 -We had a wonderful calligraphy and illumination workshop with guest presenter Lady Ding Li Ying

JUNE 2011

6/11 Potted Arms V - Huntington - Sorcha of Stonegrave (auto) - Suzanne Neuber de Londres (cook)

Once again Potted arms Day-board table "groaned" with food. The Pas D'Arms Tournament to select the new Baronial fencing champion preceded by the ever-popular 'hat' action was very well received by the populace present.

Historians Note: I have gathered the history of the Barony from several sources. One mainly is the Viaduct, Coronet letters, event announcements and my memory. If you see that something has been left out, please let me know, so that I can include it in the master file. I encourage you to go back and review past installments. If you have pictures that you would like to accompany any part of the History, please send me a digital copy.

PENNSIC COURT REPORT

From your Baronial Herald, Demetrio Antelini da Lucca

As the Known World emerged from exile, a call went forth from Ryouko's jin, The Demon-King of Three Heavens, and Indrakshi Rani to answer the war drums' call. Prefect Titus and Baroness Sorcha, their Excellencies An Dubhaigeainn, gathered the forces of the populace under their care and made haste to Aethelmarc lands where war with the Mid was to be waged. For 2 weeks the Known World gathered, one of peace and one of battle, to conduct the 49 th Pennsic War. In the end, the Eastern forces and their allies emerged victorious over the Mid's.

On the Wednesday of the week of war, Prefect Titus and Baroness Sorcha called those of their Baronial Populace to gather. They would hold Court and then enjoy a time of merriment together. Their first order of business was to make known and thank all those who assisted with the Baronial Encampment's set-up and breakdown. These individuals were vital to the success of the camp, and all should know and praise their works.

Next, Their Excellencies presented congratulations before their Court to Baron Fearghus mac Cailin, Sir Brick James Beech, and Master Magnus de Londres. These individuals were among those members of Eastern Populace who were chosen to compete as Champions of the East in their respective disciplines. Baron Fearghus was selected for both the Unbelted Champions Team and the Thrown Weapons Team. Sir Brick was selected for the Belted Champions Team. Master Magnus was selected for the Thrown Weapons Team. Their Excellencies thanked and congratulated them for this distinction, and for representing the Barony with great skill and honor.

The Prefect and Baroness then asked for Laurie Ann Parr to come forward. Tales were told of the many day boards and feast that have fed the populace over many years. For their tireless service to the Barony serving in said kitchens was Laurie Ann given the award of The Silver Feather. However, under careful consideration it was determined that those who count themselves as recipients of The Silver Feather are yet still incomplete. Therefore, the Coronet called for Peter of Hawkswood to appear before them, for they had business of much importance with him. Having served this Barony for what seems an endless amount of time in the management of the Baronial Camp at Pennsic, Titus and Sorcha would recognize him and his service. Having deemed these services worthy; Peter was also presented with the award of The Silver Feather. Both of these awards were done that all would know from this day forward of the services wrought by these whom were called before the Court.

However, not being done recognizing services to the Barony, their Excellencies wished to see more in their court. Logan of House Three Skulls, Caoilfhionn inghean Ceallachain known as Zephyr, and Anastasia Antonello were beckoned forward to present themselves to the Court. There being no service found not to be worthy of recognition, these individuals brought honor to themselves in the services they provided. The Barony benefitted greatly, and their deeds should be made known. Zephyr and Anastasia both worked hard making pizzelles for the enjoyment of many. Their cooking pleased the

The Coronet then shared good words they had received about one of their own, Andromedes, for being named and competing for the East in the Atlantian 10-Man Melee Tournament. They congratulated Andromedes on his selection and performance, thankful for the honor he brought himself and the Barony.

Congratulations were also offered to Lady Vetra Trys Kaukoles for competing in her first two Rapier tournaments as well as her first Rapier melees. They also congratulated Rosalie Blackmoore on her first Pennsic, and first Pennsic battles on the Heavy List field. Lastly, their Excellencies congratulated Gilchrist Blackmoore on his return to the Pennsic War after a most lengthy town run of some 30 years.

There being no further business, the Court of Prefect Titus and Baroness Sorcha was closed and all were invited to a time of merriment and libations, Cocktails with the Coronet.

Thus ends the report for the Court of Prefect Titus and Baroness Sorcha, Their Excellencies An Dubhaigheann, held on the 10 th of August A.S. LVII at the Pennsic War.

Greetings from the Coronet!

Even if there is no frost on the pumpkin, Fall is here again. This coming weekend will see the Coronation of Mohammed & Corotica, long live their Majesties of the East Kingdom! At the end of October there will be a Crown Tournament and we wish all participants good luck.

St. Andrews will be on November 5th at the Estonian House. We will hold a tournament to select our new heavy weapons champion at the event and we hope to see all of you there.

We are in our final year as your Coronet and looking for candidates. If you have any questions about the job and what it entails please feel free to talk to us or any of the other past Coronets. All letters of Intent must be submitted to both the Coronets and the Seneschal on or before October 30th 2022. The candidates will be presented to the populace at St Andrews.

Hope to see you all this coming fall.

YIS

Baroness Sorcha of Stonegrave

Prefectus Titus Aurelius Magnus

FROM THE SENESCHAL

Greetings unto the populace of the Barony of An Dubhaigeainn, from your Senechal, Mistress Suzanne Nueber de Londres. Please know that if you have the desire to be the next Coronet of An Dubhaigeainn, your letters of intent must be in by November 1st.

Please forward your letters to myself and the current coronets. As well as any questions.

In Service,

Baroness Mistress Suzanne Nueber de Londres
