From Your Seneschal

The following is the tentative schedule for the Polling of the next Coronets:

Meet the Candidates - this will be a google meeting, time will be added onto the Baronial Meeting on 1/5/23 (7-7:45 will be the business meeting; 7:50-8:50 will be for the candidates). You can enter the meeting at any time. If you have questions you would like the candidates to prepare for, email me before the meeting

Mailing :We hope to put the pollings in the mail by 1/27/23-2/3/23.,so that we can get the results by 5/1/23

If you have any questions regarding the polling, please direct them to me.
Baroness Mistress Suzanne Nueber de Londres
Seneschal of Barony of An Dubhaigeainn

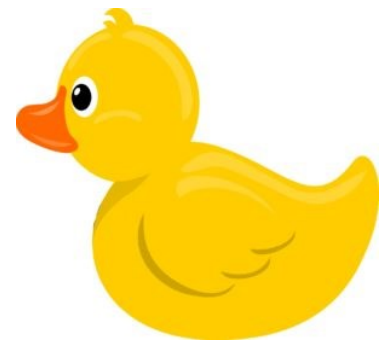

Also:

We (the Coronet and myself) would like to get a picture taken of the populace in front of the Flanders Duck, while the Holiday lights are still on. I know how busy we are during the holiday season so I was thinking between 12/25 and 1/6/23 . (i need to check how long they will stay lit).

If you are interested please email with a date that would be best for you and we will see how many people we can get together.

Installment 43

JANUARY 2012

1/8 -Yule Commons – Huntington, NY- Miquel d’Avinhon and Alissenda la Gailharda

The five people running for Coronet recently attended the Yule Baronial Commons where we had an extensive question and answer session. Questions posed covered a wide range of topics including how the candidates view the job, how they intend to interact with our metropolitan neighbors and the East Kingdom, how they would handle any conflict that might arise, and how they would increase membership and participation. All five made clear their intention to serve the full five-year term and represent the Barony at Kingdom level events. While mundane concerns of salary and vacation time constrain everyone’s travel time, each of the candidates pointed to their past participation as a good indicator of their willingness to regularly represent An Dubhaigeainn within the larger SCA community. They all would like to foster a spirit of cooperation and energy within the Barony so that we can put our strengths forward and deal with any controversy in a calm and effective manner. A few questions did manage to illuminate some of the subtle differences between the candidates and we’ve provided highlights as well as contact information for each of the candidates below. Please see last month’s Viaduct for more information. We hope to welcome them back for the Winter Canton Commons on February 19th. They’d be happy to hear from you if you have any questions or thoughts.

Weasel’s watchwords are Strong and Just. A longtime member of both the Barony and House Three Skulls, Weasel hopes to inspire people to be their best. As he likes to say, he hopes to “utilize people, not use them.” He’s been in the SCA for over 21 years and believes that by encouraging close ties between new and old, it will help to open up discussions with original energy and ideas. He sees training new recruits as an important part of a baron’s job, and hopes to strengthen ties among the various households by “fostering fighting team relationships”. He believes a Baron must remain neutral when conflict arises, first ascertaining whether it’s a real conflict or just a miscommunication. He might even employ an independent mediator to facilitate solutions. While he is running alone, he feels up to the challenge.

If selected, Logan and Damianna would like to be remembered as Fair but Firm. They would focus on increasing membership and participation by supporting events & activities that appeal to different interests and hope to “open up more doors”. Logan has been in the SCA for 22 years, and a member of the barony for ten of those years. Damianna has been playing for slightly less, but each of them stresses their shared experience wearing several managerial hats, whether for their mundane jobs or as former officers of the Barony. To avoid a perception of favoritism, they favor open communication and might employ a neutral party to facilitate discussion. Should problems arise between the EK and the Barony, they favor face to face meetings with officers and royalty informally outside of the SCA to resolve conflict.

Baronial History Continued

Seeking a term that is Open-minded and Effective, Dave and Susan bring over 30 years combined experience in leadership positions in both the SCA and other volunteer organizations. They intend to build on the success of previous Coronets by continuing to foster cooperation amongst the various interests and households in the Barony while maintain a strong presence within the East Kingdom so that the populace will get the support and recognition they deserve. By drawing on their organizational skills and existing relationships (Dave is a member of House Three Skulls, while Susan has long been active in the peerage of the East Kingdom), they hope to minimize potential conflicts through clear communication. Listening and clarifying are key. They plan to work closely with the Seneschal, following Kingdom law, while energizing the populace with a hands-on open-door policy.

Along with a dozen members of the Barony, we happily attended the East Kingdom's 12th Night event in Carrillion, where we were honored to witness Lady Sorcha of Stonegrave's induction into the Order of the Silver Crescent. This is a welcome and well-deserved award for service in the East Kingdom. Continuing a tradition, Baroness Lassar gave Lady Sorcha her medallion of the Order, which was once owned by Lord Petrus the Sylvan

FEBRUARY 2012

2/19 - Hawks Reach Winter Commons 2/19 - fabulously hosted by Lord Miquel and Lady Alissenda. Not only did we all enjoy good food, good friends and good times, we had a blast with the new "Jeopardy" format medieval movie trivia game. Congratulations to our winners, Lisa Seckler-Roode, John Francavillo and Mary Fernandez

MARCH 2012

Baronial Polling for new coronet has been mailed

Historians Note: I have gathered the history of the Barony from several sources. One mainly is the Viaduct, Coronet letters, event announcements and my memory. If you see that something has been left out, please let me know, so that I can include it in the master file. I encourage you to go back and review past installments. If you have pictures that you would like to accompany any part of the History, please send me a digital copy.

From the Coronet

Greetings from the Coronet!

First we would like to thank everyone who made this year's St. Andrews an amazing event. A lot of people have to come together to make an event work and we really appreciate all the volunteers putting in all the hard work. We would also like to thank Sir Brick James Beech, our outgoing Baronial armored combat champion for his year of service and for running an exciting tournament. Also, congratulations to our new armored combat champion Baron Fearghus Mac Cailin, we look forward to the year to come.

The Dickens festival is December 3rd and 4th and the Barony will be present and we hope to see many people drop by to help spread the word!

As you all know we will be stepping down as Coronet next fall, we have 2 wonderful sets of candidates for the future of the Barony; Lady Fionnghuala the Volatile with Mistress Hugoline the Delicate and Baron Vladimir Bathory with Lady Andrea Noelle Bathory. We will be setting up a Zoom meeting to meet the candidates in early January and the Polling will probably be in February.

Wishing you all the Blessings of the Holiday Season!

Stay safe, stay warm

Yours in service

Baroness Sorcha of Stonegrave

Prefectus Titus Aurelius Magnus
