From Your Seneschal

Greetings Good Gentles.

The polling ballot has been approved, I am waiting for the mailing list. I hope to have the polling in the mail in February. As soon as the list is available I will send out an alert.

When you receive the ballot, please fill it out and respond promptly. We need a certain percentage of returns for a valid poll so EVERY BALLOT COUNTS!

Yours in Service,

Baroness Mistress Suzanne Nueber de Londres

Baronial History

Installment 45

JUNE 2012

Potted Arms VI - Huntington - 6/30 - Sorcha of Stonegrave (auto) - Suzanne Neüber de Londres (cook)

The Canton of Hawkes Reache welcomed Baron Ateño of Annun Ridge and Baroness Lassar Ingen Aeda with a Summer Faire as they made one last sojourn across our lands to collect tithes on their way to the Pennsic War. On a brutally hot and humid Saturday June 30, 2012, the Canton started the festivities once again with the ever-popular Hat Auction, where members of the populace bid for the favor of a fencer as symbolized by the fencer's hat. A prize was awarded to the bidder whose fencer won the Hat Tournament. This Round Robin style tourney included differing points to be scored based on the weapons and defensive forms being fought; the better your defense the lower your possible points. There were also varying multipliers based on the Fencer's skill level; the more skilled the fencer the lower the multiplier. The winner's score was divided by the loser's score. The winning Fencer was Ronan FitzRobert, fighting with the favor of his lady-wife Sláine baen Ronáin. Humorous comments were forwarded concerning the unusual situation of a Fencer and their spouse being the winners, and so the usual conversation as to which prize went to the Bidder, and which prize to the Fencer could be so easily resolved. Both prizes went to the Wife (As they should...).

The Pas D'Arms Tournament followed the Hat Tournament. This contest placed a strong emphasis on pageantry. Each fencer in the Tournament was introduced by a herald. It was expected that each fencer's herald would be vividly over the top (as in A Knight's Tale). A prize and recognition were awarded for the best heraldry. The winning Heraldry was performed by Lady Giselle Dela Flambeau who extolled the virtues of Eanraig the Bonesetter. The Pas D'Arms Tournament helped Their Excellencies to choose the next Baronial Champion from amongst the An Dubhaigeainn participants. This was a Simple Elimination Tourney. The final contestants were the aforementioned Ronan and Eanraig. Eanraig won the first bout, Ronan the second – which brought us to a Sudden Death third bout. It was well fought in very Pennsic-like weather conditions. Eanraig the Bonesetter proved victorious and achieved the well-earned title of Baronial Fencing Champion for the next year. He was invested with his Ceremonial Regalia at Court that same day. Humorous comments were forwarded as to how the Baronial Baldrick and Scabbard would need to be adjusted to compensate for the distinct difference in height between Baron Master Don Jean Xavier Boullier and Eanraig the Bonesetter.

The Baronial Thrown Weapons championship also returned for axe, knife and spear throwing. Our current champion, John of Gravesend promised tests of skill and accuracy. There were many and varied participants as this competition was open to all members of the populace, from the freshest of throwers, to the most seasoned of thrown weapons marshals. The contestants gravely tested each other's skills, with the final standings having only a single point between first, second and third place. This year's winner and new Baronial Thrown Weapons Champion is Lord Magnus Sverre Haakson. Since Lord Magnus did not stay for court, and therefore could not be invested with his ceremonial regalia, Baroness Lassar took charge of it, and is contemplating an appropriate quest for Magnus as a penance for a Champion who has missed court.

Historians Note: I have gathered the history of the Barony from several sources. One mainly is the Viaduct, Coronet letters, event announcements and my memory. If you see that something has been left out, please let me know, so that I can include it in the master file. I encourage you to go back and review past installments. If you have pictures that you would like to accompany any part of the History, please send me a digital copy.

From the Coronet

Greetings from the Coronet!

We hope everyone is enjoying our unusually pleasant weather this winter and hope it holds out for us as we come into the event season. We will be having a Schola on April 22nd 2023 at Stony Brook university. If you are interested in teaching at the event please contact Lady VetraTrys Kaukoles. At Schola we will be choosing our new Baronial Bardic and Arts and Sciences champion. We are all looking forward to competitions designed by our current champions Lady Aoife inghean Uí Briai and Lady Fiona the Volatile. There are a few events taking place between now and spring finally springing, we hope to see everyone at Mudthaw on March 25 to welcome in the warm weather.

We would like to congratulate Lady Aoife inghean Uí Briai on her Award of Arms that she received at Birka this past weekend, Vivat!!

The Polling for our successors should be going out in the beginning of February, please make sure you return every ballot you are sent in its own return envelope so we can have a valid polling.

Yours in service

Baroness Sorcha of Stonegrave

Prefectus Titus Aurelius Magnus
