From Your Autocrat

Greetings to the Ducks!

I had a really wonderful time Stewarding our Spring Schola event, held on April 22, 2023, at Stony Brook University. Many people have congratulated me on a job well done, and expressed their great enjoyment of the event. I am humbled by your appreciation. It was the first year at a new site, working with a student group that we had not collaborated with before. The risks were high, but the Ducks made it all as easy as it possibly could have been!

I could not possibly have done it without you all.

I had a spark of an idea, and built a framework, and the Barony members generously, lovingly, and enthusiastically filled it into a gorgeous mosaic of learning and doing!

Vivant and THANK YOU to all our teachers:

Nico da Palermo
Vettorino Antonello
Hugoline the Delicate
Siiri Rannast
Michele the Ubiquitous
Fearghus Mac Cailin
Michel Biornson of the Isles
Eanraig the Bonesetter
Harold d'Whitmont
Khalil bin Nawfal
Fiona the Volatile
Vladimir Bathory
Andrea Noelle
Jean Xavier Boullier

The A&S and Bardic competitions also brought the passions forth! Thank you to Fiona and Aoife inghean Ui Briain for setting forth your challenges, and to all who answered the call! Special thanks to Hugoline the Delicate, and Demetrio Antelini da Luca and Violet Hughes, for the lovely championship scrolls.

I am extremely grateful to Vigdis Eldr who did an amazing job promoting the event, class by class, on Instagram and Facebook. She had this awesome idea to get a representative pic from each teacher, and then made a post for each, using the class descriptions that everyone provided to me. She really went above and beyond to get the word out!

Thank you to Slaine Baen Ronan, Vladimir, and Andrea, who took turns sitting at the Welcome Desk to greet folks as they came through the door, and coordinated with the Forumites. Thank you to Baroness Sorcha and Prefect Titus, and all the Officers who entrusted me to steward this event.

Special thanks to Jean Xavier for bringing all that was needed from the trailer, and for putting up and taking down the SCA signs, with help from Saravit of House Three Skulls.

I have surely missed calling out my specific thanks here. Please let me know privately if I've made an oversight and I'll happily correct it. It was a busy, busy day!

Thanks, An Dubh! Can't wait to do it again next year!

Vetra Trys Kaukoles
