For Your Information

Hear Ye, Hear ye!

We are currently seeking letters of intent to anyone interesting to the position of baronial chatelaine.

Please send letters to the seneschal and coronet.

From the Coronet

Greetings from Your Coronet!

On October 21st at St. Andrews we will be stepping down and Dame Hugoline the Delicate and Lady Fiona the Volatile will take their places as your new Coronets.

There are so many ways to describe our time as Coronet, it's been interesting to say the least. But, most of all we feel lucky and proud to have had the opportunity to serve as your Coronets and watch as members of the Barony grew, worked hard and accomplished great things. There were plenty of challenges along the way, but the people of our Barony were always able to pull together to do some amazing things.

We want to thank all who have assisted us, the officers and all event staff. We are looking forward to a little bit of rest and enjoying the unique spin that our heirs will bring to the Barony. So finally, always remember, it's a game it's supposed to be fun and, when times are tough and it's sink or swim, it's a good thing we are ducks.

Yours in Service to the Dream!

Baroness Sorcha of Stonegrave

Prefectus Titus Aurelius Magnus
