From the Coronet

Greetings from Your Coronet!

Winter Greetings to all of our ducks.

The cold, yucky weather hasn't slowed us down any, because ducks do not hibernate. Things continue to go swimmingly in our fair island culture.

Earlier this month, our baronial fencers and fighters participated in our first indoor fight practice, which was organized by Lady Andrea Noelle Bathory. Many of our fiercest murder ducks came out to battle and test their mettle. In addition several ducks brought their A&S projects along to work on. We are eagerly looking forward to February's indoor practice and A&S nigh, which will also have thrown weapons practice!!

Last weekend, many of us migrated north into the frigid wilds of Stone Marche for the Market Day at Birka. An Dubhaigeiann was well represented in both the heavy list and fencing tournaments where we made a great showing. Prior to evening court, Alverick became man at arms to Sir Brick James Beach. Later that evening, during the royal court, Tauq the Skraeling received his award of arms.

Congratulations to both of you!

Yours in Service to the Dream!
Baroness Fiona the Volatile
Baroness Hugoline the Delicate
