Brace yourselves... "Those People" are celebrating their 40th Anniversary, and of all the Three Skully things we've done, this one will be the Three Skully-est!!!!

****We can't wait to celebrate with ALL of our Medieval friends!****

Join us in beautiful an Dubhaigeainn on May 11 to celebrate House Three Skulls's 40th Founding Day. Our anniversary celebration will include all of your favorite Skull-tastic activities including a fencing tournament, archery, classes, thrown weapons, bardic, an A&S display, dedicated crafting space, and youth activities.

Our household history is very important to us, and so we will have a display to showcase our history, memorabilia, and artifacts, as well as a display to honor the lives and stories of our brethren who have passed. If you have any pictures, memorabilia, artifacts, or stories you would like to share for the event, please reach out to the Event Stewards at h3s40@andub.eastkingdom.org

The food at this event is going to be nothing short of amazing! We've got Gil heading up our kitchen team, so you know that means the food is going to be outstanding. The menu he is putting together will feature three removes, each including a medieval dish and a dish representing one of the most popular foods from each of the decades House Three Skulls has experienced. Desert will feature Persian Love Cakes made by House Three Skull's very own Lady Dahlia, and rumor has it that Baroness Fiona will be offering up some of her tasty libations. If you have any dietary concerns, please reach out to the Event Stewards.

Merchants are welcome! Please contact the Event Steward to reserve your spot.

Greetings from Your Coronet!

Spring has sprung in our fine feathered barony. Early flowers are in bloom, and the trees are budding. All around us are signs of new life. As the weather warms, and the days grow longer, we ducks are shaking the dust from our feathers and returning to our medieval pursuits with renewed vigor.

Our martial forces look to be in fine condition for the coming season. Baron Vladimir Bathory and Lady Andrea Noelle Bathory organized another indoor fight practice, which was attended by heavy and light list fighters. Thrown weapons practice was also conducted, and A&S activities took place as well.

Our fencers continue to practice regularly, under the guidance of The Honourable Lord Eanraig the Bonesetter. His competence, experience, and patience have helped An Dubhaigeainn's fencers to become a force to be reckoned with. Weekly heavy list practice has resumed as well, under the competent supervision of Baron Brick James Beech. Lord Ronan Fitz Robert has resumed archery practices at the beautiful wooded range he built. In addition to target practice and royal rounds. Ronan and Eanraig provided instruction to new archers, and experienced archers looking to improve their scores.

VWe are not merely a martial flock though. An Dubhaigeainn has long been renowned for its talented artisans. Lady Rosalie Blackmore and Osanna Schade organized what is sure to be our first of many baronial A&S nights. The event was well attended by many members of our barony, who worked on a variety of pursuits, including, scribal, inkle and tablet weaving, jewelry making, leather work, woodwork, and period gaming. All who attended had a great time and are looking forward to future gatherings.

We are both always incredibly proud to be coronets in such an amazing barony. Our populace never ceases to impress us with their knowledge, skill, and noble character. It is even better when the sovereigns of our kingdom recognize our members for their contributions, as happened recently at Mudthaw. We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Eanraig the Bonesetter on his inclusion into the Order of the Sagittarius. This was well deserved, and we are both so proud of our Uber Duck.

Finally, we are very excited to see everyone at Schola at Stony Brook University. The class lineup is phenomenal and we wish we could take everything! We are also really excited to see all of your A&S and Bardic Championship entries at the event.

Yours in Service
Baroness Fiona the Volatile
Baroness Hugoline the Delicate
