Baronial Brewing Challenge

For this year's challenge, the Hunt for Christalmo continues, Chapter 3. Brewers are challenged to bring 2 brews to the challenge, to bolster the resolve and fortify the courage of those seeking out the great threat to our home.

Brews will be judged on a standard rubric, with bonus points for the following:

- one brew should have bubbles, the other not;
- one brew to be red, the other not;
- one brew to have no alcohol, the other any percentage of alcohol;
- and one brew of a herbal variety (or any fraction), and the other fruity in nature.

All brewers will get partial credit for their concoctions if either brew fits any side of the 4 parameters listed. Please write up a recipe describing your wares, to help the judging process.

I will be sponsoring a prize from the Barony of the Western Seas to the winner of this contest, good luck to all! - Don Eanraig the Bonesetter

YIS, Vetra Trys Kaukoles

Greetings from Your Coronet!

Life is like a hurricane, here in Duckberg. So many things are blowing in the wind around here. Archery practice is in full swing, and several ducks have taken their place on the Kingdom Archery Ranking. Heavy weapons, fencing and thrown weapons practices are taking place regularly as well. We recently held our second monthly Arts and Sciences night, which was well attended and a good time was had by all.

We recently held our spring schola: Duckvinci. This event, stewarded by Vetra and Vigdis, was a huge success. There were over 18 classes, on various topics throughout the event. We also held our Arts and Sciences Championship and our Bardic Championship.

We had three amazing entries for our A&S Championship. The theme this year was whaling. Gilchrist did a research project on the Magician's Wallet, a precursor to the Jacobs Ladder. Rosalie researched and executed a tablet woven band decorated with whales. Titus researched and recreated period harpoons. Entries were judged using the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Rubric. All three entries were extremely impressive, but Titus narrowly beat out the competition to become the next Bardic competition.

We also had some very talented entrants to our Bardic competition. Vetra told a great story about a fencer she admires. Gilchrist entertained us all with the tale of the Murder Ducks. Bjørn sang an absolutely beautiful period song. Slaine also chose to entertain the populace with a story, but opted not to enter the competition. It was a very difficult decision, but ultimately Bjørn was chosen as our new Bardic Champion.

Our Barony fielded 3 teams at Balfar's Challenge. The Fates and the Brick Street Boys both made strong showings in their fabulous matching tabards. Congratulations to Gilchrist, Andromedes, and Sir Arne who made up the winning team. And Congratulations to Osanna for her winning heraldic submission.

From the Coronet

We would like to extend congratulations to members of our populace who were recently recognized by the Eastern Crown. Don Eanraig the Bonesetter was inducted into the Order of the Sagitarius at Mudthaw, and Baron Titus Aurelius Magnus was inducted into the Order of the Silver Crescent at the Tournament of Daffodils. We are so proud of both of you!

We would also like to congratulate Fearghus who is nearing the completion of a very successful year as the Consort's Heavy Weapons Champion. He has served the Kingdom in the same way he serves our Barony; with grace, humor, and a level of badassery that is ducky, to say the least. We hope you enjoy your rest in a few weeks.

Finally we would like to extend our very heartfelt thanks to Baroness Catriona who stepped up to finish out Fiona's term as Chatelaine when we declared our intention to run for Coronet. She did a wonderful job, and we are very appreciative of her hard work and friendship. We apologize for failing to thank her publicly at Schola and will make that right at our next opportunity.

Looking ahead, we are busy preparing for the House Three Skulls 40th Anniversary Event, and Potted Arms. We remain honored to serve as Baronesses of this fine feathered Barony, and awed by your awesome duckiness.

Yours in Service
Baroness Fiona the Volatile
Baroness Hugoline the Delicate
