Join the Canton of Hawke's Reache for our annual event, "Potted" Arms and Fancy "Faire"! Spring has flowered into summer and Baronesses Fiona and Hugoline travel the lands of An Dubhaigeainn to collect their tithes on the way to the Pennsic War.

The Canton of Hawkes Reache welcomes them with a Summer Faire complete with a tournament to select the new Baronial Fencing Champion.

There will be a hearty day board served throughout the day. No feast will be served but fear not, for none shall leave hungry!

We will have a repeat of the always lively "Hat Auction", where the populace can bid for a fencer represented by their hat, with the proceeds benefiting the Canton of Hawkes Reache. If that rapier fighter wins the Hat Tournament, the bidder wins a prize!

The Baronial Fencing Tournament will help Their Excellencies decide on the next Baronial Rapier Champion based on demonstration of skill, courtesy, and pageantry.

The format will be chosen by the current Baronial Fencing Champion, Master Jean Xavier Boullier.

All may enter; only a Duck may serve as Champion. Each entrant to the Baronial Tournament must have their introduction to the list prepared for a herald to read, and entrants are strongly encouraged to bring their own "over the top" Herald (like in "A Knight's Tale").

There will be a prize and recognition for best Heraldic entrance performance!

So bring your chairs and blankets to take respite upon the lawns and watch the fencing and silly games.

Merchants are most welcome to help us get in fine shopping form for Pennsic! Please contact the Event Steward to register to merchant. Additional activities will be announced as they are confirmed.

This event is held and managed by Barony of An Dubhaigeainn, a branch of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. and is considered the Official channel of this group here. Baronial Brewing Challenge

For this year's challenge, the Hunt for Christalmo continues, Chapter 3. Brewers are challenged to bring 2 brews to the challenge, to bolster the resolve and fortify the courage of those seeking out the great threat to our home.

Brews will be judged on a standard rubric, with bonus points for the following:

- one brew should have bubbles, the other not;
- one brew to be red, the other not;
- one brew to have no alcohol, the other any percentage of alcohol;
- and one brew of a herbal variety (or any fraction), and the other fruity in nature.

All brewers will get partial credit for their concoctions if either brew fits any side of the 4 parameters listed. Please write up a recipe describing your wares, to help the judging process.

I will be sponsoring a prize from the Barony of the Western Seas to the winner of this contest, good luck to all! - Don Eanraig the Bonesetter

Greetings from Your Coronet!

Both of us have been known to say that May is for surviving, not thriving. But, you, our fine feathered populace, have been proving us wrong. You are definitely thriving! In spite of the chaos that late spring inevitably brings, things are going swimmingly here in An Dubhaigeainn. Eanraig the Bonesetter and Fearghus mac Cailan are just finishing up their terms as kingdom champions. Vladimir Bathory made it to the sweet sixteen in the crown tournament. Could a Ducky reign be in our future?

Saravit of House Three Skulls successfully ran his first event, The House Three Skulls 40th Anniversary. It was a beautiful event, with fun tournaments, delicious food cooked by first time feast steward Talyn Van Horn, copious drinks, and joyful reunions with old friends. During court, Conrad Jarnhand and Robert de Whitmont were presented with Silver Feathers in honor of their years of service to the barony. Everyone who worked on this event should be very proud of themselves. It was a truly special and memorable day.

While we were celebrating our household reaching middle age, several of our fighters were competing in the Sovereigns and Consort's Rattan Championships. Congratulations to Vlad and Gilchrist for making it into the sweet sixteen! Although we missed them terribly, we are so proud of how well our Ducks of War represented the barony.

The following weekend, several ducks headed off to Beast of the East. The weather was cold and rainy, but that didn't stop our mighty ducks from making a grand showing. Congratulations to Vladimir Bathory and Andrea Noelle Bathory on their induction into the Order of the Silver Wheel.

Now we are looking ahead to Potted Arms where we will choose our new fencing champion. It is certain to be a lovely day, and we hope to see everyone there. We remain honored to serve as Baronesses of this fine feathered Barony, and awed by your awesome duckiness.

Yours in Service
Baroness Fiona the Volatile
