Greetings from Your Coronet!

The days are growing shorter, and the heat and humidity are slowly giving way to cooler breezes and crisp fall weather. But before we embrace the spooky season, let's take a moment to reflect on what was a truly great summer for the ducks.

Our summer started out on a high note with a truly excellent baronial commons hosted by Vlad and Andrea. Everyone enjoyed the bear pit tournaments, delicious food, and great atmosphere. Congrats to our tournament winners, Vettorio Antonello and Gilchrist Blackmore.

After commons, all thought turned to war. The Midrealm needed to be defeated, and An Dubhaigeainn brought the BIG DUCK ENERGY! As usual, our camp dad, Peter of Hawkwood, ran a truly lovely baronial encampment. Our Barony's Big Duck Energy was on proud display during the opening ceremonies. However, once the war started, our ducks took flight! Michel Biornsen was inducted into the order of the Silver Tyger. Later that day, he was squired to Sir Brick. At the same court, Vladimir Bathory was inducted into the Order of the Tygers Combatant. Our A&S Champion Titus made a great showing at the East Kingdom Baronial Arts and Sciences Display, with his beautifully made and meticulously documented harpoons. Osanna and Gilchrist brought the Big Duck Energy to the novice fencers tournament. Our Heavy List Champion, Andromedes, absolutely shined during the Known World Baronial Heavy Weapons Championship. Though he did not win, nobles and fellow combatants from around the known world sought us out to sing his praises, speaking highly of his enthusiasm, courtesy and comportment on the field. Finally, no account of Pennsic would be complete without mentioning our new found favorite sport: rubber chicken battles!

From the Coronet

Finally, as summer came to a close, we gathered for Arrows, Axes, and Ales: Knocked and Loaded. It was a beautiful day full of fellowship and great food and drink. Special thanks to Rosalie Jane Blackmore for running an excellent event, Gilchrist and his team for the amazing day board, and Baron Stefanus for providing us with delicious libations! During the day three baronial championships were held. Alverick created an enjoyable and creative archery tournament that also served to teach the populace about an important chapter in An Dubhaigeainn's history. Although many archers participated, one stood out among the rest. Eanraig the Bonesetter was declared the new Baronial Champion of Archers. Ronan Fitz Robert designed a fun and challenging Chrystalmo themed thrown weapons tournament. Vladimir Bathory bested his competition to become our new Baronial Champion of Thrown Weapons. Riley, our youth thrown weapons champion helped to design our youth championship tournament. They also participated in the tournament and won. They will serve a second year as our youth champion.

Finally we had our brewing competition. The parameters of the competition were extremely rigorous, and frightened away all but one competitor. Demetrio Antelini da Luca presented two beverages, which were scored using the East Kingdom Brewers Guild Panel Rubric. Not only did he win the tournament and become our Champion of Brewers, but he also scored high enough on both beverages to advance to the rank of Brewer in the East Kingdom Brewers Guild.

Now as we move toward autumn weather, we are looking forward to our upcoming events. We hope to see everyone at our upcoming demo at Longwood Estates, and at The Feast of St. Andrew.

Yours in Service

Baroness Hugoline the Delicate
