In Service,
Barones Mistress Suzanne Nueber de Londres

Greetings from Your Coronet!

It has been quite a month! The cool crisp autumn air has ushered in all sorts of good things for our Ducky Barony.

The Brookhaven Country Fair at the Longwood Estate was a smashing success. Suzanne Nueber de Londres did a wonderful job organizing this two day demo and left everyone impressed with the delicious food she cooked on an open fire both days. Our fighters, joined by friends from Ostgardr and Acre put on a dazzling show for the fair attendees under the watchful eyes of Sir Murdock, Titus, and Ervold. They were followed each time by our fencers who demonstrated finesse and grace as they wielded their swords under the careful gaze of Eanraig and Jean Xavier. The booming voice of Yoshimitsu introduced all of the combatants and kept the crowd informed.

Not to be outdone, An Dubhaigeainn's artisans demonstrated the arts of weaving, calligraphy and illumination and jewelry making while engaging the populace in period board games. The youngest fair attendees got to try their hands firing child sized trebuchets and catapults. We could not be more proud of all of our Ducks and friends who engaged the public and made our two days at the fair a smashing success.

Speaking of being proud of our Ducks, our hearts are still full of joy following Ducal Challenge. Andrea and Vlad got their ducks in a row and organized a really beautiful vigil. Our fighters and fencers fought with incredible honor in the tournaments, and our artisans showcased their talents as sponsors for the marshal activities.

From the Coronet

The day started with incredible excitement as Gilchrist was called into court by King Tindal and asked to ponder joining the knighthood. He was then whisked away to sit vigil and contemplate the question before him. It was heartening to see so many friends, both old and new, show up to give advice to Gilchrist and to celebrate the day with him.

Evening Court saw the recognition of three of our incredible ducks whose service to our Barony and the East Kingdom has earned them all word fame. Congratulations to Cat, Elusaid, and Ronan for being inducted into the Order of the Silver Crescent. We are so very proud of you!

Court ended with the elevation of Gilchrist to the Knighthood. The ceremony was touching and heartfelt. We are so happy for Gilchrist and so glad many of our ducks were able to be there to witness this wonderful occasion.

This coming month we are looking forward to seeing the results of the Crown Tournament. Will this year see a Duck on the Tyger Thrown? We are also looking forward to learning to play period board games at A&S night, and enjoying music and stories at our second bardic night graciously hosted by Skellig, and our fighters and fencers continue to train for 100 Minutes War at weekly practices hosted by Sir Brick.

Yours in Service
Baroness Fiona the Volatile
