Annual Duck Photo

Ready to show your BIG DUCK ENERGY ?? Members of the Barony are invited to gather for our annual An Dubhaigeainn photo with the Long Island Duck. NOTE: the photo is taken as/after the sun sets, so it may be cold!

The date is not yet finalized, but is tentatively set for December 8th.

Greetings from Your Coronet!

Greetings Ducks!

After a very busy September, October was spent preparing for our Baronial Anniversary, The Knowne World Travels to St Andrews. We are greatly looking forward to this event with the signing of the charter for our new Cooks' Guild and heavy weapons tournament organized by our outgoing champion Andromedus.

We have watched in anticipation since this summer, the efforts of our Baronial cooks to organize and for a guild under the guiding hand of Vetra. The menu for St. Andrews Dayboard and feast look wonderful, and we are looking forward to enjoying all of it. We are also excited that this new guild will create a supportive framework for all of our aspiring cooks to grow and thrive.

Our fighters have been working hard at honing their skills as they prepare for the heavy weapons championship at St. Andrews and the grand melee that marks the official end of the fighting season, 100 Minutes War in Rusted Woodlands at the end of the month. The time spent in training is paying off and bringing wordfame to our fighters. We are so incredibly proud of Vlad for making it to the "Sweet 16" at Crown Tournament, and of our current heavy weapons Champion Amdromedus who made it all the way to the final four! We can't wait to see what the tournament at Saint Andrews will bring.

We are looking forward to seeing you all at St. Andrew's.

Yours in Service
Baroness Fiona the Volatile
Baroness Hugoline the Delicate
