Join the Canton of Hawke's Reache for our annual event, "Potted" Arms and Fancy "Faire"!

Spring has flowered into summer and Baronesses Fiona and Hugoline travel the lands of An Dubhaigainn to collect their tithes on the way to the Pennsic War. The Canton of Hawkes Reache welcomes them with a Summer Faire complete with a tournament to select the new Baronial Fencing Champion. There will be a hearty day board served throughout the day. No feast will be served but fear not, for none shall leave hungry!

We will have a repeat of the always lively "Hat Auction", where the populace can bid for a fencer represented by their hat, with the proceeds benefiting the Canton of Hawkes Reache. If that rapier fighter wins the Hat Tournament, the bidder wins a prize!

The Baronial Fencing Tournament will help Their Excellencies decide on the next Baronial Rapier Champion based on demonstration of skill, courtesy, and pageantry. The format will be chosen by the current Baronial Fencing Champion, Demetrio Antelini da Lucca. All may enter; only a Duck may serve as Champion. Each entrant to the Baronial Tournament must have their introduction to the list prepared for a herald to read, and entrants are strongly encouraged to bring their own "over the top" Herald (like in "A Knight's Tale"). There will be a prize and recognition for best Heraldic entrance performance!

In addition, this year's event will feature our first annual "Duck Off" in which members of the populace will show off their duck calls. Only one gentle can be named the "ducking" best!

So bring your chairs and blankets to take respite upon the lawns and watch the fencing and silly games. Merchants are most welcome to help us get in fine shopping form for Pennsic! Please contact the Event Steward to register to merchant. Additional activities will be announced as they are confirmed.

Greetings from Your Coronet!

Spring has sprung in our fine feathered barony, and our populace is blossoming around us! Our month started with a field trip to The Crown Province of Ostgardr for the coronation of Ryouko'jin of-the-Iron-Skies and Indrakshi Aani Aravinda. Although the day was cold and rainy, spirits were high. Two members of the populace were chosen to serve on the Queen's guard. Congratulations Vetra Trys Kaukoles and Alverik Wyntervelt.

After the King and Queen were crowned, we managed to get all of our ducks in a row in order to present our gift of largesse to their majesties. We gave our oath of fealty which included a vow to protect the Kingdom from the horrible menace known as Crystalmo, the Great and Terrible White Fish of the North. Long Live the King and Queen of the East!

The following weekend, our own Michele the Ubiquitous joined forces with Shifu Lu An-hua, Lady Anna Elisabetta de Vallodolid, and Lady Nabiya Bak to cook for Dumpling-fest, a day of eating an incredible variety of dumplings and other foods from across Asia, including the Philippines, Mongolia, China, Korea, Tibet, and more. The day included A&S classes, crafts, and games from China, Asia and Korea.

Next, our Barony took a trip to The Cloisters. We met up with our neighbors from Ostgardr to tour the museum. A great time was had by all who attended. Thank you so much to Rosalie Jane Blackmore for organizing the outing.

Towards the end of the Month, we held our annual Schola event at Stony Brook University. Violet Hughes did a great job as event steward. It was a beautiful day full of joy and learning. At the Schola, we held our Arts and Sciences championship and our Bardic Championship. Truly, we were blown away by the skill and talent presented in both competitions. Both contests were extremely close, and it was difficult to select winners among such great entries. Congratulations to Gilchrist Blackmore, our new Arts and Sciences champion, and Rosalie Jane Blackmore our new Bardic champion.

From the Coronet

We couldn't possibly be prouder to have you representing us. In addition to presenting championship scrolls and tokens in court, we welcomed a new member to our Order of Perseverance. Congratulations to Suzanne Nueber de Londres, who excels in service, arts and sciences and martial activity.

Finally, a mighty contingent of ducks braved the foul weather to travel to Concordia of the Snows for the first ever Crown Tournament fought using rapiers conventions. We were so excited to witness this historic event, and to cheer on the members of our barony who competed. Congratulations to Osanna Schade and Alverik Wyntervelt, Jean Xavier Boullier and Gianetta Lucia Alegretta, Gilbert Christian Blackmore and Rosalie Jane Blackmore, and Vettorino Antonello and Lada Monguligin. You all made a fine showing, and will forever be a part of East

Kingdom history.

In addition to the tournament, during the event Duchess Isabella of York took Lady Marisa al Qattana as an apprentice, and Rosalie Jane Blackmore formally became a student of Mistress Lily Morgaine Grey. Congratulations to all on your new relationships!

Finally, the East has heirs! Long live Master Donovan Shinnock and Countess Chatricam Meghanta, Prince and Princess of Tir Mara!
